

Harriers Set Track Record; Gridders Beat Colgate, 6-2

Five Cindermen Cross Finish Line Together

Slashing their way to a new track record of 23:27 for a four and one-half mile course, five Nittany harriers broke the tape together to defeat Cornell Saturday, 15-40.

Gerry Karver, Curt Stone, Horace Ashenfelter, Don Longenecker, and Mitch Williams were the Lion cindermen who crossed the finish line simultaneously to set a new course mark by two-tenths of a second on the Big Red trail.

Team Play

"The boys ran as a team rather than individually during the meet," Coach Chick Werner said, adding that the Lion runners didn't run at their fastest pace due to the soggy condition of the course to avoid injuries.

Lennox Places

Fred Lennox, who is running his first year of cross-country competition, was Penn State's sixth man in the meet and placed only 30 seconds behind the leaders.

This is the Wernermen's third consecutive victory in the season's cross-country competition. In their first meet, the Lion harriers took a decisive 15-40 win over Syracuse over a muddy course. Next the Lion squad defeated a strong Michigan State team on home grounds in a closely contested meet, 25-30.

Saturday the runners will face the Pitt Panthers over the Nittany course.

Call Basketball Manager

Anyone interested in applying for an assistant managership in basketball should report to head manager William Brooks at Rec Hall tonight between 6:30 and 8:30 p.m. First managers this season are Rusty Branake, Sid Simon, and Joseph Sudemok.

Gerry Karver, Lion distance runner, won six Pennsylvania championships as a High school boy at Boyertown, Pa.

Opponents' Scores

Following are last week's scores of Penn State's 1946 opponents:

Bucknell 29; Lafayette 0

Colone to Triplett Pass Gives Lions Margin

Penn State took the lead 5-4 in a series started in 1914 when the Nittany Lions came from behind to beat Colgate 6 to 2 before a record Homecoming crowd of 12,000 at Hamilton, N. Y. Saturday afternoon.

The Colgate alumni sat in silence under a blistering sun as the Red Raiders went backward more than they went forward to end up with a net yardage by rushing of minus 27.

The first score came in the first period when an intercepted pass and an out-of-bounds kick backed the Lions up to their 15-yard line.

Missed Cue

Someone in the backfield missed his cue when Oddie Martella passed the ball back and it rolled into the end zone. Elwood Petchel raced back to pounce on the ball an instant before a Raider tackle to give a safety and two points to Colgate.

Five minutes before the end of the first half, after the Higginmen had invaded Colgate's side of the field for the seventh time, Joe Colone passed to Wally Triplett on the 15 who grabbed the ball over his shoulder and streaked over the goal line unmolested.

Penn State moved into scoring position at least once in every period, and reached the Colgate 13 twice in the last period but failed to score.

Andy Kerr, in his last year at Colgate, attempted to cross up the Lion defense by using the T formation for the first time this year. The home forces were, however, using a 6-3-2-1 defense which works against the T even better than against the double wing to keep the Raiders bottled up throughout the game.

Golf Tourney Narrows to Semi-final Contestants

The College Golf Tournament is currently in its final week of play with four upper bracket semi-finalists being the centers of attention. Second and third bracket semi-finalists are also completing the playoffs for the championships of their divisions.

Don Hart, Jerry Smith, Bruce Diatterick, and Dick Hastings are survivors who are currently pairing off for final round berths. Hart opposes Smith with Diatterick and Hastings battling for the other finalist post.

Upon these golfers and others who showed up well in this tourney, Coach Bob Rutherford plans to build much of his Spring varsity golf squad.

IM Cross-Country

Intramural cross-country squads may practice from 4 to 5:30 p.m. from October 29 through November 1, and November 4 and 5. Entries will check out with Dave Carleton or Dick Lose on number 10 tee.

Fluke Score and—

Navy Ties Booters, 1-1

A "fluke" kick, aimed to get the ball out of scoring area, rebounded off a Navy booter and bounced into the Penn State net to give the Middies a 1-1 draw with the Nittany Lion soccer squad at Annapolis Saturday.

Navy's lone tally came in the final quarter when Lloyd Black attempted to boot the ball out of danger. As Middle center Welsh closed in on Black, the kick rebounded off Welsh's shin and into the side of the net. Goalie Graebner was unable to make the save.

Slates Clean

The tie keeps the Lion and Navy slates clean, for neither team has tasted defeat to date. Both squads have scored three wins, with Saturday's draw being the first for each side.

Penn State scored early in the second period when Bender passed the ball to Ken Hosterman who tallied the Blue and White's lone marker. The Lions threatened constantly, but were unable to penetrate the Midshipmen's goal although several close shots bounced off the cross-bar and side posts.

Boyd Etters sprained his ankle in the hard-fought contest and may be out of action for the Lions' next game with Cornell.

PENN STATE ... 0 1 0 0-1
NAVY ... 0 0 0 1-1

SX, PiKA, SigPi Win in Football

Sigma Chi eked out a 7-6 victory over Alpha Gamma Rho to highlight Thursday night's intramural football program. In other games, Phi Kappa Tau succumbed before Pi Kappa Alpha 6-0, and in an overtime contest, Sigma Pi edged Alpha Sigma Phi 1-0.

Friday night saw Dorm 3, Pollock Circle triumph over Penn Haven 1-0. This game was protested by the losing squad. Dormitory 10, Pollock Circle forfeited to Secret Squadron. The evening's third slated encounter between the Physical Education Majors and the Hoopsters was postponed due to rain.

Last night's schedule pitted Delta Sigma Phi against Triangle, Phi Kappa vs. Kappa Sigma and Beta Theta Pi vs. Phi Sigma Kappa.

Tau Kappa Epsilon opposes Beta Sigma Rho in the first engagement tonight. Delta Tau Delta vs. Zeta Beta Tau, and Phi Kappa Psi vs. Lambda Chi Alpha complete the evening's ledger.

Calls All Hatmen

Hatmen who wish to help out in the Lions' cross-country meet with Pitt Saturday are requested to report to manager Dick Lose at the New Beaver Field flag poles, 1 p.m.

Penn State's famed Blue Band is on the march again, and is a major attraction at Nittany Lion football games.

October 1946

Dear Sir:

Now that you are back from doing a good job; your concern is to get a good education quickly—to make up for the war spent years.

The world is still in bad shape; each new day finds fresh trouble. Old values are changing. Your cost of living has zoomed since 1941.

We should like to point out some values which haven't changed. They will interest you:

1. Most Arrow shirts (including whites) still sell for less than $3.50.
2. Most Arrow neckties still sell for $1 and $1.50.
3. Arrow shorts; sports shirts and handkerchiefs are still reasonably priced.
4. Every Arrow product retains its pre-war quality and workmanship.
5. All Arrow shirts and shorts and most Arrow sports shirts are Sanforized-labeled—can be washed with less than 1% shrinkage.

Because of the demand; Arrow shirts are still darn scarce. But if you find one—and we hope you do—we guarantee you and your wallet will be completely satisfied.

Sincerely yours,

CLUETT, PEABODY & CO., INC.
