

Placement

Powell Seeks Technicians

A representative of the University of California Los Alamos Laboratories, R. B. Powell, will interview eighth semester men and women today and tomorrow. He is interested in students in the following curricula: medical technology, chemistry, physics, aeronautical engineering, electrical engineering, mechanical engineering, mining engineering, chemical engineering, commercial chemistry, pre-medical, civil engineering, industrial engineering, and metallurgy.

Opportunities are also available for graduate students who will complete their work this year. Arrangements for interviews should be made at once in the College Placement Service, 204 Old Main.

College Miners' Society Names Pugh President

Vernon Pugh was elected president of the Miners' Society at its organization meeting Wednesday night, when the group was established as a branch of the Mineral Industries Society.

Other officers elected were David Crawford, vice-president; Paul W. Graff, secretary-treasurer; and Professor Richard Snouffer, faculty advisor.

The Miners' Society was organized to bring together students enrolled in the mining curriculum. Its membership includes graduate students and upper and lowerclassmen. Future meetings will include lectures by authorities in the mining field and motion pictures pertaining to mining.

Alpha Tau Alpha Elects Samuel Haines President

Samuel I. Haines has been elected president of Alpha Tau Alpha, national agricultural education honorary reactivated recently. Other officers elected are Harry M. Ernest, vice-president; Charles L. Bowman, secretary-treasurer; James Wilson sergeant-at-arms; and Byron A. Hughes, reporter.

Doctor C. S. Anderson, professor of agricultural education is the faculty advisor. The chapter, which has been inactive since 1943, was first installed at the College in 1931 and now has a total membership of 228.

Hoffman Announces Graduation Candidates

In accordance with action taken by the College Senate, candidates for the bachelor's degree at the commencement June 27, 1946, will not be held for scheduled final examinations. Class work for these 488 students will end on Saturday, June 22, at 12 noon.

Grades for all candidates for degrees, including the 40 advanced degrees, must be in the Office of the Registrar not later than the following Monday, June 24, at 8 a.m. If any member of the faculty knows that a person whose name is included in the following list cannot be graduated, the name should be turned into the Registrar's Office at the very earliest date in order that he must take final examinations.

Any student who expects to graduate on June 27 and whose name does not appear on the list should report this fact, in writing, to the Office of the Registrar at the earliest possible date in order that his instructors may be informed that he will not be held for scheduled final examinations.

The following are candidates for degrees:

Elizabeth Aiken, Ch; Lee Alexander Jr., EE; M. Harriet Allen, Psy; James Ameel, CF; John Anderson, Agr; Carol Andre, HEc; Margaret Andrick, MEc; Rene Anis, Ed; Charles Appleman, DE; Kathryn Arbogast, HEc; Clarence Armstrong, CCh; David Arnold, CF; Arlene Artenberg, Psy; Anna Atkins, HEc; William Atull Jr., DH.

Jacqueline Badér, AL; Wilma Baldwin, HEc; John Barnes, Sci; Edgar Barnett, AL; Nancy Bartch, HEc; Norma Bartoli, AL; Ronald Bartoo, For; Alex Basista, PH; Cleveland Bassett, Arch; Hilda Bateson, CF; John Batey, CF; Carroll Baylson, CF, NROTC; Alice Beach, HEc; Robert Beach-er, Agr; William Beam, Sci; Jane Beckel, Jr; Woodene Bell, Jr.

Arthur Benkaim, AL; William Benson, Ma; John Bernardi, ABC; Alan Bertram, CF; Mary Beswick, PM; James Billman, CF; Mary Bishop, AL; Mary Bitner, Ed; Joanne Black, Recr; Lila Blank, CF; Vivian Blackwell, Ed; Marjorie Blackwood, HEc; Minerva Blank, PM; Sylvan Blumenfeld, AL; Myrtle Bock, MEc.

Isadorf Bolef, Phy; Ruth Bollinger, CF; Frances Bortz, PhE; Jeannette Bosch, Jr.; Windsor Bounds, IE; John Bower, MEc; Glenn Bowers, ZE; Wallace Boyce, CF; Jean Bradshaw, AL; Selma Brauer, HEc; Arjo Brennan, CF; Thomas Brice, PhD; Jean Briner, HEc; Norma Brofsky, Ed.

Elsie Brown, MT; Frank Brown, PM; James Brown, AL; John Brugger, MS; R. Pauline Brundage, CCh; Marian Bryan, HEc; Ruth Bubbeck, MA; Neal Buckstein, DH; C. Robert Burge, IE; Lois Burleigh, AL; Harold Bushman, ME.

Helen Camp, Ed; Shirley Camp, Ed; Joanne Campbell, MT; Willis Campbell, AL; Marion Carlson, MEc; Bessie Carson, CF; Barbara Carter, Ed; Eleanor Casselberry, HEc; Dorothy Cauffiel, HEc; Joseph Cerroni, Cer; Stanley Chadwin, EE; James Chaikin, CF; Margaret Chaney, ME; Edward Chappen, PM; Mabel Claar, Ed; Mary Clouser, Ed; Walter Cochran, CF; Dorothy Cohen, AL.

Carlo Colombo, Jr; Dorothy Colyer, AL; Marcia Conroe, MT; E. A. Conroy, PhD; Betty Coon,

(Continued on page seven)

Minsky Dust Rises Again In Musical

In an atmosphere that takes some of the oldtimers back to the old Minsky days, the Thespians are proceeding at a rapid pace in rehearsals for "No Time for Trouble," to be held June 13 and 14.

"Hey Fuzzy, bring the girls down for the Corner Room number," the voice of Bud Mellott booms. Or maybe it's "Sock" Kennedy, the director, with something like, "Have your gang ready and let's go!" Mike Kerns is always near to plug the show with, "Sounds great, doesn't it?"

In spite of what seems to the outsider, unfamiliar with rehearsal routine, to be a state of utter confusion, the show is shaping up fine. "Sock" claims. Various spots are polished up in quick succession, the chorus is getting its numbers down pat and Mike Kerns says, "It's going great, isn't it?"

Ray Fortunato and Tawnie Hill were running through their "Alone In a Trailer" number as a Collegian reporter caught one of the rehearsals this week. Then the scene shifted to the dream sequence in which Verge Neely complains "I'm Just a Yokel Out From Shinbone, Pa."

In this scene Neely reminisces about his army travels in Europe. In his dreaming, Gloria Travioli takes him to France while she sings the haunting "Paris in the Spring." Then with Ruthe Cohen to Casablanca with her interpretive ballet a la Salome.

Frankie Perna and Frannie Glass are heading the advertising committee. Business matters will be taken care of by Pete Johnson

Deadline Today For Caps, Gowns

Today is the last day seniors may order caps and gowns and commencement invitations according to George Donovan, Student Union manager.

Students will be required to place a $5 deposit fee on cap and gown orders. Gowns will be distributed at the Athletic Store the week of graduation upon the presentation of a receipt and must be returned there immediately following graduation exercises. A $1 fine will be levied on gowns returned late.

Commencement invitations and announcements may also be ordered at Student Union. They will be nine cents each and may be called for ten days before commencement. A receipt should be presented at that time.

Archery Club

... will hold a business meeting in Room 3 White Hall, tomorrow evening at 6:30 p. m., announced Jeanne Thompson, president. All members are urged to attend. Archery practice will be held after the meeting.

while all costumes will be under the direction of Mary Lou Sweet. Mike Pugh and Joe Garner handle the stage problems and Carol Deickman is doing the make-up.

Kerns wants it known that tickets for the show will sell for 75 cents for the Friday night performance and $1 for Saturday. He also suggests that if possible the theater-goers should try to attend the Friday night show to avoid the rush.

Floriculture Students Make Greenhouse Tour

Students of floriculture at the College obtained a glimpse of practical application of their studies in a recent trip to commercial greenhouses in Jefferson County.

The field trip was made to the "Crissman's Florists" plant at Punxsutawney and Robert Espy's greenhouses at Brookville, to inspect growing commercial greenhouse crops.

John R. Culbert, instructor in floriculture, and Raymond Dorset, a graduate student from Haiti, accompanied the group.

Students making the trip were Cecil Busler, George Kessler, Joseph Leonardi, D. Elizabeth Nix, Sherman Pauer, and William Springer.

L. G. BALFOUR COMPANY
LOCATED IN THE ATHLETIC STORE
FRATERNITY JEWELRY

A SURE HIT...

Dinner at the

CORNER ROOM

I. F. C.

Presents

"The Greatest of Them All"

Benny Goodman

In Person

HIS CLARINET . . .

HIS ORCHESTRA . . .

Including

THE FAMOUS SEXTETTE

featuring

MEL POWELL

and

JOHNNY WHITE

also

THE NEW SINGING SENSATION

ART LUND

Recreation Hall June 14 Tickets $4.00