

News Briefs

Windcrest Nicknames

Snob Nob and Red Valley are names applied to the eastern and western ends respectfully, of Windcrest by residents of the other sections of the trailer community.

Bursar's Announcement

The Bursar's office in Old Main is now open during the noon hour Monday through Friday.

Common Sense Program

"India, 1946" is the title of the Common Sense program to be presented in 121 Sparks at 7:30 tonight.

IMA Calls for Bowlers

Independent Men's Association requests that all teams and individual bowlers interested in competing in the IMA League to come to the Dux Bowling Alleys at 7 o'clock tonight.

Froth Calls Students For Staff Positions

Froth is calling for candidates. Anyone interested in trying out for positions on the business, editorial, art or photography staffs of the College's official humor publication, are urged to attend a meeting of the combined staffs in rooms 2 and 3 Carnegie Hall, 7:00 p.m., on Thursday.

All present members of both the business and editorial staffs are urged to attend, as future policy and procedure will be discussed at this meeting.

Three members of the pre-war business staff have also been added to the staff recently.

AVC Elects Kemmler to Office

Earl Kemmler is the new chairman of the Penn State Branch of the American Veterans Committee as a result of elections held at a recent meeting of the local chapter.

Other students chosen for offices were vice-chairman, Gayle Gearhart; treasurer, Francis Isenberg; recording secretary, Kay Challenger; corresponding secretary, Donald Benton, and historian, Winifred King.

Business transacted at the gathering included adoption of the main part of the constitution and the closing of the local organization's charter.

Guest speaker for the evening was Harold J. Fishbein, who has just returned home from Berlin, Germany, where he is head of one of the Displaced Persons Camps being run by UNRRA.

Football Tix on Sale

Tickets for the Penn State-Colgate game are now on sale at the ticket office, 107 Old Main; all seats are $2.75. Tickets are also available at $3.00 for the Penn State-Pitt contest November 23.

Orchestra Elects Officers

The College Orchestra, the largest and potentially the best, according to Director Hummel Fishburn, recently elected Robert Mulligan president.

Selected for the orchestra were Mary Austry, George Barber, Alan Beuchner, Herbert Baylor, John Cook, Martha Dennis, Jack Dillard, Mildred Drömgold, Frank Fair, Jean Farley, Marion Fister, Jacqueline Heckert, Norman Horowitz, George Kryger, Milton Light, Curtis Lytle, Pat Manson, Jock Martin.

Fred Mazatelli, Penn Miner, Lewis Rose, Joan Schlosser, Raymond Schlosser, Robert Sturgeon, Fred Swingle, Genevieve Taras, Adele Thompson, Charles Toth, Karl Van d'Elden, Paul Waterman, Lillian Weingarten, Ann Wisden, and Capt. Hirsch, violins.

Joan Bissey, Margaret Cunningham, Robert Fredrickson, Mrs. Hirsch, Marguerite Horn, James Madenfort, David McKinley, Jo Rotili and George Winnet, violas. Lois App, Rosalind Givotovsky, Becky Griffin, Margaret Potts, Jo-Marie Jackson, Ernest Rotili, and Frances Skillman, cellos. Ed Abramson, Lucille Cox, Conrad Hilpert, and Edith Murray, flutes.

Martha Caldwell, Alden Emery, Bud Francis, Marie Hahn, Virgil Neilly, Lois Sheaffer, Marie Thompson, and Norman Walter, basses. James Beach, Antoinette D'Orazio, James Kocher, and Robert Skipper, clarinets.

Edna Murray, Bengt Pulls, and Esther Thompson, oboes. Ellis Hall, bass clarinet; Frank Hess, Philip Miller, and R. Spiker bassoons. William Laughlin, Creston Ottemiller, Eugene Spague, and Rudy Yanitto, trumpets.

Susan Bissey, Dorothy Cornell, Paul Grove, L. H. Levi, Robert Manning, Marjorie Rex, and Charles Willing, horns. Robert Bechtol, Robert Gradner, Robert Mulligan, and William Keefauver, trombones. William Barwis, Carl Colter, Donald Fredrickson, Jack Shetter, and Lois Turner.

W8YA, College Amateur Radio Station To Reactivate After 5-Year Lapse

W8YA, the College amateur radio station, is issuing its first call for staff members since 1941. The radio station, which includes three transmitters, operating room and a small shop, is licensed W8YA under a Technical and Training license.

Aside from all the regular amateur activities in which this station is engaged and operated by its various staff members, it has won national recognition on several occasions.

LA's to Elect School Council

Elections for Liberal Arts Student Council will be held in 121 Sparks at 7:30, October 31 according to Fred Kecker and Ernest Nagy, co-chairmen of the Interim Liberal Arts Council.

Applications for seats on the council must be filed in 132 Sparks by Wednesday. A liberal arts student nominating himself or a friend must give information as to address, semester and estimated All-College average.

The purpose of the Liberal Arts Student Council is to (a) make recommendations concerning the curriculum, (b) to conduct polls on pertinent questions among the student body and (c) to provide for all other matters pertaining to the welfare of the students in the School of Liberal Arts.

Hayes to Sing At Recital

Roland Hayes, distinguished tenor, will present a recital in Schwab Auditorium at 8 p. m. November 14. The concert is jointly sponsored by the Penn State Christian Association and the Citizen's Legislative Action Committee of State College.

Tickets for the concert are on sale at the Student Union, Keeler's and the Corner Room. Price is $1.50 including tax, proceeds being used for a program of community social education.

Mr. Hayes has sung in concert halls all over the world and in command performances before King George and Queen Mary. During the war he gave recitals in London for soldiers on leave from world battlefronts.

Lauded by critics as the greatest negro singer and "one of the greatest who ever trod the concert stage," Roland Hayes has been the recipient of many distinctions, including the award of the degree of Doctor of Music from Ohio Wesleyan University, and Doctor of Laws from Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia.

In 1944 Dr. Serge Koussevitsky chose him to be soloist with the Boston Symphony Orchestra in the world premier of Gretchaninov's "Oecumenical Mass," dedicated to the late Mrs. Natalie Koussevitsky.

His stirring life story has been told by a friend, MacKinley Helm, in "Angel Mo' and Her Son, Roland Hayes," a best selling Atlantic Monthly Press Book.

New Issue

Cigars and candy were being passed out in the Alumni Association office yesterday morning. At 11:26 a.m. a seven-pound, 1/2-ounce baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ridge Riley, Jr., assistant alumni secretary.

The baby has not been named yet but, "Sure and she'll have a real Irish name," says Ridge. This is the second daughter for the Rileys.

Light Vote in Armory Polling

New Director

Dr. Grace M. Henderson, new director of the department of Home Economics in the School of Education.

Polls Open Until Five O'clock Today

Between 1,100 and 1,200 students cast their ballots in the first day of All-College Elections, Jack Branigan, All-College Elections committee chairman, announced last night.

Branigan stated that the first day's balloting was fairly heavy but he urged all students who haven't voted to do so today.

The Armory polls will be open this morning at 9 o'clock for the final voting day and will close at 5 o'clock. Voters are asked to use the rear door of the Armory as the front entrance is restricted to Naval personnel.

For those who have a full schedule of classes, Branigan stressed that the polls would be open during the noon hour.

In the All-College offices, voters must choose between Robert Foote and Russell Smiley, Nittany-Independent, and Clifford St. Clair and James Duff, Campus-Key, for the posts of All-College president and vice-president, respectively.

For the post of All-College secretary-treasurer, Campus-Key offers Raymond Shibley against Nittany-Independent Albert Green.

Male students will also be asked to choose a president and secretary for the Athletic Association. Candidates for president are football captain William "Red" Moore and cross-country captain Curt Stone, while Dave Hornstein opposes Bronco Kosanovich for the secretary position.

Other candidates seeking election are:

- SENIOR CLASS President Arthur P. Miller— Nittany-Independent James Sheehan—Campus-Key Vice-President Marshall Brown— Nittany-Independent Charles Pfeeger—Campus-Key Secretary-Treasurer Rosemary Genetti— Nittany-Independent Barbara McCleary—Campus-Key JUNIOR CLASS President Eugene Fulmer— Nittany-Independent Pete Johnson—Campus-Key Vice-President Howard Maxwell—Campus-Key Charles Willing— Nittany-Independent Secretary-Treasurer Louise Grossman—Campus-Key Jacqueline Zivic— Nittany-Independent SOPHOMORE CLASS President Emory Brown—Campus-Key Richard Sarge—

(Continued on page two)

Pollock Circle Residents To Pay Room-Board Fees

All residents of Pollock Circle dormitories must pay the first quarter installment of their room and board fees today at the Bursar's office in Old Main.

Three windows will be set aside for collection of the fees, Clark stated. Last names beginning in letters A-H will pay at the first window while the second window will have bills for I-P, and Q-Z at window three.

Bills may be paid from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Clark stressed that the office would be open during the noon hour.

Single room occupants should come prepared to pay $62.76 for the first installment while those sharing a double room will be assessed $60.40. These sums include $40.08 for meals and a $5 key deposit which will be refunded when the key is returned.

Artists' Course Tickets Go on Sale at AA Office

Artists' Course tickets will go on sale at the Athletic Association office window in Old Main at 8 o'clock this morning.

Students holding priority stubs will buy tickets today while faculty and townspeople may purchase their tickets tomorrow. Times listed on priority stubs will be observed in calling for tickets.

Danish Prof Exuberant At Dean Whitmore's Text

By LEWIS STONE That the fame of Frank C. Whitmore, dean of the School of Chemistry and Physics, has spread far from old Mount Nittany was discovered in this Collegian reporter's visit to the campus of Aarhus University in Denmark.

At the mention of Dean Whitmore's name, the Danish chemistry professor excitedly shouted, "Why, we know him. We use his glorious book here." This book, "Organic Chemistry," is well known to graduate students studying Chem 535 at the College.

In the chemistry department, as elsewhere on the campus, this reporter was greeted with exceptional friendliness, courtesy, and cooperation. Everywhere students, faculty, and staff members eagerly interpreted, explained, and pointed out items of interest which might otherwise have been passed unnoticed.

Aarhus can justifiably boast of the "campus beautiful." It is small, occupying a space about the size of four city blocks, on gently rolling ground, on the outskirts of the city of 107,000. All the buildings are new and harmonious, with simplicity and numerous, large, gleaming windows as their most eye-catching features.

Founded in 1933, and forced underground during the war, the Danish university resumed in

(Continued on page three)