Stickmen Meet Rutgers; Overwhelm Hobart, 14-6

Winning their second game in five days, whipping Hobart, 14-6, on New Beaver Field Wednesday, Nick Thiel's lacrosse team will attempt to chalk-up its third victory of the season when it faces Rutgers on New Beaver Field at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

The stickmen's record now stands at 50 per cent, with wins over Loyola and Hobart while losing to Army and Navy. The Nittany victory Wednesday was the first defeat that Hobart has suffered at the hands of State since 1932.

After a lapse of two years, Rutgers has returned to the lacrosse field. Under the tutelage of Fred Fitch, in his 19th season at New Brunswick, the team started its current season with two wins. In the opening game they laced City College of New York, 9-1, and last week defeated their Alumni team in an exhibition contest.

The Penn State - Rutgers contest will start immediately following the Penn State - Maryland - Pittsburgh triangular track meet.

Rutgers' starting team will consist of three lettermen from their 1943 squad and two members of that year's freshmen aggregation. Harry Cyphers, Livy Goodman, and George Ranieri are the lettermen and Herb Omley and George Volk are the hold-overs from the freshmen team. All are ex-servicemen.

Nick Thiel will stick to the same team that defeated Hobart for his starting line-up against Rutgers.

Sullivan Leads Attack

Cliff Sullivan paced the Lions in their victory over Hobart by topping the individual scoring honors for the afternoon with four tallies from his inside attack position. State's captain, John Nolan, racked-up three along with Hobart's captain, Bob Rodgers.

Ken Kaufman, reserve Lion inside attackman, zipped in two scores in playing the last three minutes of the game.

It took four minutes to pierce the Hobart defense as George Locotos scored first for State on a shot that the Hobart goalie muffed. Hobart retaliated with three goals before the Lions took control of the game. In the last ten minutes of the first half the Lions pounded the nets with five tallies as the half ended with State on the long end of the 6-4 count.

Reserves Score Three

The second half was all State. Hobart was only able to collect a goal a quarter as the Lions hit their stride with four each period. With Lion reserves holding their own and scoring three of the last quarter goals, the Nittany stick-wielders took the game 14-6.

Pete Johnson, Lion inside defenseman, who was ill and couldn't take the Loyola - Navy trip, started the Hobart contest. Bronco Kosanovich, the Nittany inside defenseman, who received a shoulder injury in the Navy

Baseball Nine On Two-Day Trip

Trying for their first collegiate win of the season, the baseball Lions journey down to Washington, D. C., to meet Georgetown University this afternoon and then move on to Annapolis tomorrow for a game with Navy.

Probable starting hurler for today's game is Bob Gehrett. Gehrett went in for starter Ken Yount in the Lafayette game and gave up one run. This will be his first start of the season.

Competition Tough

Georgetown has had a better-than-average season so far. They lost to the star-studded Villanova nine by one run in the last inning.

The game with the Naval Academy will be the Lions' toughest assignment of the season so far. Navy has compiled an impressive record so far this season. They defeated the same Villanova team by a big score, even though the Middle pitcher walked ten men.

Bedenk has indicated that he will field the same team that faced Lafayette with the possible exception of a change in the outfield.

"Ogie" Martella, who led the Lions at the plate in the Lafayette game with two singles, will catch at least one of the weekend's games.

MacFarland Back

Chuck MacFarland, husky first sacker, has recovered from his recent illness and will handle the put-outs at first. "Whitey" Kutrowski will be at second, while short and third will be covered by "Hoppy" Hopkins and Gene Sutherland respectively.

Joe Tepsic will chase the flies out in the left pasture, while practically any one on the squad might hold down the right and centerfield assignments. Fred Bell and Harold Hackman seemed to be high on the list of candidates as the practices came to an end.

tilt, didn't start Wednesday, but played most of the game.

The other team casualty, Merv Snyder, centerfielder who has been side-lined since the Army game, was back in action for a short time against Hobart and should be in shape for the Rutgers fray tomorrow.

Cinder Team Host to Two

Penn State's fledgling track team will have its first major flight of the current season when it engages the combined might of the University of Pittsburgh and the University of Maryland on New Beaver Field at 1 p.m. tomorrow.

Pitt and Maryland bring teams to New Beaver Field which have maintained good records during early competition and each has several stand-out men who will provide a stern test for Coach Chick Werner's squad.

The University of Maryland's Terps have three victories in three meets and are coming to State at full strength. Pittsburgh was the winner two weeks ago in a dual meet with a strong Ohio State squad, 70-61.

An exhibition mile relay race, pitting the Nittany Lions against Pittsburgh, is scheduled for 2:35 p.m. This event's results will not affect the score of the meet.

College Gymnasts in New York To Defend National AAU Title

Coach Gene Wettstone's Lion gymnasts will defend their team title, which they captured last year, at the National AAU gym meet at the New York Athletic Club tomorrow. "Competition at the meet will be very close, and the determining factor will be how well the boys can perform under the stress of a national competition," Wettstone stated.

There will be over 100 outstanding gymnasts from all over the country, plus Cuba, entering the competition. Wettstone is entering ten men in nine events on Saturday.

Steve Greene, veteran gymnast, will be defending his rope climbing title and will also perform on the sidehorse and parallel bars.

Stan Wirtshafter will enter the rope climbing event. Since there are three outstanding rope climbers around the 4 flat mark, competition will be close among Greene, Wirtshafter and Hoffman of Navy according to Wettstone.

Representing Penn State in the all-around competition will be Ray Sorenson, just back from the service. He will enter seven events and the coach considers him to have a fair chance to place high in the all-around event, the sidehorse and the horizontal bar.

Warren Neiger is the other Lion gymnast entering the all-around event and six other events.

Returned Vets

Coming back from the 1943 championship gym team is Bill Bonsall, who will enter the flying rings and tumbling events. Charles Warrington also from the 1943 team, will enter the sidehorse event and Wettstone predicts a good chance for him to place in that event.

Ed Hobart, NROTC, will enter the rope climbing event, and Tim Petroff, NROTC, will enter the tumbling.

Handling the Indian clubs will be George Hearn and Hal Frey.

The Browse

We have three books which we think you should know about. It's a rather strange trio, and even if you don't buy the books they are at least worth looking over, remembering the titles, and storing them in the back of your mind together with useful knowledge. First on the list is THE PRACTICAL COGITATOR, (Houghton, Mifflin, $3.00). It's an anthology of selections from all the best that have been written. It's a wonderful book for a gift, or for your bedside table—if you have one. Second, if you ever wanted to know how bees hum, why do dogs turn around before lying down, why storks are said to bring babies, or how "to get one's goat" originated; we suggest you buy A BOOK ABOUT A THOUSAND THINGS, by George Stimpson (Harper's, $3.50). It's one of the most entertaining books we have come across in a long time. Once you start it, you'll come across the darndest things you ever thought of. And speaking of the darndest things, we have the darndest book we ever came across, CLEANLINESS AND GODLINESS, by Reginald Reynolds (Doubleday, $2.75). It's all about plumbing and all the things—history and culture—that go with it. For real humor, get it. . . . In the meantime don't forget Mother's Day next week. Our cards are the kind she would like to receive, and we can suggest many new books she would like to read.
