

PHI G A Sponsors Yuletide Contest

All entries to the campus-wide Christmas card contest, sponsored by Phi Gamma Alpha, Art Honorary Society, must be turned into Student Union on or before Tuesday, December 10, it was announced today.

Originality of design is the only requirement. There are no restrictions as to size, media, or number of designs entered, and Phi Gamma Alpha urges contestants to submit as many cards as possible. All entries, however, must be marked with the name, address, school and class of the owner.

Ten dollars, five dollars and an Art book of the winner's choice, will be given respectively to the top three contestants, with honorable mention being made of the "runners ups."

The best designs will be displayed in the AA Store before the final judging, which will take place December 10.

Judging the contest will be Dr. Lowenfield from the School of Art Education, and Professors Case and Dixon from the School of Fine Arts.

Dean Invites Calls

Miss Charlotte E. Ray, former Dean of Women at the College, is now living near Pittsburgh. Miss Ray would enjoy hearing from any of the co-eds who plan to attend the Pitt game or who can arrange to visit her home, 1309 Wood Street, Wilkesburg. Wood-Hill Apartment number 17. Her phone number is Penhurst 5328.
