

Scarab Holds Annual Dinner

Scarab Architectural Fraternity will sponsor the annual architectural department dinner at the Allecrest Tea Room at 7:30 p. m. Monday.

Professor Milton S. Osborne, who recently assumed his duties as head of the department of architecture, will be honored. Professor Osborne, a native of Ohio, has been Director of the School of Architecture and Fine Arts at the University of Manitoba, Can., since 1929.

Scarab wishes to urge all students and faculty members of the department to attend with their guests, since this will be the last opportunity for a social meeting until next Fall.

The speaker for the evening will be Dr. Walter Coutu, associate professor of sociology. Also scheduled for the evening is the presentation of the annual awards to the outstanding architectural students of the year.

Tickets must be purchased in advance and may be obtained in the Architectural Library or from any Scarab member.

Letter To Editor

(Continued from page two) tions have some limitation on membership. You must be a frat man, a sorority woman, a vet, or have some special interest or major, such as a language club or a scientific society.

Let me also say that the C. A. is interested in "A Better Penn State," but is primarily interested in the individuals who will make this a "better" Penn State.

Assoc. Sec., PSCA

Editor's Note: A pat on the back for the CA and if they still feel that they've been slighted as far as space is concerned they might check the last 12 issues of Collegian and count the inches.

Featured In Thespian Show

Featured in this weekend's Thespian production "No Time For Trouble" are Marty Baum, Betsy Heagy, Gloria Trovaioi, Ray Fortunate and Tawnie Hill.

Thespians Take Spotlight In Schwab Debut Tonight

Stooges Return
Specialties are staged by "The Three Stooges," one of the most popular features of the pre-war show. Bob Mellott, Jim Mitchell and Chuck Pilegor form the trio and run through "Dinty Olga From the Volga" and "At the Corner Room."

Marce Stringer and Mike Kerns turn a local beanery into movie studio as they go into their song and dance act.

Ruthye Cohen and Gloria Trovaioi are featured in solo spots while the orchestra in the pit will be Paul Grove's group under the direction of Walt Klinikowski (see LMOC, page 5).

Crews have constructed elaborate settings for the Corner Room and Trailer Camp scenes.

Business manager for the group is Pete Johnson. Costumes are under the direction of Mary Lou Sweet while make-up is done by Carol Dieckman and Jerry Trumper. Publicity and advertising committees are headed by Al Green and Frank Perna.

Sock Kennedy Directs

J. Ewing "Sock" Kennedy is directing the entire production assisted by Kerns and Mellott. The book was written by Dick Frontman and Bill Reutti, who can also be found in the cast.

Musical scores and lyrics were written by Bob Kline, Ray Fortunate, Jim McKechnie, Tony Turchetti, Pat Lamade and Dick Frontman. John Holmes is directing the vocal work while Bob Mellott has coached the dance routines.

A souvenir program with stories and pictures of the show and cast, a history of the Thespians and a description of the acts has been prepared and will be on sale at Student Union and at the door.

Tonight's show will be repeated tomorrow night at 7 p.m.

X-G-I Club To Feature Barbecued Pigs at Picnic

Barbecued pigs will be the main attraction of the X-G-I Club's final social function of the semester, at Legion Park, from 2 to 9 p.m. Sunday. Ball games, dancing, and other entertainment have been planned for members and their dates.

Busses will leave from the rear of Old Main beginning at 2 p.m., at a cost of 25 cents per person. Those planning to attend are asked to present their membership cards and sign up at the Student Union desk.

Goodman-

(Continued from page one) man, pointed out that the feature of the decorations will be a 30-foot mast inside Recreation Hall. From it will be strung lines of flags and pennants to carry out the nautical theme.

Davits and lifeboats will be installed along the walls in case anyone falls overboard, and a captain's cabin will be constructed along one wall.

A system of checking at the door by the campus patrol will be used to prevent more than one couple entering on the same ticket, stated Donald Kay, ticket chairman.

"BIG DOINGS?" SHOULD SAY SO!
