

Kappas Offer Scholarships To Graduates

Scholarships of three classifications are being offered by Kappa Kappa Gamma, national sorority, to women students not over 30 years of age. Applications and details may be obtained in the Dean of Women's office.

Further stipulation is that the applicant must have received a bachelor's degree, or will obtain it prior to July 1 of this year, from an institution where a chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma is located. Applications must be mailed by April 1, and awards will be announced as soon as possible after May 1.

The first classification includes three $500 fellowships for graduate study for women who need help to continue their education and who are well qualified to compete for these awards. Applicants should have made a real contribution to their schools and have a well outlined plan for graduate work.

The second group, foreign study scholarships, are available to members of the fraternity desiring to study in another country who need not more than $400 to carry out their plan. A plan of exchange was achieved before the war but the present system limits the scholarships to students desiring to study in South America, and giving assistance to Latin Americans through the Institute of International Education.

Graduate counselor scholarships are assistances to graduate members of Kappa Kappa Gamma who wish to pursue further courses. The amount varies with charges of the school.

Kappa Kappa Gamma also offers undergraduate scholarships and student loans, the former for members, and the latter to all college women who have successfully completed two years of college or university work and at least one year at an institution where a chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma is located.

If we may paraphrase a little on Shelley's "Ode to the West Wind," we might say, "If spring comes, can summer be far behind." And with summer . . . comes . . . conventions. The Delta Gammas are already preparing for their national one, and Mary Lou Waygood, local president, has been named to represent the Penn State chapter at Pasadena, California, in the early part of July. Helen Heckler, DG alum who is now teaching shorthand and typing at the College, is driving out for the convention and will be accompanied by both Mary Lou and Dorothy Lawrence. 'Tis rumored that several other DGs may go along "just for the ride," but plans are indefinite. And the DGs aren't the only ones traveling these days. Mrs. Reesc, former chaperone at the Kappa Alpha Theta house, left Sunday to visit her family in France.

Congrats To Spoudekastor

And congratulatoins are in order for the successful Spoudekastor members on their recent acceptance by Delta-Delta-Delta, commonly known as Tri-Delt. There is an old saying that "Three times and out." Well, this is the third time that coeds on this campus have attempted to set up a Tri-Delt chapter, and at last success is theirs. Best wishes to you . . . Recently initiated by Spoudekastor were: Elsie Federoff, Penny Hamann, Gloria Parks and Bobby Roberts.

In keeping with the rushing theme which is now the fashion, the Chi Omega house entertained the AChiO suite at a mock rushing party Tuesday night. Beta Sigma Omicron recently initiated Ginny Gault. Oh yes, and the Theta Chis and their gals had a picnic Saturday, which incidentally seems still to be having repercussions.

We hear that former women's editor, Pat Turk, has accepted a position with the Canonsburg Daily and Alice Mendenhall, AChiO, is starting classes at Drexel come pril 1.

Fraternity Row Briefs

Switching the scene now to Fraternity Row, we find the Sigma Phi Sigmas housecleaning. They also elected the following officers: Harry Crabbe, president; Charles Eby, vice-president; William Utts, treasurer; and George Barber, secretary. Ray Houchins was appointed pledge master. Beta Sigma Rho is also keeping itself very busy pledging and initiating. They recently pledged Ralph Cohen and Bernie Woolf, and initiated Jerry Raubfogel, Earl Schaffer, and Mark Spitz. Bob Berg has just returned from military service and has been inducted by the fraternity.

Richards' Club, home economics honorary for junior women fulfilling requirements of scholarship, activities, and professional attitude, initiated 26 members at the Nittany Lion Inn Sunday night. ley, Ruth Friedman, Ruth Hanstein, Maria Hanzlik, Rachel Hindenach, June Irvin, Margaret Keefe, Rene Kuntzleman.

Sororities To Begin Parties

Sorority rushing parties will be held Monday through Thursday from 7 to 9 p. m. with each group holding two. Each rushee may attend only one party a night.

Uniform invitations will be delivered by the sorority the day previous to the party for which they are intended. Rushees may answer the invitations by 5:30 p. m. of the day of the party, but all invitations must be answered.

The sororities holding parties Monday and Wednesday are: Alpha Epsilon Phi, Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, Phi Sigma Sigma, Spoudekastor (Delta Delta Delta), and Zeta Tau Alpha.

Those scheduled for parties Tuesday and Thursday are Alpha Chi Omega, Beta Sigma Omicron, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phi Mu, Sigma Delta Tau, and Theta Phi Alpha. Lampades will entertain Thursday evening only.

Because of a chapter regulation, the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority can rush only girls with at least a 1.3 all-college average.
