Happy Birthday, Lou

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 7, 1946—STATE COLLEGE, PENNSYLVANIA

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Treble Singers To Sing Tonight

women at the College, will present their annual Spring concert, sponsored by the Music Department and Women's Student Government Association in Schurge ernment Association, in Schwab Auditorium at 8:30 o'clock tonight. Guy Woods, of the department of music, will conduct.

The program opens with the following numbers: "Come to the Fair," Martin-Samuelson; "Trees," Harriet Ware; "Without a Song,' Youmans-Frey; "The Peddler,' Russian popular song arranged by Harry Wilson; and "Starry Night," Debussy-Harris.

A trio, consisting of Jeanne Eiserlberg, A. Carolyn Detz, and Sara L. Freedly, will sing: "Brazil," Barroso-Stickles; "Through the Years," Youmans-Frey; and "I Let A Song Go Out of My Heart," Duke Ellington.

Duke Ellington.

The program will continue with "Let My People Go," Negro spirtitual arranged by Tom Scott; "Were You There?" Negro spiritual arranged by H. T. Burksigh; "Lillacs," Rachmaninoff-Cain; "Paloma Linda," Argentinean folk song arranged by E. Lehman; and "Sylivelin," Sinding-Brancombe.

Two pianos, played by Ethel N. Pitman, music student, and Guy

Pitman, music student, and Guy Woods, will be used for the numbers: "La Cucaracha (Rhumba)," Morton Gould; "In a Mist," Bix Beideibecke arranged by Jacques Fray; and "Powerhouse," Raymond Scott, arranged by Lenny

The program will close with: "Gershwin Medley," selected from compositions of George Gershwin; "I Dream of You," Goetschius-Osser-Ringwald; "Sky Anchors," Fred Waring; "There Are Such Things," Meyer-Ringwald; "The Antransas Traveler," folk song arranged by Gena Branscombe; and "When Day Is Done," Katcher-

Lawrence. The publicity committee consists of chairman, Betty Herring; Jo Ann Beaver, Lovetta Dinius, Barlbara Jeanne Keefer, Thompson. Marion Schein is in charge of lighting effects.

Veterans

under Public Law 16, who are not planning to return to school this summer, are advised to report to the Veteran's Administration and secure permission for a summer's leave of absence. Those who do not secure this permission may jeopardize pension under that law.

Bow Girl

MARJORIE BLACKWOOD

Marjorie Blackwood and Joseph Steel have been named Bow Girl and Spoon Man, respectively, the two highest honors to be awarded at Class Day exercises June 27. This was announced today by Women's Student Government Association and the Class Day committee, who conducted the voting.

Mortar Board To Tap Eight

With Scholarship, Leadership, and Service as their criteria, Mortar Board will tap eight girls Tuesday morning.

Requirements for tapping by Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, are a 1.83 average; leadership in activities; and sixth or seventh semester standing.

Monday night, Mortar Board members will sing in front of the dorms where the girls to be tapped live. They will wear black caps and gowns and carry lighted candles.

Tuesday morning, the girls will be awakened by members and asked to come to Old Main for the tapping ceremonies. Marjorie Blackwood, president of Mortar Board, invites those interested to witness the affair. The girls who are tapped will wear black caps on campus Tuesday.

will hold a mass meeting in 121 Sparks at 8 p.m. Monday their to elect officers for the fall se-

Red Cross

King of Swing Takes Over To Launch SS Penn State

"Let's Dance" will herald the "King of Swing" and his orchestra on the SS Penn State at Recreation Hall, June 14, when Benny Goodman will take the band stand launching the fraternity house party week-

"Nautical decorations will convert Rec Hall into a dreamland vessel for a mythical swing cruise skippered by the top clarinetist in the land," said Stanley Ziff, chairman of the Interfraternity dance committee.

Also featured in the Goodman crew are Mel Powell, arranger and stellar pianist, and Lou Mc-Garity, who is rated high in the nation's swing polls, on the trombone. Goodman's two new additions to his musical combo are dison Collins on the French horn.

The French horn in a Benny Goodman orchestra is an innovation, one of the trombones being displaced by it. The horn was used with the orchestra when Goodman opened at the 400 Restaurant in New York on May 16. It adds color and smoothness to orchestrations and parallels the vibes in the "King of Swing's" dance will go on sale next week at four dollars per couple, tax included. The Interfraternity Council's dance committee has decided not to have booths, but chairs will be provided for intermissions.

Tickets for this strictly-informal for the service.

For record fans Benny Goodman offers his ten disc favorite swing tunes: "Honeysuckle Rose," "The Man I Love," "Lady Be Good," "After You're Gone," "Welancholy Baby," "Embraceable You," "Stompin' at the Savoy," "King Porter Stomp," "Blue Skies," and "I Cried for You."

This will be the "King of Swings" first appearance at thte College since he played for the "Victory Weekend" dance on July 4, 1942. It was a gala weekend to promote the sale of War Bonds to back the war effort when many of the men students were leaving,

Spoon Man

JOSEPH STEEL

Other senior awards for women include Florence Porter, Fan Girl;

Jeanne Hirt, Slipper Girl; Ruth Bollinger, Mirror Girl; Woodene Bell, Class Poet; and Betty Funkhouser, Class Donor.

Additional men's honors includes Herbert Mendt, Barrel Man; David Lundy, Cane Man; Richard Griffiths, Pipe Orator; and George Sample, Class Donor.

In keeping with tradition, the awards to the others during the agriculture or home ec students Class Day program, the Mirror come to the supper even if it Girl and the Pipe Orator will should rain, in order that no food speak, and the Class Poet will be wasted. read the class poem.

Board Holds June Meeting

The annual June meeting of the Board of Trustees of the College will be held today and tomorrow according to an announcement made through the president's office Wednesday.

Today's meetings include the Pennsylvania Research Corporation, committee on architecture, committee on finance and business, and the executive commit-

Committees on educational matters and student and staff welfare will meet tomorrow. The Board of Trustees will meet in Old Main at 2 p. m. tomorrow.

A tea will be held at President Rallph D. Hetzel's residence to-morrow afternoon for trustees, their wives and guests, and members of the Council of Administration and their wives.

Committee Appointed To Run CE Department

Robert E. Minshall, professor of structural engineering, has been named chairman of a committee that will administer the department of civil engineering at the College, President Raliph D. Hetzel announced recently.

The committee replaces Raymond O'Donnell, who had served as acting head of the department.
Other faculty members from the department of civil engineering who were named to the committee are Charles A. Eder, secretary; Julius E. Kaulfuss, Gerard A. Rohlich, and Lawrence Perez.

. . . members are planning a banquet, the last social affair of the semester, to be held at the Nittany Lion Inn at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday. All old officers will be

Senior Class Boosts Old Main Mural Total

Henry Varnum Poor's fresco in the lobby of Old Main is now $1600 closer to the finishing mark, as the result of the senior class meeting Tuesday night.

On a motion made by Richard Griffiths, the class voted almost unanimously to give their senior gift money towards the completion of the fresco. The class had a total of $2300 in its treasury, but $700 ball League will be matched against the faculty in the feature event of the afternoon when students and faculty of the School of Agriculture and the department of home economics hold their picnic in Hort Woods from 1 to 7 o'clock tomorrow.

Ag Stars Face Profs In Combat

The game will start at 2 o'clock, but other games, including horseshoes and volleyball, will begin at 1 o'clock and continue throughout the afternoon. The hog-calling contest will begin at 3:30, the rolling pin-throwing contest at 4, and the husbandcalling contest at 4:30.

In case of rain the picnic will where as many games as possible will be played, and where supper will be served at 5:30. Mrs. Charles Staffer, chairman of the food committee urged that all scome to the supper even if it should rain, in order that no food be wasted.

In order to partially cover the larged that all scheduled for the affective will be the food to be wasted. be held in the Stock Pavilion,

In order to partially cover the cost of food, meal tags will be sold for twenty-five cents. "A student can then eat all he can hold," according to publicity chairman Robert Smith. Roast pig will be the main food on the menu, with baked beans, potato chips, and ice cream filling in. Citrus ade will be the drink. The food chairman said that three pigs will be roasted for the pic-

(Continued on page five)

Riding Club Holds Show

The second annual horsemanhip show, sponsored by the Penn State Riding Club will be held in the Penn State Riding ring at 2 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday.

Tomorrow's show will include elimination classes for beginner and intermediate riders. Final classes will particip affternoon after which awards will be presented for the beginner, intermediate and advanced classes.

The classes are to be judged on the following: beginner—walk, trot; intermediate—walk, trot; and advanced—walk, trot, canter and jumping. Official judge will be Cyrus French, professor in animal nutrition, while Captain Gregory Gagarin and Dr. C. G. Stewart, club instructors will be ringmasters.

Koepp-Baker To Teach Speech Class at Emory

Dr. Herbert Koepp-Baker, professor of speech at the College, will teach workshop classes in speech and hearing disorders at Emory University, and also at the University of Tennessee, this summer.

The workshop at Emory University will enroll 75 teachers from southeastern states.

admitted free, new officers will Dr. Koepp-Baker will teach there be charged $.70. and others will during the period June 10-21, and be charged $1.40.

BY The period June 10-21, and dents, special students and Navy BOTC students.

was voted earlier to be taken out for a block subscription to the Alumni Association and the Alumni News for one year for members of the class.

Discussion before the voting in-dicated that the class would like to have the mural finished as a gift to the College from the classes of 1946, since the February graduates also voted their money for the mural. Another senior asked that the mural be finished in managing to the Penn State in memoriam to the Penn State men who were killed in World War II.

With this addition to the funds, a total of $7300 has been allotted during the past two semesters for the fresco: $3500 in proceeds from the Charlie Spivak dance, $2200 from February graduates, and $1600 from the present senior class. An estimated $1000-$1200 is needed to complete the mural.

Also at the senior class meeting, attended by approximately 300 students, Marilyn Globisch was named valedictorian, and Alex Kotch, salutatorian. They were chairman, announced the party is tentatively scheduled for the afternoon of June 22 at Whipple's Dam, with transportation provided by a local bus company. Campbell asked the class for suggestions on the purchasing of weiners and beverages, since he has not been able to order either in large quantity. Definite plans for the party will be announced in a future issue of the Collegian.

Plans for Class Day were dis-

Plans for Class Day were discussed by Woodene Bell, chairman. According to tradition, Class Day includes the presentation of honors to five senior men and six women, awarding of the class gift to President Ralph D. Hetzel by the class president, presenta-tion of 20 All-College Cabinet awards by the all-college president, and short speeches by the valedictorian and salutatorian. Special music has been arranged for this year's Class Day, according to Miss Bell, to make the program more informal.

Sophomores To Splash

All third and fourth semester students who plan to attend the "Sophomore Splash" at Whipple's Dam Sunday afternoon should sign up at Student Union before tomorrow noon, according to Thomas Lannen and Ted Le-Fevre, semester presidents.

Busses will leave for the swimming party from the Atherton-Hall parking lot at 1:45 p.m. Sunday, and will return at 8:30 p.m. The only charge for the party is the 50-cent bus fare, but refreshments will be served by the classes.

Recreation other than swimming will include hiking and games, the presidents said.

Readmission Deposit

. of $10 for students planning to return to the College fulltime in the Fall semester, must be paid in Recreation Hall from The workshop at the University of Tennessee is operated in Signature with the Nestional So- 12, according to William S. Hoffconnection with the National So- 12, according to William S. Hoff-ciety for Crippled Children and man, registrar. This includes Dr. Koepp-Baker will teach there graduate and undergraduate stu-