Men Attend Debate Meet

The men's debate team will participate in the Tri-State Tournament at Mt. Mercy College tomorrow. Colleges in West Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Ohio will be represented.

Each team will take part in four debates on the free trade issue. Carl K. Harshbarger and Martin Lennig will argue the affirmative for the College, while Peter F. Giesey and Fred M. Kecker will take the negative.

The women's team from Gettysburg College will hold two debates on the free trade issue with the College men's team in 121 Sparks, at 7 and 8:15 p. m. Wednesday.

In the 7 o'clock debate Gettysburg will take the affirmative, and Martin Lennig will be chairman. Serving on the College's negative side will be Thomas Hopkins and William Karn.

Herman Latt and Theodore Harmatz of Penn State will take the affirmative in the second debate, with Fred Kecker serving as chairman.
