Women in Sports

With just one more week of games scheduled in the women's basketball intramurals, Alpha Xi Delta, Thetas, and Nittany Co-op top their respective leagues. Each of the teams has whipped up an undefeated record.

Cody Manor, last year's champs and the only freshman dorm team ever to win the trophy title, has done little more than break even with three wins and two losses. Most of their last year's players now play for sororities.

Alpha Xi heads League 1, with high scorer Ann Baker racking up the points. Playing with Ann are Dorothy Johnson and Renee Mowles, forwards, and Rita Hanzlik, Grace O'Donnell and Nancy Kellam on defense.

ALPHA XI CHALLENGED
Alpha Xi faced its Waterloo—and came out on top 38-28 in a clash with Mac Hall Tuesday night when three phys-ed major guards, Lovetta Dinius, Marjorie Gamly and Louise Grossman, working together in a swift moving sliding-zone defense tried to fence in Ann Baker. Baker hooped 32 points through the opposition.

Sally Brooke and Betty Cooke are pacing the Theta scoring, leading League 2. Guarding mainstays are tall Ann Dunaway and Virginia Higgins. Co-op, with one more game scheduled, has League 3 in hand.

BOWLING
AchiO rolled out a 506 loss to Atherton and Town forfeited to ChiO Tuesday night. Phi Mu won over ZTA, 642-536, and Kappas topped Theta Phi 479-441 Wednesday. Scores represent a total of five games.

High scorers were Sally Hostetter with 160 for Ath and Georganna Holt, who rolled out 186 for Phi Mu.

OUTING CLUB
... will meet at Student Union at 2 o'clock Sunday for an ice skating party—with the weather man's OK.
