

Weaver, Moore to Play in East-West Classic

North-South Tilt Gets Larry Joe, Bucky Walters

Paul Weaver, 60-minute Lion quarterback, and William "Red" Moore, Penn State captain and tackle, announced last night that they have accepted invitations to play on Andy Kerr's East team.

They will play on the retired Colgate coach's team in the annual East-West Shrine charity game at San Francisco, New Year's Day.

Larry Joe and Bucky Walters, Lion tailback and end, have accepted invitations to play under Temple coach Ray Morrison in the North-South game.

BOTH SENIORS

Weaver and Moore, chosen on the East's team which is restricted to seniors, played their last game for Penn State against Pitt.

Weaver, who last played for the Higginsmen in 1941, was at his blocking back post for the full 60 minutes against Navy and played for all but a few minutes of the entire season.

Moore, elected team captain after the opening game with Bucknell, is rated by Coach Bob Higgins as one of the nation's outstanding tackles.

Last year, the Nittany Lions were represented at the East-West game by center Bronco Kcsanovich and Chuck Drezonovich. Kcsanovich played almost the entire game for Kerr.

Ends Sam Tamburo and Bob Davis and fullback Al Bellas were invited last year to play in the North-South tilt. Davis, who was playing for an Air Force team, is now holding down the end post for the professional Pittsburgh Steelers.

ALL-AMERICANS

Although the majority of the All-American teams have yet to be selected, Bob Rutkowski has been chosen for one of the guard posts on the second team of the Associated Press' All-Eastern eleven. Scatback Elwood Petchel, who led the Lions in scoring with 42 points, was given honorable mention on the NEA All-American.

Veteran Cage Team Opens With Susquehanna Tonight

Two hold-over lettermen and three pre-war cage stars are expected to start tonight when Coach John Lawther and his basketball team open the 1946-47 season against Susquehanna at Selinsgrove.

Last year, Penn State scuttled Susquehanna 68-33 in the opening game of the season and the year before they downed the same team 53-12.

Milt Simon, who rated second only to Wally Hatkevitch in last year's scoring race, and Johnny Rusinko, who finished fourth in scoring in 1945, with 70 points in 12 games, are both expected to start, Simon at one of the forward spots, Rusinko at guard. Simon netted 105 points in 13 games last season.

Jack Biery, Dave Hornstein and Jimmy Lawther, son of the coach, are the three pre-war players who will probably take the floor against Susquehanna. Lawther will be Rusinko's running mate at guard while Biery will hold down the other forward position. Dave Hornstein, who at 6 feet 5 inches is the tallest man on the Nittany Lion five, will probably start the game at center.

Still other players, the majority of them wartime acquisitions, who may see action in the forthcoming weeks are, Nick Dieterick, Stretch Bozinski, Les Szepesi, Joe Curran, Al Russell, Sam Freedson, Will Parkhill and Johnny Kulp.

Harriers Gain AAU Honors

Penn State's Curt Stone copped fifth-place honors in the National AAU senior 10,000 meter run last weekend over the same Van Courtland Park course in New York that he won the IC4-A crown two weeks before.

Horace Ashenfelter, third-place winner in the IC4-A event, came in eighth.

Both runners were unattached. The six and one-quarter mile course—one and three-quarter miles longer than the trail used for the IC4-A's was covered by Stone in 33:39 and by Ashenfelter in 33:57.

Plans for IM Boxing Complete; Entries Due In Rec Hall Tomorrow

Plans for this winter's intramural boxing tourney have now been completed, according to Eugene C. Bischoff, director of intramural sports.

Each bout will consist of three two-minute rounds, with separate tourneys provided for fraternity and independent organizations.

Football Dinner

Sigma Phi Epsilon will give a dinner tonight at 6 p. m. for the football team at the fraternity house. This will be followed by refreshments and pictures of the Pitt game, according to "Chick" Agnew, house president.
