Harry, Dixon Win ElWA Titles

Steel Takes Third Place: Navy Captures Team Title

Captain Sam Harry and Freshman Grant Dixon copped the 128pound and 155-pound titles of the 42nd annual Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association tourney held at Bethlehem Saturday.

For the ease in which he overcame his opponents, Captain Harry was voted "the outstanding wrestler of the tourney" by the nine team coaches. Dixon, on the other hand, became the first freshman in the history of Penn State wrestling to win an EIWA crown. ney was with Princeton's Gilkeson, which he won by default after five minutes of wrestling. In the semi-finals he pinned Hetherson of Penn in 2.99 with a cradle hold, tourney. His first meeting was with Penn's Welling, whom he pinned in 8.30 with a reverse cradle hold. His final test was with Hathway of Navy, whom he outpointed, 3-0, in a close match.

The Lion 136 - pounder, Joe

Steel, outpointed Rynick to place third in the lightweight class. Earlier in the meet he had blanked Army's Robertson, 4-0, but was finally eliminated from top con-

Harry regained the title he held in '42. His first match of the tourney was with Princeton's Cilleran of Penn in 2.99 with a cradle hold, and outpointed Cornell's Hunting-ton, 6-0, for the crown.

Dixon, who now holds the crown that Glenn Smith won last year, faced only two foes in the Cornell's Hunting Showing championship form, Penn State's gym team outclassed the U.S. Naval Academy in Recreation Hall Saturday night by copping five of six first places during a 65-31 rout.

Veteran Steve Greene again proved to be the outstanding performer of the meet, taking top honors in rope climbing, side horse, and parallel bars. His rope climbing mark of 3.9 seconds was only one-tenth of a second short of the received set by enother Penn of the record set by another Penn Stater, Charlie Lebow, in '43.

Rating a close second to his teammate, Captain Hal Frey out-shone the field in tumbling with the high score of 277, and also placed high in the horizontal bars and the parallel bars.

Promising gymnast Wally Glover led both teams in the horizontal bar event with a score of 276, and finished a close second to Greene on the parallel bars.

The Middles were superior in only one event, placing first and second on the rings.

Nugent Scores Winning Goal

With less than 30 seconds remaining in the game, Bill Nugent, one of two starters on the court, tossed in a goal from in close to give the Nittany Lions an upset victory over Colgate's Red Raiders, 46-44, in Recreation Hall Saturday night.

The Lions end their home season tomorrow night when they will attempt a second win over Carnegie Tech. They already own a decisive win which was played on the Skibo's floor.

John Lawther's boys, playing again the role of underdog, took a lead early in the first quarter and remained well in the van until three Lion mainstays were ejected in the final period with five minutes playing time remain-

The Lions started off like a "ball of fire" as they surged to a 19-10 lead at the end of the first quarter, but the Red Raiders came back strong in the next two periods and the score read, 39-33, as the final period began.
