PRICE FIVE CENTS

College To Fete Americas' Day

Celebration To Feature Dean Kern, Navy Band

The Fourth Annual Pan-American Day colebration will begin on the steps of Old Main at 3 p.

m. Sunday.
Following selections by the Navy band, Frank D. Kern, dean of the graduate school, will address the audience. Eighth semester president, Joseph Steel will introduce the speaker. Program festivities will then continue inside the building.

Movies of several Pan-American countries will be shown in the Little Theaten at 3:45 p. m. Students of various American countries will entertain with a reception in the Hugh Beaver Room. Raymond Doret of Haiti will play introductory music while the guests are arriving.

Climsking the entertainment, Gloria Trovaioli and Alvizio Barbosa will sing "Quatro Mil-pas" and "El Ombo." Refreshments will be served.

The Pan-American theme is being carried out in, the decorations and entertainment at the ed between coeds and men stud-Saturday Night Club in White ents The show, open to the pub-

Chairman for the Pan-American Day festivities is Peter W. Horen. Various committees for the celebration are: Jeanne Brenner, entertainment at the recep-Janet Smith, program; Peggy Martin, posters and decorations

Posters for the holiday were made by the following; Bethine Balsbaugh, Temazine Crum, Jean Edelman, Esther Gershman, Avis Goldberg, Joan Harrington, Nancy Harrington, Claire Harvey, Janice Koenig, Mary Ann Mason, Marjorie Medland, Jane Rosenthal, and Jean Sommer.

College Enrollment Rises To Fourteenth Position

Penn State has jumped to fourteenth place among the colleges and universities in the country in full-time student enrollment. College officials were informed to

The report was made by Dr. Raymond Walters, president of the University of Cincinnati, for the educational weekly and Soeducational weekly, School and Society, and were based on Hughes, figures of November 1, 1945. Cline, p

Coeds, Pigs To Run Derby

Fun for all, perhaps at the expense of the adventurous coeds entered in the "Coed Pig Derby," is promised by Samuel Laub, manager of the 1946 "Little International," livestock show sponsored by the Block and Bridle Club, in the Stock Pavilion at 1 p.m. tomorrow.

The "Coed Pig Derby" in which women students attempt to lead the pigs over an assigned course, has attracted so many entries that two preliminary heats will be run before staging the final derby. Tait-to Judge

With the naming of Elton B. Tait, radio editor for the College Agricultural Extension Service, as chief judge of the events, plans were completed for the show. In naming Tait to the judgeship, Laub revived the custom of having a former show manager return for the annual event in the capacity of judge.

The entire show is built around the showing and fitting of beef cattle, sheep, horses, and swine, with merchandise, ribbons, and trophies being awarded to the winners in the various classes and breeds. There will be about 50 entries in the show, evenly dividlic, is expected to draw competition close to pre-war levels when it was an outstanding student activity in animal husbandry, according to Manager Laub.

Special events in additon to the "Coed Pig Denby" including a display of various meat cuts with choice roasts, steaks, and chops, will be auctioned off during the afternoon. In a series of contests for riding horses, both cocds and male students will display their abilities as equestrians.

Assisted by Breeders

In judging the show, Mr. Tait, who was manager of the "Little Exposition" in 1937 when he was a senior in the School of Agriculture, will be assisted by several prominent beef, sheep, and swine breeders of the state who are planning to attend the event.

Dr. Lyman E. Jackson, dean of the School of Agriculture, will speak at a banquet to be held in the Methodist Church at 7 p.m. tomorrow, at which the numer-ous prizes and trophies will be awarded to the winners of the various events held in the afternoon

In addition to Samuel Laub who is managing the show, the committee consists of Robert L. Smith, program chairman; Maria marshall; and Harriel Cline, publicity chairman.

Froth Schedules Staff Try-Outs

Brown, Ridall Named Temporary Co-editors

Candidates for Froth, campus humor magazine, will meet in 305 Old Main at 5 pm. today, it has been announced by the committee petitioning for the revival of the defunct magazine.

Speaking for the group. Hugh Ridall said that permission had been granted by the College to issue a call, pending approval of the proposed constitution for Froth by the Senate Committee on Student Welfare.

All undergraduate students in terested are eligible, Ridall said. Not only are there openings for writers, but also for photographers, artists and business members.

Main purpose of the meeting this afternoon is to find out how meny students want to work on Froth. Since the meeting has been called on such short notice, Ridall said that it would only be a 30 minute session.

"If the turn-out meets expectations and the Senate committee's approval comes quickly, we hope to issue two editions of Froth before the semester ends, Ridall said.

Faculty members serving the Board of Directors of the magazine will be Louis H. Bell, Director of Public Information; George Donovan, Student Union manager; William S. Hoffman, Registrar; Leo Houck, boxing coach; Edward J. Nichols, protessor of English composition; Hugh R. Riley, assistant executive secretary of the Alumni Association, and Arthur R. Warnock, Dean of Men.

Serving as temporary co-editors are William Brown and Hugh Ridall. William Campbell Finklestein will and Herman serve as co-business managers until permanent elections are held later in the semester. Other temporary appointments made by the committee were those of Ben I. French as managing editor and Jeanette Bosch, feature editor.

County AVC Gets Charter

The Centre County chapter of the American Veterans Committee received its charter from year, entries from colleges and national headquarters making it universities all over the country an official chapter here. The are sent to the University of Dechapter at present is putting on troit to crawl it out for a minist a member: hip drive headed by ture gold cup. John Bowers.

Monday.

An appeal was received from the AVC chapter at Columbia University which stated that the university was attempting to raise its tuition. The Centre County chapter is backing the appeal by sending them a petition signed by its members.

A Coordinating committee has been formed to work in close lairon with the local veterans civic and campus organizations. Heading the committee are David Brumbergh and Leo Troy.

Greeters Club

. ar, organization for hotel administration students, recently elected the following officers: Robert Wetherby, president; Moylan Brown, vice president; Donald Book, president-elect; John Wills, treasurer; Jack Seymout mour, corresponding secretary; Philip Barnhart, recording secre-tary. There are at present 40 active members in the club.

WMAJ To Broadcast Queen's Coronation

A radio broadcast, two o'clock permissions for coeds, a Powers-selected queen, showers of spring flowers, and "music designed for dancing" by Elliot Lawrence and his orchestra add up to the launching of a big weekend at the Spring Nocturne tonight.

Stickmen Meet West Point

Activities on this big weekend continue when Coach Nick Thiel's Nittany lacrosse stickmen meet West Point on New Beaver Field at 2 p.m. tomorrow afternoon. Also a dance will be held by the Saturday Night-club in White Hall have planned dances and parties

Band Maestro

ELLIOTT LAWRENCE

Turn Out at Polls; Vote 2 or 3 Times For Class Turtle

By ETAOIN SHRDLU Political Reporter

With the smoke just clearing away from the stink of the last All-College election, the two major parties have elected again to fight it out across the ballot boxes in a contest to elect the most prominent turtle on campus to represent the College at the annual Turtle Trudge, April 26 at the University of Detroit.

Yes, we said turtle-those little plated amphibians that float around in ponds and such. Each

Each turtle carries with him In order to show the AVC's a picture of his lady fair, to keep local and national policies, views, and ideas, the local AVC is issuing a mimeographed paper which will be distributed on Monday. the lovely female who is selected by John Powers as queen of the Spring Nocturne dance. Board Sets Up Election Rules

Now that leaves us up to the selection of the turtle, and that's where the parties come in. Naturally the election will be conducted upon lines set up by the College board of elections. Rules, slightly modified by Turtle Trudge election chairmen Al Green and Michael Horen, prominent and much-lauded BMOCs, have been released.

Number one:-Voting will be by classes. The class winning, that is, putting in the largest number of votes, will have its entrant suitably emblazoned with classyear and school colors and sent to

Number two: Voting will be from sun-up Friday to sun-down Monday in Student Union. There is no limit on the number of votes that may be cast by one voter. Clique leaders urge their cohorts to "Get in there and stuff those ballot boxes."

Said chairman Al Green from (Continued on page three)

starting at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening. Fraternities Give Parties for tomorrow night. Chapel service at Schwab Auditorium Sunday morning will consist of the annual Easter song service by the College choir. The Pan-American day celebration will take place Sunday afternoon.

Spring Nocture, a semi-formal affair at Recreation Hall will start at 9 o'clock tonight. Dancing will continue until 1 a.m. Tickets at $3.60 per couple, are on sale at the Student Union desk in Old Main until 5 p.m. today. Crowning to be Broadcast Arrangements have been completed for the broadcasting the crowing of the "Spring Nocturne Queen" over WMAJ from 11:00-111:15 p.m. Louis H. Bell, director of the College's Office of Public Information, will be the master of ceremonies.

The name of the girl selected by John Robert Powers as queen will be announced during the broadcast. Mr. Powers' selection has been received by the dance chairman, Ralph Lewis, and the envelope will remain sealed until the moment of the announcement.

Two o'clock permissions were granted by Senate and Judicial at a meeting Wednesday.

24 Merchants Give Gifts Four more local merchants have added gifts to the queen's dowry making a total of 24 such gifts. The cocds vying for the royal honors are: Mary Anderson, Jesephine Barton, Florence Brown, Grace Fuchs, Marilyn Globisch, Betty Meyer, Edith Murray, Eleanor Roberts, Bunny Rosenthal, and Jeanne Schrumpf. Flowers Will Bloom

To carry out the spring theme of the dance, Recreation Hall will bloom with hundreds of spring flowers. The bandstand will be deluged with blossoms.

Booths will be provided for both fraternity and independents by the Ex-GI Club which is sponsoring the affair.

Elliot Lawrence (will be the guest of the Pi Lambda Phi fraternity during his short stay in State College. Lawrence is a joined when an undergraduate at the University of Pennsylvania.

Saturday Night Club Features Pan Americana

A Pan American theme will be carried cut at the Saturday Night Club dance in White Hall from 9 p.m. to 12 p.m. Mortar, Board is sponsoring this dance with the assistance of the Pan American Day committee.

Crests of the South American countries will be displayed on posters, and South American flags will carry out the South American theme.

Conga lines and rhumbas will be featured during the evening, and the entertainment at intermirsion will be a quartet consisting of Jean Ford, Mary Kath-ryne Reinard, Eleanor Roberts, and Charlotte Taylor.

Admission will be thiry cents. Refreshments will be sold Room 105.

All Students

. . . having funds forthcoming from the Student Book Exchange may receive them at Student Union from 2 to 4:30 p. m. Monday.

Trustees Approve Plans For Four New Buildings

Construction of four new can-housing 500, with dining facilities pus buildings and one new wing included. has been difficially approved by the Board of Trustees, the College announced today.

sanotioned, under the broad will lead to construction of a threefold program of the State, student activities building and a The units are the first to be the Alumni, and the College.
With $1,296,000 allocated by the State, the College will construct a classroom building and a wing for the Recreation Build-ing. These building projects were selected by Governor Edward Martin, acting upon recommendation of the Public Instruction Department, from a list of eight of initted by the College Board of Trustees.

Full allocation of State funds for postwar construction, at State institutions has not yet been an-nounced by the Governor's cfby the College is, therefore, not committee.

known. A men's dormitory, housing fund-raising agencies, and Mr. unwords of 1000 students, and Jones and Mr. Arisman on the including a dining hall. Two women's dormitories, each

A joint truetee-alumni committee has also made initial plans for a fund-raising campaign that field house.

The committee will meet May 11 to hear subcommittee reports and to formulate definite recom-mendations to be placed before the College Board of Trustees at the June meeting.

Trustees on the committee are George H. Deike, chairman; George M. Arisman, Jesse L. Knall, Howard J. Lamade, and Edgar C. Weichel, Sr. Alumna Association: representatives: are W. K. Ulerich, president; Richard G. Lowe, B. C. Jones, George A. Doyle, and E. K. Hibshman. H. fice, and the disposition of the R. Riley, assistant alumni secre-remaining six projects submitted tary, serves as secretary of the nown.

At the May meeting, Mr. HilbshThe other structures will be: man will report on the field of possible contents of both build-