

Lions Drill For Colgate

Coach Bob Higgins is running his charges through strenuous nightly drills in fundamentals to prepare for Saturday's game with Colgate at Hamilton, N. Y.

In an effort to perfect a defense against Andy Kerr's deceptive double wing formation, line coach Joe Bedenk, who has been scouting the Red Raiders, is conducting scrimmages far into the night.

Although the injured list has been swelled by the addition of End Dennie Hoggard, who broke his thumb last Saturday, Bob Urion, Bud Davis and Bob Weitzel, minus pads, were able to report for practice last night.

Colgate Ready
The Red Raiders, who suffered injuries in their encounters with Yale and Cornell, will be back at top strength for their meeting with the Lions.

Captain Bob Orlando missed the entire second half against the Eli's because of a leg injury, and big Frank Muehlheuser was forced out of the Cornell fray near the close of the first quarter with a dislocated shoulder. Both will be ready Saturday.

Outstanding Lineman

Orlando, one of the best linemen in the East, is the key to the Raiders defense. Joe Bedenk has the highest regard for Muehlheuser's punting and defensive playing.

The big fullback, who made 56 yards in six tries against Cornell including dashes of 20 and 16 yards, gained every time he carried the ball.

Colgate won easily over Kings Point Merchant Marines—47-7—last week. Coach Andy Kerr has nothing but praise for the efforts of his squad, which in its first two games against ranking teams has lost close contests, although having an advantage in statistics.

Close to Score

In each game, Colgate was close to its opponents' goal lines in the closing minutes; on the 4-yard line against Yale, and on the 6 against Cornell. The Big Red saved their 13-9 ball game by allowing an intentional safety at the last minute.

The Red Raiders were not too impressive in the first half against Kings Point but were able to put Al Nordmark over on a 16-yard run in the first quarter and Pete Matisi across in the second. Orlando kicked both extra points.

Colgate gained momentum after the intermission and Nordmark scored twice during the third quarter.

Booters Meet Navy Seek Fourth Win

After three straight victories on home grounds, Coach Jeffrey's booters will "hit the road" in search of their fourth triumph of the season when they journey to meet the Middies at Annapolis Saturday.

Navy, who seems to play its best game against the Lions, is also gunning for its fourth win. Loss of several outstanding kickers from the Midshipmen's 1945 squad, however, gives the Blue and White an edge in Saturday's encounter. The Nittany booters are fielding their best team since 1942.

First Middle victim of the current season was a professional team from Baltimore. The Bullets from Gettysburg were shut-out the following week, 6-0, and then Bucknell fell before Navy's attack, 3-1.

After disposing of Gettysburg 5-0 and the Bisons from Bucknell 7-0, the Lions fought their hardest battle against the Colgate Red Raiders last Saturday when they took a 5-1 decision.

Last year the Nittany squad dropped a 4-1 contest to the Midshipmen. This is the highest score that Navy has been able to push across the Lion goal in a single game.

Fleming Announces Basketball Schedule

A 19-game basketball schedule opening against Susquehanna University December 4 was announced by Neil M. Fleming, graduate manager of athletics. Five of the first six games will be played on alien floors.

Georgetown returns to the schedule after a wartime lapse, while American University is the only new addition. Home-and-away series are renewed with Bucknell, West Virginia, Pittsburgh, Temple, Carnegie Tech, and Colgate.

The schedule: Dec. 4, Susquehanna, away; 7, Georgetown, away; 11, Bucknell, away; 14, Washington & Jefferson; 18, West Virginia, away; Jan. 4, Pittsburgh, away; 8, Temple; 11, Muhlenberg; 15, Bucknell; 18, Carnegie Tech, away; 25, Colgate, away; Feb. 1, Pittsburgh; 7, American University, away; 8, Temple, away; 12, Carnegie Tech; 15, Navy, away; 22, West Virginia; Mar. 1, Georgetown; 8, Colgate.

Intramurals

Intramural contests will be reported a day later than usual due to the fact that the Daily Collegian goes to press before a majority of the games are completed. Games to be played will be published in time for teams to be notified of their playing dates.

High Scores Mark Frat Bowling

Sprinkled with high individual scores and relatively high team scores, the College Fraternity Bowling League, under the sponsorship of the State Bowling Center, swung into activity for the second time as 16 fraternities vied for top bowling honors Tuesday night at the Bowling Center.

High single game score as well as high individual three game total scoring honors went to Hurvitz of Beta Sigma Rho. Hurvitz rolled a 193, 167, and a 247 for a three game average of slightly over 202.

With three game totals of 559 and 532 respectively, Barrett of Lambda Chi Alpha and Harwood of Triangle held second and third place individual scores.

Again, as last week, the Delta Chi quintet came through with the highest total team score as they defeated Phi Sigma Alpha 2450 pins to 2278. James Gleason rolled top scores for the Delta Chi with a 190 single game high and a three game total of 530.

The leading single team score was rolled by the Theta Chis with an 887 team total in one game. They defeated Phi Sigma Kappa 2326 to 2101. Cox, Theta Chi, rolled a 211 high game and a three game total of 525.

Beta Sigma Rho 2375
Beta Theta Pi 2259

Triangle 2297
Alpha Chi Sigma 2110

Theta Chi 2326
Phi Sigma Kappa 2101

Delta Chi 2450
Phi Sigma Delta 2278

Tau Kappa Epsilon 1979
Delta Tau Delta 2185

Sigma Phi Sigma 2275
Alpha Gamma Rho 2229

Lambda Chi Alpha 2385
Alpha Sigma Phi 2236

Delta Upsilon 2409
Theta Xi 2371

DU, PKS, AXS Win

Delta Upsilon, Phi Kappa Sigma, and Alpha Chi Sigma triumphed over their opposition Tuesday night, and by virtue of these wins became eligible for further play in the single elimination tournament of college fraternity intramural football play.

In another scheduled game, Acadia forfeited to Pi Lambda Phi. Chi Phi and Alpha Phi Delta qualified Monday night for second round contests. Thirty-nine fraternities are entered in this tournament, with the winner receiving a trophy, donated by the College.

The All-College Intramural Swimming Program will initiate its schedule Monday afternoon with two dual meets slated for the Glennland Pool.

Phi Delta Theta opposes Alpha Chi Sigma in the opener, with Delta Upsilon and Lambda Chi Alpha contesting in the aftermath. The matches begin at 4:30 p.m.

Two yards meant the difference between victory and elimination as Delta Upsilon topped Phi Ep in an overtime tussle by the score 1-0. At the end of regular play, the two squads were scoreless. Playoff rules provide for three extra plays by each team with the outfit compiling the most yardage emerging as winner. By the scant two-yard margin, Phi Epsilon Pi went down to defeat.

A second period pass from "Moose" Borland to Bud Gray netted a touchdown and a win for Phi Kappa Sigma as the Phi Kaps eliminated Phi Sigma Delta 7-0.

Alpha Chi Sigma and Sigma Alpha Epsilon locked grips in the nightcap with the Alpha Chi Sigs emerging victorious by a 6-0 count. Mike Enyeart's crossing into paydirt on the receiving end of a Yeagley pass decided the issue.

Last night's schedule pitted Alpha Zeta against Sigma Phi Sigma; Delta Chi vs. Theta Xi; and Phi Gamma Delta vs. Kappa Delta Rho.

The coach who thinks football is a GAME!

Some coaches regard football as a serious, dollars-and-cents business. But not Southern California's Jeff Cravath! While he plays to win—and he wins his share—he has a unique theory that football is, after all, a game that should be fun for the players. Why, he's even been known to give touchdowns away to needy opponents! Football fans will be interested in the lively article This Coach is a Softie—He Says by Collie Small in today's issue of The Saturday Evening Post. If you want to keep posted on the world of sports, you can't afford to miss a single issue of the Post.
