fare the band left for Kansas City.

Today everything was settled. Dr. Brunner was assured the part would be ready by Thursday night, and he would have music to hand his musicians on their arrival Saturday in Kansas City.

"It's a good tune, a nice catchy number," commented Fishburn as he mopped his brow.

Along with the new Waring number a march composed by C. L. Taggart, Washington County livestock breeder honoring the Pennsylvania FFA band, will be introduced. This was written a few years ago but during the war no band was assembled and therefore it's debut was delayed until this year.
