

St. John Honored

Robert St. John was made an honorary member of the Common Sense club at the coffee hour following his lecture last Thursday. Leo Troy, president of Common Sense club, presented him with a membership card. Mr. St. John said that it was a fine organization and that he liked their ideas. He also said, "I think that nation like this."

College Artist—

Biggers has given the murals to the United Transport Service Employees, CIO, who will display them in their nationally known Chicago labor temple.

He transferred to the College upon recommendation of Dr. Viktor Lowenfeld, who was then chairman of the art department at Hampton.
