the Paul Smith memorial, or to keep it until another hello campaign next year. No action was taken on the report.

According to Ted LeFevre, a check on price violations was made last week in State College, but no report on the survey is available as yet.

Woodene Bell, chairman of the Mural committee, told Cabinet that she and Vaughn Stapleton talked with James Mitholland, president with the Board of Trustees, concerning the completion of the mural. Mr. Mitholland said that the Board would approve the mural and contact Henry Varnum Poor if students provided the money.

PSCA Requests

Betty Funkhouser, representing the Penn State Christian Association, asked Cabinet for a donation or an advertisement for the Student Handbook, a publication put out by the PSCA. Before Cabinet acts on the matter, the Finance Board will have to approve the appropriation.

The following committees were appointed by Stapleton:

Disposition of funds: Joseph Steel, Woodene Bell and Herbert Wendt.

Elections Committee: Jack Branigan, chairman; Charles Burd, Rosemary Ghantous, Nan James, Doris Jenkins, Fred Lloyd, Martin Lennig, Bud Mellot, Julia Pastewka, Robert Staly, Lucy Seffing, and Robert Spinneweber.

Book Exchange: Gloria Ness, Frances Winters, and Paul Winters.

And More Committees

Woodene Bell was appointed to see that flowers are sent from the students to any student, member of the faculty or administration who dies. James Sheehan and Marilyn Globisch were asked to take care of Memorial Day services.

Upon the recommendation of the Finance Board, $50 was appropriated to the Student Union committee for publicity.

Four Games

... are scheduled in the IMA tourney as the teams enter the final week of play. They are:

Today: Frazier House vs. Beaver House; Peros vs. Comets.

Tomorrow: Ramblers vs. Ath Hall Boys; Oxfords vs. MI House.
