Vegetables will be worn this year... that is the latest note from this "center" of fashion... or at least that is what the Owens prescribe for their "Dungaree Drag," an event of tomorrow night. Uh-huh, fellahs will be sporting boutennieres of cabbage, carrots and beets with their stunning dungarees and plaid shirts. And what do the girls get out of all this?... a date... and the bill. Also on the slate for tomorrow is a wedding in the State College Lutheran Church: the bride, KD alum Jean Swartz; the bridegroom, Dana Haigue, formerly stationed here with the Air Corps.

Such a Pretty Tie

Ask the All-College prexy how he got that flashy new tie he is wearing, and he will undoubtedly tell you it's all in knowing the right "cooks."

The AChiOs staged a reunion at Kuglers' in Philly during Easter vacation, and the Gamma Phi is holding their pledge dinner and dance tomorrow night. The dinner is scheduled for the State College Hotel, and the dance at the Nittany Lion Inn. Elaine Taylor, national chapter counselor for Phi Mu, is spending the weekend at the College. The local chapter will hold a tea in her honor Saturday afternoon. The Phi Sig Sig activities honored their pledges at brunch at the Allencrest Sunday morning. Kappas will entertain the ADPhis at a coffee hour Sunday afternoon.

Beta Sig Reunion

The Beta Sigma Rho 1946 alumnae reunion is on the books for this weekend with an expected turn-out of at least 100 alums. Sounds like quite a crowd to take in the stag smoker, golf and softball tournaments, and the dinner in Bellefonte, all events planned for this first reunion since 1941.

Dr. Florence B. Seibert, who will speak in New Physics Monday evening, was awarded the national achievement medal.

sponsored by Chi Omega, for "distinguished research in the field of TB" in 1944. Chances are there will be many local ChiOs cheering from the sidelines when Dr. Seibert takes the floor.

Sorority Pledge Officers

And it seems that every sorority on campus has been busy electing pledge officers. Gamma Phi Beta: Prudy Stewart, president; Jean Wirges, vice-president; Dolores Piccone, secretary, and William King, treasurer. Chi Omega: Joyce Hodgins, president; Frances Rice, vice-president, and Margaret Stridinger, secretary-treasurer. Kappa Kappa Gamma: Mary Grace Lovett, president; Martha Conley, vice-president; Alice Miller, secretary; Betty Lou Reed, social chairman, and Joan Cushman, activities chairman.

And more too... Phi Sigma Sigma: Doris Gillin, president; Harriet Goldstein, secretary; Rose Kibrick, treasurer, and Lois Brown, philanthropy chairman. The ADPhis get along with one officer, a president, Kay Bitner.

Oh yes, and those new pans, and this is meant literally for they are articles of kitchen ware, soon to be seen in the Atherton kitchenettes, are the gift of WSGA.

Mortar Board To Sponsor Outdoor Prom

"Parking Lot Prom," sponsored by Mortar Board, will be held in the parking lot on the corner of Atherton street and Pollock road from 8 to 11 p.m. Friday. The benefits of the dance will be contributed to the Charlotte E. Ray Scholarship Fund.

The dance will be conducted as a fair with each sorority sponsoring a booth. Admission will be 30 cents per person with separate admission to each booth. Strip tickets, 10 cents each, will be sold in front of the Corner Room Wednesday and Thursday. However, tickets will also be sold at the dance.

Records will provide music for the dancing. A prize will be given for the booth that takes in the most money.

Among the booths Alpha Chi Omega will have a caricature booth; Alpha Epsilon Phi, penny pitching; Alpha Omicron Phi, pitching pennies for pennies; Alpha Xi Delta, fortune telling; Beta Sigma Omicron, weight guessing; Chi Omega, popcorn and punch; and Delta Gamma, dart throwing.

WSGA Grants Two O'Clocks

Since the change in time will go into effect at midnight tomorrow, coeds will receive 2 o'clocks Eastern Daylight Saving Time permissions, announced Joan Shearer, Judicial chairman, at the last WSGA Senate meeting.

Miss Shearer stresses that this permission is in reality no later than the usual weekend permit, and that all women students must be in the dormitories by 1 o'clock Eastern Standard Time, which is 2 o'clock by the new time.

It was voted that all freshman women over the age of 21 be granted upper-class privileges at the beginning of their second semester. Senate has mailed a check for $20 to the American Women's Hospital Board in recognition of the birthday of the organization.

Spring Styles Feature Red-as-Lobster Faces

That red and shiny look seen on the faces of numerous coeds is not the latest in make-up. Definitely not! Rather it is the proof that springtime and sunshine have penetrated even the farthest corners of the Nittany Valley and reached the Penn State campus.

Those rare days when the sun manages to force its way between the ever-present rain clouds find the courts and roofs of various dorms filled with coeds in a minimum of attire intent on acquiring a pre-summer tan. Can they help it, in the eager pursuit of a golden tint, they turn a delicate shade of lobster red? SO—when your favorite date turns up with a shiny nose and an overly rosy face, blame it on the weather. Nobody can do anything about that.

Promiscuity Increases; Virginity Decreases—Adams

Clifford R. Adams, doctor of philosophy and director of the Marriage Counseling Service at the College, predicts that "pre-marital chastity will be close to the vanishing point for females born after 1940."

In an article in the current issue of Pageant Magazine, Dr. Adams discusses "How Chaste Are American Girls?" He cites examples of girls who have come to him for advice, as well as findings from noted psychologists and sociologists country-wide.

Lists Ten 'Promiscuous' Reasons why American girls are more promiscuous than those of 35 years ago.

1. The emotions engendered by two world wars and their aftermaths have made people feel insecure and brought different standards to them.
2. Psychoanalysis with its emphasis upon sex and its stimula to ignore inhibitions has made it easier for sex to be talked about and experimented with.
3. Wider dissemination of contraceptive information has released many people from the fear of pregnancy.
4. Marriages must be postponed longer now, usually for financial or academic reasons.
5. The automobile has made it easier for young people to get away from the scrutiny of their elders.
6. The relaxation of family chaperones, with no adequate substitute, is a factor.
7. The public generally is less condemnatory of "ruined" women.
8. The wartime shortage of men in American towns has made many girls aggressive.
9. Many young people believe sexual compatibility essential to a happy marriage.
10. Steady reference is made to sex in books, advertisements, and the movies.

Sponsored by the house of representatives, the typing work will be done by Mrs. Grace Koch and medical technology students at the College.

From Manila Internment Camp To Campus in Two Semesters

By SUZANNE McCaULEY

Not many Penn State students spent their first semester of college in an internment camp. Yet Jane Doner, a Spanish major, is now at the College, after having received her freshman credits at Santo Tomas Camp in Manila.

The story of how Jane arrived at Santo Tomas and why she won three campaign ribbons starts back on the island of Cebu in the Philippines where she was born twenty years ago. There she attended an elementary school for Americans and later a convent, high school supervised by Belgium Sisters.

On December 8, 1941, when war was declared in the Philippines, all schools were closed and Jane worked for the Quartermaster depot until the evacuation of Cebu City was ordered when Japanese bombings were intensified. With other American families, Jane and her mother and sister lived in the hills of Cebu until the Japanese invasion. The invading troops looted and destroyed the city; the Americans surrendered.

Teachers Set Up School On May Day, 1942, the Japanese interned all Americans—first in a jail, and then in various other buildings. During that time former American teachers set up a sort of school within the camp.

Approximately 150 invitations to the Matrix; table will soon be issued to prominent women on campus.

THE BROWSE

Easter being over and the retail business getting back to a more normal basis, it's time for us to look over the new books and records. A new book which all history and political science students should read is Leon Trotsky's, STALIN (Harper's, $5.00). It is truly a work of historical importance. Parts of the book will undoubtedly be on reading lists for years to come. We suggest you save yourself a wait at the library and invest five dollars in a first edition. As a first edition it should be a good buy... Helen Eustis has written a psychological thriller with death on the campus of a New England women's college as the background. For a genuinely scary book we suggest you read THE HORIZONTAL MAN (Harper's, $2.50)...

Incredible Captivator

Wreath yourself in this wholly captivating fragrance. My perfume is the fadeless fragrance—the perfume that incredibly reaches its full flower as it clings to warm, glowing skin. Use this gossamer powder the same as liquid perfume. Pat its silky smoothness behind your ear; on arms, neck, shoulders. It will keep you detectable—beyond reckoning!
