Muhlenberg Tilt Promises Tough Test for Lawthermen

Mules Mark Mid-Point Of Lions' Home Stand

Another Eastern basketball headliner moves into Rec Hall Saturday night as Coach John Lawther's cagers take on the Muhlenberg Mules.

The appearance of Muhlenberg marks the mid-point of the longest home stand the Lawthermen will enjoy until the final stages of the season.

LOTS OF TALENT

Just about every team on the Lion schedule for this year is crammed with returning court talent and Muhlenberg is no exception.

Around the three players returning from last year's outfit which placed fourth in Madison Square Garden invitation tourney play, Coach Lee Coaker has molded a quintet which again ranks with the best in Eastern basketball.

BROTHERS AT GUARD

Probably starting Saturday at guards for Muhlenberg will be the Donovan brothers—Harry and Ed—who contribute mightily to the prestige of Coaker's aggregation.

Harry Donovan, who ranks as the fifth highest scorer in the state at present with 97 points or a 13.9 average for eight games, will undoubtedly start at right guard. Harry was the leading pointmaker for the Mules last season with an eye-opening 3899 points.

Ed Donovan, who has been interchanged at the center post, will probably start at the other guard post against the Lions.

THE RECORD

Riddled by injuries for the first several weeks of the campaign, the Mules dropped two of their first four games but bounced back to put together a three-game winning streak up to last night's encounter with Lehigh.

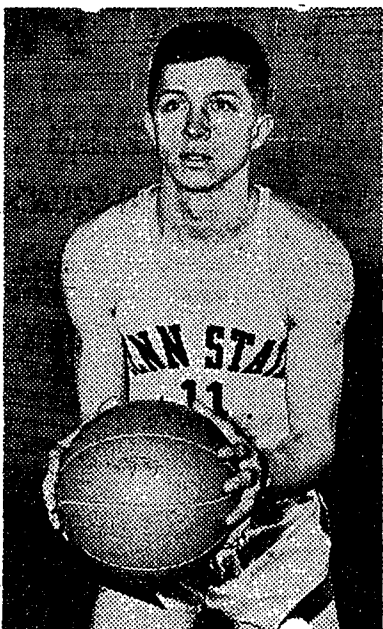

After trimming Moravian 67-47, Muhlenberg dropped a 34-33 decision to Temple. Newark U. fell 86-34 but Princeton upset the Coaker cart, 37-33. Then the boys from Allentown began to roll. They moved over Villanova 59-45, humbled previously undefeated Penn 57-50 and outscored LaSalle 59-44.

Following an early season injury, Captain Red Baldwin is back at one of the forward spots for the Mules. The lanky Baldwin scored 369 points during the 1944-45 season and put together 332 last year.

BALDWIN SPARKPLUG

It was Baldwin who led Muhlenberg to a 47-41 victory over Syracuse in the first round of Garden invitation play with 33 points last year. The Mules lost out to Rhode Island State 59-49 in the second round but Baldwin still managed to garner 19 tallies against the free-scoring Reds.

Rhode Island lost a close one, 46-45, to Kentucky in the finals and Muhlenberg had to be content with fourth place, losing out 65-40 to West Virginia in the consolation round.

MILT SIMON, Lion cager, who will be at one of the forward spots when the Blue and White hoopsters meet Muhlenberg in Rec Hall Saturday. Penn State has dropped their last four games to the Mules who are again flooring a strong team.

Beta Sig Tops Loop No. 4; Miami Mittmen Strong

Effross Sets Scoring Mark in Pi Lamb Win

Beta Sigma Rho, mustering all of its skill and will to win, outlasted a fighting Alpha Tau Omega five to defeat the ATOS 19-17, and garner the championship of fraternity basketball League No. 4.

Bob Miller, with seven counters, was the spearhead of the Beta Sig attack; he also contributed a sterling floor game in leading his mates to their fifth consecutive win.

DU SECOND

Delta Upsilon's "B" squad finished second to Beta Sigma Rho in this league with a 4 and 1 record. DU defeated Delta Sigma Phi 19-12 to complete its season, marred only by a 23-13 loss to the Beta Sigs.

Weiss and Koenig each tallied six points as the DUs downed twice victorious Delta Sigma Phi. The scheduled game between Delta Chi and Phi Kappa was cancelled due to the inability of each team to field a quintet.

League No. 5 ended in a two-way tie as both Alpha Chi Rho and Phi Sigma Delta racked up victories. Alpha Chi Rho submergered Alpha Zeta under an avalanche of points as it won 31-7. The Phi Sigs trounced Sigma Phi Sigma, 26-17.

CARLS TALLIES

Sixteen markers were recorded by Alpha Chi Rho's Mark Carls as he paced the offensive. Stan Siegel was again the big gun in the Phi Sig victory with ten tallies.

High individual scoring mark for the season was set by Pi Lambda Phi's Irv Effross as he netted 20 points in the Pi Lamb 26-20 victory over Tau Phi Delta. Effross was the whole team as his dead sight from each corner of the court and under the hoop proved disastrous to Tau Phi Delta.

Pi Kappa Alpha notched win No. 4 with a close 18-17 margin over Phi Sigma Kappa. In another contest in League No. 3, Phi Kappa Sigma swamped Theta Xi "A" by a 24-4 count.

TRIANGLE TRIUMPHS

Triangle took the measure of Zeta Beta Tau 14-11 to complete Tuesday night's schedule. No games were played last night due to the varsity tilt in Rec Hall.

Scheduled for tonight at 9 o'clock are Yahoos vs. Ramblers

Delta Chi Continues Victories; Maintains League Lead

Sweeping all three games from Sigma Phi Sigma, Delta Chi continued on top of the heap Tuesday night as the inter-fraternity bowling tournament moved into its final weeks.

Led by Art Christman, who shared scoring honors for the night with Theta Chi's Bob Wallace, the Delta Chi's added over 2000 points to Christman's 578 to top the league for the second consecutive time.

Out-scoring Tau Kappa Epsilon 4-0, Beta Theta Pi moved into the tourney's second slot behind Carl Kerchner's team high of 519.

In the other contests, Theta Chi scalped Alpha Sigma Rho, 4-0; Beta Sigma Rho dumped Alpha Gamma Rho, 3-1, while Alpha Chi Sigma and Theta Xi won forfeit victories.

Lions 62 - Tempe 46

A rejuvenated Penn State five scored a 62-46 upset victory over a highly-favored Temple squad at Rec Hall last night in a hotly-contested game marked by numerous fouls. Read complete summaries in tomorrow's Daily Collegian.

(Court 1), Nittany Co-op vs. Ralleks (2), Eagles vs. Dorm 5 (3).

At 10:20, Phi Delta Theta "B" vs. Phi Epsilon Pi (1), Sigma Chi vs. Phi Gamma Delta (2), Sigma Pi vs. Pi Kappa Phi (3).

Demos; EICB Runner-up, To Fight at 125-pounds

For its first trip to Rec Hall, the University of Miami will bring a strong boxing team to Rec Hall tomorrow night to open the 1947 Nittany Lion boxing schedule.

Probable ace of the Miami team is Jim Demos, 125-pounder, who was a pre-war letterman and, in 1943, reached the finals in the National Intercollegiate at Wisconsin.

Hurricane coach Billy Regan has named Billy Johnson of Duluth, Minn., as his 130-pound entrant. Johnson is a freshman who has had some boxing experience in the Army.

TWO AT 135 POUNDS

Two lads are still vying for the call at 135 pounds and both may make the trip here, one to meet the Lions and one to box against Catholic University Monday night in Washington. Max Cleveland was on the V-12 team at Miami while Scott Hogue boxed on Navy teams for four years.

Jim Duffy, an Army dischargee, has romped off with the honors at 145 pounds while Bill Eisnor, another V-12 vet, will start at 155 pounds.

Coach Regan has still to choose his man to oppose Lion captain Jackie Tighe at 165 pounds. Jim Larkin, a pre-war Miami boxer, and Tom Mettson, a Navy vet, are the leading contenders.

JUNIOR MAY START

It's still uncertain that Leo Houck, Jr. will start against his father's team at 175 pounds. Leo shares the chores at that weight with Phil Kaplan. Both men are members of the 1946 Miami football team with Houck being a sensational pass catching end and Kaplan a guard.
