

Lions Win 1st; Rain Calls 2nd

Keeping their winning streak of six-straight intact, the Lion baseball team handed a 14-7 loss to Colgate on Friday and then played to a 1-1 tie in Saturday's rain abbreviated contest.

Ken Yount racked up his fourth win of the season Friday when he outlasted three Colgate hurlers in a game whose score seemed more like football than the national pastime. He yielded nine hits for the afternoon and helped the Lion score pile up with two hits and a like number of runs.

Bob Gehrett, with only two days rest after winning out over West Virginia Wednesday, hurled four-hit ball for eight and two thirds innings only to gain a tie in the second game.

Saturday's game got under way an hour and a half after the scheduled starting time. The rain subsided, the sun came out and the game began with both teams keeping their fingers crossed.

Wins Six Straight

COACH BEDENK

Inside Intramurals.

Final games in the interfraternity softball leagues are scheduled tomorrow and Thursday afternoon. Playoffs of the eight winning teams begin June 10.

All games that were postponed because of rain will be made up next Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, director Rudman announced today. Games must all be played by the latter date, so that playoffs can begin as scheduled.

Sigma Pi clinched honors in League 3 last week with an undefeated record of three wins.

Final week's games are:

Today: Phi Sigma Delta vs. Phi Kappa Psi; Phi Kappa Tau vs. Sigma Phi Alpha; Alpha Chi Sigma vs. Pi Kappa Alpha.

Tomorrow: Lambda Chi Alpha vs. Tau Kappa Epsilon; Beta Sigma Rho vs. Alpha Chi Delta.

Thursday: Delta Chi vs. Delta Sigma Phi; Phi Kappa Psi vs. Pi Lambda Phi; and Sigma Phi Alpha vs. Lambda Chi Alpha.

Stick-Wielders Trim New Yorkers To Bring Season's Wins to Six

Winning two games, a 6-3 victory over Syracuse, and a 7-3 trimming of Cornell, gave the Nittany lacrosse men a clean sweep of their first post-war trip into New York State.

Coach Nick Thiel's Penn Staters are on the way to their best season since 1938, winning six and losing three so far this year, with one game, a return match with Cornell June 8, still to be played.

SYRACUSE

Nick Thiel guided his lacrosse men to their fifth win of the season as they defeated his old coach, Roy Simmons of Syracuse, on Friday. Thiel was an All-American attackman under Simmons in his undergraduate days.

Rough Game!

The State stick-wielders shut out the Orange in the first half of a rough, slashing contest which looked more like a football game than a lacrosse match.

John Nolan was outstanding at his midfield post for the Lions, getting two goals, an assist on another, and turning in a fine field performance.

Attackmen Ken Kerwin and Howdy Taylor, and centerfielders Ernie Baer and George Locotos, accounted for one goal apiece.

The Friday game saw Merv "Indian" Snyder, getting the first starting nod from Coach Thiel since he was injured in the opening lacrosse tilt with Army. He was benched in the third period because of a leg injury. Also injured was midfielder Fred Paisson, whose shoulder locked out of place in the same period.

Nolan Scores

After a scoreless first quarter, Nolan tallied the game's first counter unassisted with ten seconds of the second period gone and George Locotos scored another for State five minutes later.

The Lions made the count 5-0 by slamming in three goals in the first three minutes of the second half against the big Orange team which averaged 185 pounds per man.

CORNELL

Howdy Taylor, fast Lion inside attackman, copped the scoring honors as the State stick-wielders clipped the Big Red lacrossers Saturday for their sixth victory of the season.

Left-hander Taylor shot the first two Lion goals past the Ithaca netman early in the opening quarter. He was put out of action in the third period when he collided with a Cornell defenseman and suffered a shoulder injury that may keep him sidelined for the final tilt with the Big Red.

Both of Taylor's teammates in the inside attack scored. Cliff Sullivan racked up one in the opening quarter and Ken Kerwin tallied in the second half.

Nittany captain, John Nolan, Ken Kauffman, and Rog Nestor each scored one against Cornell.

Baer Injured

Ernie Baer, starting the Ithaca game in midfield, was also a casualty in the third quarter. He was cross-checked roughly, knocked unconscious, and was carried from the game. He suffered no serious injury, and is expected to be in shape for the game on June 8 with Cornell.

Merv Snyder, who was taken out of the Syracuse tussle, started the second half of the Cornell fray and played for ten minutes. Indications are that he will be able to play in the final game.

State scored two in the first period and chalked up three more in the second frame as Cornell tallied one in each quarter of the first half.

Shuman, Sykes Place In IC4A

Bill Shuman and Jim Sykes came through at the IC4A track meet at Annapolis, Saturday afternoon, to third and second place respectively.

In the half-mile run, Shuman crossed the finish line in third place in 1 min. 54.9 secs. Colgate's Al Meeker won the event in 1 min. 54.7 secs.

Meeker was the winner of the half-mile run in the dual meet between State and Colgate at New Beaver Field on May 11.

Jim Sykes took second place in the high jump when he cleared the bar at 6 ft. 2 3/4 ins. This event was captured by Marquette with a jump of 6 ft. 6 3/4 ins.
