

P. Bunyan Visits For Forestry Ball

Paul Bunyan, mythical lumberjack, will be in town December 14 for the "Paul Bunyan Ball," the Penn State Forestry society's annual dance, according to Jack Marney, general chairman.

The affair which begins at 9 p. m. will follow the first home basketball tussle of the season when the Lions meet Washington and Jefferson. This will be the first basketball game for the king-size lumberjack of bygone logging days in the North Central States. In past years Paul Bunyan's huge footprints dotted the campus walks several days before the dance.

The reorganized Penn State Aristocrats will furnish music for the event, according to Louis Gauthier, orchestra chairman. The Three Stoges, Pleggor, Mitchell, and Mellot, will take over during intermission.

Other committee chairmen are Boyd Witherow, advertising; John Renoux, decoration; Curtis Lytle, tickets; and Paul Beattie, refreshments.

Bill Richards Named Bucknell Boxing Coach

LEWISBURG, Pa., Dec. 2 —(AP)—William T. Richards, former Penn State boxing captain, has been named head coach of Bucknell University's boxing team.

Richards was a runnerup in the National Intercollegiate tournament at Wisconsin in 1943 during his final year at State. He fought in the 145, 155 and 165 pound weight groups at the College.

Terrific Tantalizer

Dry perfume makes your favorite Roger & Gallet fragrance go farther. Its tantalizing scent is released gradually when patted directly on warm skin. A dash in the hem of your dance dress fills the air with fadeless perfume. Doused inside your blouse, the effect is really terrific! Use it regularly—in all ways—just like liquid perfume.

Six exciting scents... Night of Delight... Fleurs d'Amour... Blue Carnation... Jade... Sandalwood and Violette, priced at $1.25.

Trailer Camp Has Troubles With Laundry, Noise, Dogs

Washing facilities at Winderest, College trailer camp, are overcrowded, according to Leo Fiedorek, burgess.

As many as fifty families use the one wash house," Fiedorek stated today. "Some housewives sign fictitious names to the lists so that they can use the wash houses for laundry more than one day a week."

Burgess Fiedorek warned that unless these practices stop and more room is given to the wives of ex-GI's living in the trailer village, "stern measures will be taken."

"Another civic problem is the pet question," Fiedorek said. "Many of the trailer families have dogs, which is against the village rules."

"There is a clause in the Winderest contract which states that no pets are allowed in the trailers," Fiedorek added.

The dogs are running loose and barking and annoying the neighbors in the trailer village, and, according to the burgess, unless the dogs are tied and kept quiet, meaasures will be taken for the betterment of the community.

Construction Noises Annoying

Trailer occupants are also complaining about the noise of the new road construction on the south side of Winderest, Fiedorek remarked. No indication of attempts to alleviate that civic difficulty, was given, however.

It was further announced that measures will also be taken if the garbage facilities continue to be abused. Fiedorek said that persons in the community were stuffing the garbage pails, especially over the weekends, and creating "unsightly and unsanitary messes on Winderest streets."

Dr. Gemmell to Speak At New York Conference

Dr. James J. Gemmell, assistant professor of economics and business education, will speak on Saturday at New York University's Conference on Recruitment, Selection, Education, and Induction of College Teachers.

BRADFORD, England — The Archbishop of York has very little good to say about the atomic bomb. He declared today that another world war may sweep belligerents off the face of the earth unless the leading nations reach a good understanding.

There are to be found growing on the campus 520 species and varieties of trees and shrubs.
