

Phi Delts Top Cage Loop No. 1

Mowing down Chi Phi by a 21-4 count, Phi Delta Theta's "A" squad gained the championship of fraternity basketball League No. 1. High-point man was Jack Shehee and his cohorts will now rest until the other league winners are determined and the playoffs for the tourney crown begin.

Hank Baierl's foul goal in the second extra period enabled Sigma Phi Epsilon to eke out a close 23-22 win over Alpha Phi Delta. Bert Agnew, with 12 markers, was the pacemaker of the SPE attack as it outlasted game Alpha Phi Delta.

Alpha Chi Sigma, Kappa Delta Rho, and Theta Chi tied for League No. 2's champion. Alpha Chi Sigma downed Theta Chi 18-15, as Kappa Delta Rho trounced Sigma Phi Alpha 18-5.

Alpha Chi Sigma and Kappa Delta Rho will meet Sunday, January 12 with the winner facing Theta Chi January 14 to determine which squad will enter the final eliminations.

Scores of other contests found Alpha Gamma Rho defeating Theta Xi "B" 11-7, the undefeated Lutheran Students swamping the Polecats 30-6 for their fourth straight, and the Berk's Independents keeping apace of the Lutherans with a 32-13 conquest of Atherton Hall. Phi Kappa Psi forfeited to Alpha Sigma Phi and Dorm 14 forfeited to Murphys.

No contests are scheduled tonight due to the varsity tilt with Temple in Rec Hall.

Game with Temple Tonight Finds Lawthermen Underdogs

Penn State's up-and-down basketball team will attempt to get back in the win column as the Nittany Lion cagers face a highly regarded Temple five on the Rec Hall floor at 8 p.m. tonight. Athletic Ticket No. 13 will be honored at the gate.

Despite their mediocre three and three record, the Owls are stocked with basketball talent and are rated among the leading teams of the East.

The Temple victims are Muhlenberg whom they tripped 34-33, Colorado 47-40, and Wyoming 51-44. They lost out to a strong Southern California team 54-68, to Brigham Young 55-57, and to Oklahoma A & M, which is currently rated the top team in the nation, 34-43.

Tonight's meeting will be the 25th of the series. Since 1928 the Owls have won 14 games to 10 for the Nittany Lions. Among these games is the longest in collegiate records—Temple's 63-60 triumph in 1944 in five overtime periods.

Sparkplug of the new edition of Josh Cody's cagers is Ed Lerner, a fiery 6-foot guard who scored 201 points for Temple last season and is leading this year with 51 to date.

Incidentally, Wally Hatkevich, the outstanding player on last year's Nittany Lion quintet, will not play against his former mates due to ineligibility.

Last year Cody's cage crew moved into the Lion lair a decided favorite on the strength of a five and one record, one of the losses being a two-pointer to the National Champion Oklahoma Aggies.

But State's deliberate play caught the classy Owls off guard and a last quarter outburst of nine consecutive points turned the game into a rout as the Lions notched one of the season's biggest upsets 46-34.

Houckmen Begin Sparring

Swinging into high gear in preparation for their first dual meet of the season against the Hurricanes of the University of Miami at Rec Hall Friday night, the Lion boxing team began their inter-squad bouts yesterday.

Coach Leo Houck was watching the bouts closely so that he can select a starting lineup from the 31 candidates. He is waiting until after tomorrow to release his choices to meet the Hurricanes.

There is a possibility that Leo Houck, Jr. may be the Miami 175-pound entry. The son of the Lion coach is a member of the Hurricanes and is listed as a possible starter.
