necessitate men and women eating together in the Sandwich Shop, or the transfer of women now eating there to the two other women's dining commons.

Both sets of plans would involve considerable expense and difficulties on the part of the College, according to Mr. Loman.

Those of Mr. Loman's staff who attended the meeting were Miss Edith M. Johnson, supervisor of dining commons; Miss Hazel Fall, supervisor of the Sandwich Shop and Pollock Circle Dining Commons; and Miss Ida M. Parent, supervisor of the McAllister Dining Commons.

Five More Combat Films To Be Shown Veterans

Five combat films will be shown by the department of military science and tactics at the College in Room 119 New Physics at 7:30 tonight. The program, second of the series, will include "Divide and Conquer," "Diary of a Sergeant," "Battle of Midway," "San Pietro," and "Sea Power in the Pacific." The films are brought to the campus especially for veterans, many of whom saw at first hand the actions portrayed, but the movies are open to all interested in seeing them.
