Between The Lions

By Stephen Sinichak
Sports musings over the Homecoming Weekend:

Penn State's soccer and cross-country teams carried the victory banners this past weekend and increased their win streaks to three and two triumphs respectively. The gridders, as everyone knows, dropped a sad one to Michigan State. Need we say more?

The booters had a fairly large group of supporters at their game. Some fans thought enough of their ability to stick it out in the baseball bleachers and watch the Jeffreymen perform. At least that tussle was worth watching!

The Infantry terminology, "Scouts Out" indicates possible imminent danger ahead. Wonder if Lion scout Al Michaels was ambushed when he spied on the Spartans?

Perhaps we can philosophize by saying Penn State came out with a .500 average against Michigan State, for Chick Werner's harriers did win the cross-country race against the Spartans!

Bill Jeffrey's booters prefer to pass around individual honors. In their opener against Gettysburg, Dean Witmer and Hamilton lead the scoring attack. Two weeks ago Ken Hosterman's four goals gave the Bucknell goalie plenty of trouble. Last Saturday it was Johnny Hamilton on the rampage against Colgate with three tallies.

Guerre, Michigan State's "Larry Joe," was the "Little" guy with the "Big" 45 on his jersey. When the Lions started chasing a Spartan ball carrier for any great distance, it usually turned out to be George Guerre. He scored their first touchdown and set up the other two with his long runs. Guerre is only a sophomore, but showed up much better than the publicized Russ Reader.

Johnny Hamilton and Ken Hosterman now lead the soccer scoring with five goals each. Witmer follows with four goals, Hackman with two and Dean Hartman with a single marker.

Statistics show the Spartans totaled 307 yards by ground offensive. No wonder they scored three touchdowns! That's better than three times the length of the gridiron. Maybe we shoulda "quick-kicked?"

The first enrollment of the College included one hundred students.

X-Country Squad Defeats Spartans

Coming across the finish line in a photo-finish, Lion Gerry Karver took first place in 27:26 time over Jack Dianetti, of Michigan State, who finished one second later. Penn State won the meet, 25-30, over the Spartan on home grounds Saturday.

Dianetti, stellar freshman runner for the Spartans, ran the mile in 4:16 when he was a sophomore in a Rochester, N. Y., high school. This is considered one of the best times in high school competition. Placing in third and fourth places in a dead heat were Captain Curt Stone and Horace Ashenfelter of Penn State.

Summary: (1) Karver (PS), 27:26; (2) Dianetti (MS), 27:27; (3 and 4) Stone, Ashenfelter (PS), 27:55; (5) Gibbard (MS), 28:39; (6) Mack (MS) 28:43; (7) Kiczenski (MS), 28:52; (8) Horne (PS), 28:57; (9) Keschull (MS), 29:15; (10) Williams (PS), 29:23.

Want to Meet a Nice Big Family?

Telephone workers make up a big family ... more than 575,000 in the Bell System ... more than 27,000 in The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

These workers are your friends and neighbors and they're nice people to meet, to know, and to do business with.

You'll find them everywhere. For the Telephone Company is mainly a local business, multiplied by the many localities it serves, and operated by home-town people.

We're proud of our telephone family. You can be, too.

struction engineer with much sawing and nailing of two-by-fours. A specially contrived pot belched smoke at appropriate moments and the costumers in the crowd rigged a Greek-skirted Spartan.

Disaster almost struck Friday night when Huehnergarth, a pre-law senior, drilled eyes in the plaster of paris lion's head only to have it collapse in chips. Glue and several hours' work from patient fingered Pi Kappa Alpha's put the Nittany face together again.
