

College Ewes Bring Top Sheep Prices

Of the 75 sheep sold at the first state-wide purebred ewe consignment sale, held at the livestock pavilion, four sheep entered by the college brought top prices in their respective breeds. Sam Laub, a senior in animal husbandry served as auctioneer for the sale, bringing in $5,110 or an average of $68.13 per animal.

Top bid of the sale went for a college Hampshire ewe, when R. C. Holmes, of Shinglehouse, Pa., bid $280. In the Shropshires, a College animal was high at $115, sold to Robinson Brothers, Mercer. The lone Cheviot from the College flock topped this breed with a $75 bid from Mrs. David McDowell, Mercer. In the Southdowns, a College ewe brought $75 from E. S. Burch, Camp Hill.

Home Economic Display Lays Stress on Nutrition

"Vitamin 'A' and Ascorbic Acid" will be the subject of the nutrition exhibit to be displayed in Room 209, Home Economics Building, from 3:30 to 6 o'clock this afternoon.

The exhibit is arranged by students under the direction of Ruth

Reid Dougherty Reminds Ping-Pong Enthusiasts

All undergraduate men interested in participating in the ping pong tournament, sponsored by the Independent Men's Association, should sign up at the student union desk before the Thanksgiving vacation said Reid Dougherty, tournament chairman.

L. Pike, assistant professor of home economics at the College.

Both singles and doubles will be played in the tournament. The entrance fee is $.25 for singles and $.50 for doubles.

All matches will be played in the evening (except with special arrangements) in 401 Old Main. Matches will begin as soon as the schedule is complete.

TRIPLE SMOKING PLEASURE

A

ALWAYS Milder

B

BETTER TASTING

C

COOLER SMOKING

AT THE ARMY-NAVY GAME AND IN COLLEGES THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY YOU WILL FIND CHESTERFIELD THE LARGEST SELLING CIGARETTE

Always Buy CHESTERFIELD

ALL OVER AMERICA - THEY'RE TOPS - They Satisfy