'Daily Collegian'

From May, 1943, to November, 1945, the Collegian operated as a weekly, and during the past school year has maintained semi-weekly publication.

Collegian was chartered as a non-profit corporation in 1940, and is controlled by a Board of Directors, elected by the paper's Senior Board. Present directors are Donald W. Davis, president; Louis H. Bell, faculty adviser; Franklin C. Banner, Russell E. Clark, Neil N. Fleming, Ridge Riley, Eugene Reilly, Arthur R. Warnock, and Robert Wilson. Student members of the Board for next year are Michael A. Blatz, Rosemary Ghan-tous, and the presidents of All-College Cabinet and the Women's Student Government Association.

Summer Collegian

During the Summer sessions, the "Summer Collegian," a student newspaper independent from the "Daily Collegian," will be published weekly by Doris Stowe, editor, and Phyllis Deal, business manager.

ing committee, since "men know a lot about the conduct of women."

President Vaughn Stapleton stopped discussion on the matter by appointing a group of Miss Porter, Miss Schearer, Pat Brennan, chairman of Tribunal, and the Constitution committee to work the problem out outside of Cabinet. This group will meet on the porch of the State College Hotel, at 2:30 this afternoon.

Cabinet members also staled on voting on the report of the Liberal Arts Postwar Planning Committee, and tabled the vote until the meeting Thursday, by which time members of Cabinet will have had more time to read over the report.

A total of $41 which was left over from the Hello campaign was donated to the Paul Smith Memorial Fund, on a proposal from Charles Willing.

Rosicrucian Teachings Give Key To Secrets

Rose-Cross Mysticism in Modern Form

New Book Loaned to Sincere Seekers

The Rosicrucians were the Master Mystics in all ages and today they are organized in lodges, groups, and colleges in all parts of the world. In their teachings they secretly preserve the ancient wisdom that made the Pyramid in Egypt the marvel of today. With the higher Cosmic laws and secrets of mystical power you can change the course of your life and attract Success, Health, Happiness, and a development of mental foresight that will astound you and surprise your friends.

The Rosicrucian teachings containing the true knowledge of the mystics are never sold in books. But, you may borrow a book called "The Secret Heritage," in which the strange story of the Rosicrucians is told and an explanation given of how you may have the private teachings of the Rosicrucian Brotherhood in America.

Address: SCRIBE 111, ROSICRUCIAN BROTHERHOOD (AMORC) Rosicrucian Park, San Jose, California Adv.
