

Late AP News

Courtesy Radio Station WMAJ

BERLIN—The director of the American Military Government for Berlin, Colonel Frank Howley, has blamed the winter's great suffering in Berlin partly on the Russians.

Howley says the Russians have not delivered one hundred thousand tons of the coal they promised to furnish. The American officer told newsmen that the Russians have not delivered a single ton of coal for household heating.

PARIS—Over the protests of several of the signers, the minor partners of the Axis yesterday put their signatures to peace treaties with the Allies. The ink was scarcely dry in Paris when violence flared in Rome and in the former Italian naval base of Pola—now handed over to Yugoslavia. In the capital of Bulgaria, on the other hand, there were mass demonstrations, at which crowds cheered the Allies. Bulgaria was among the five treaty signers.

LOS ANGELES—A new murder victim—her body brutally battered—has been found in Los Angeles. Authorities fear the murderer may have been the same one who committed the so-called Black Dahlia killing.

Meanwhile, at Fort Dix, N. J., nine fellow GI's have come forward with testimony that they saw Corporal Joseph Dumais at the base on January 15th—the day the body of Elizabeth Short, the Black Dahlia, was found in Los Angeles.

WASHINGTON—In the nation's capitol, a federal grand jury indicted the former sergeant-at-arms of the House on a fraud charge. The first audit of funds in more than half a century revealed a shortage of more than $143,000. The Supreme Court upheld the Hatch Act, barring political activity by federal employees. And the State Department says, if you want to vacation in Europe this year it will be okay—provided you have a return-trip guaranteed and a place to stay.

DAYTON, Ohio—The Army has set an unofficial altitude record for helicopters. At Dayton, the Army's number-one helicopter test pilot, Major Ernest Cassell, reached a height of nearly 19,000 feet.

Board of Trustees Ponders Business School Petition

The College Board of Trustees at its annual meeting in Harrisburg between semesters received a petition urging the creation of a separate school of business. The Board also requested the College to study the advantages of a fixed salary schedule and acted upon new appointments, resignations, and sabbatical leaves of absence.

George H. Deike, Pittsburgh manufacturer, was named vice-president of the board, and E. C. Weichel, of Scranton, was named to the executive committee in place of J. H. M. Andrews who resigned at the last meeting.

Petitioners for the establishment of business school were J. K. Lasser, prominent authority on income tax; Dr. A. M. Paxson, administrative director of the Economic and Business Foundation; and R. C. Kramer, formerly General MacArthur's chief economist in Japan.

To Study Salaries
Officers of the College were requested to study the relative advantages of a fixed salary schedule and the present salary arrangement for faculty members and report at the next meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees on March 28.

The local chapter of the American Association of University Professors requested that the Board approve the principle of a salary schedule to apply to all faculty members, and that a joint trustee-faculty committee be appointed immediately to set up a proper salary schedule to be put into effect July 1, 1948.

The Trustees decided to postpone the appointment of a trustee-

Book Exchange Open This Week

Book Exchange, sponsored by All-College Cabinet, will be open for selling books in 401 Old Main from 9 to 12 and from 1:30 to 4:30 up to and including Friday. Students who have turned in books can pick up their money tomorrow, if their books have been sold.

Jane Weigle is in charge of the book exchange. Gloria Ness is secretary and Ann Lantz publicity chairman. Other members of the committee are Ruth Hemler, Joanne Hobbs, John Pfahl, and Elwood G. Stetler.

The Book Exchange is a non-profit organization which enables students to sell their books for more and buy them for less than downtown bookstores charge.

Collegian Makes Personnel Change

Recent changes in the senior board of the Daily Collegian staff include Suzanne McCauley, photo editor, Marilyn Jacobson, woman's editor and Betsy Marshall, assistant woman's editor.

Members of the junior board are David Adelman, Jean Alderfer, Howard Back, Kay Badollet, Eleanor Fehnel, Ben French, Roberta Hutchison, Helen Lewis, Marjorie Mousley, Allan Oster, Joan Peters, Ted Rubin, Richard Sange, Arthur Stöber, and Jerome Trumper.

Sophomore board members include Terry Hague, Adele Holtz, Frances Keeney, William Keller, Anne Kovalenko, Claire Lee, Benjamin Levy, James Neiman, Helen Reed, Jane Shoemaker, Lewis Stone, Gloria Parks, Mary Fletcher, Selma Zasofsky.

Other members of the senior board are Michael A. Blatz, editor, Lynette Lundquist, managing editor, Lawrence Foster, news editor, Stephen Sinichak and Arthur Miller, co-sports editors, Frank Davis, feature editor, Seymour Rosenberg, wire editor and Lucy Seifing.

faculty committee until the Executive Committee has had an opportunity to give further consideration to the advantages of changing the present salary arrangement.

Four New Appointments
Four new appointments, approved by the Board, included: Dr. Hazel M. Hatcher, professor of home economics education; Dr. Clare A. Becker, associate professor of economic entomology; and Robert L. Stanley, associate professor of engineering research. All are effective on February 1, except the appointment of Dr. Becker which is effective April 1.

The Board also approved the resignation of A. A. Janszen, associate professor of engineering research in the Ordnance Research Laboratory, effective January 31; and announced the resignation of Dr. R. W. Kerns, associate professor of rural sociology extension, effective last December 31.

Six Professors Leave
Six sabbatical leaves of absence also were approved. They are: Dr. H. H. Arnold, professor of Spanish, from September 1 to January 31, 1948; Dr. George E. Simpson, professor and head of the division of sociology, from September 1 to January 31, 1948; Dr. William F. Hall, professor of agricultural education, from July 1 to December 31; L. R. Bennett, agricultural extension representative, from March 21 to September 20; N. M. Rahn, agricultural extension representative, from June 1 to November 30; and Dr. John S. Bowman, professor of English composition, from February 1 to June 30.

New AA Books

Matriculation cards will be used for all athletic events until new A A books are issued. The new books will be available when fees are paid on Feb. 28, according to Harold R. Gilbert, assistant graduate manager of athletics.

Previously, A A books were issued at the time of registration, but because of the new federal tax which has been placed on them, fees will have to be paid before they can be given out.

Come Wiz Me To WRADance

"There's still time to ask your valentine to the WRA Sweetheart Dance," Lee Ann Wagner, general chairman of the traditional "girl-ask-boy" semi-formal, said today. "Make it a big night and take him to the Penn State-Army gymnastic meet before the dance," she suggested.

The WRA Sweetheart Dance will be held from 9 to 12 o'clock following the gymnastic meet in Recreation Hall from 8 to 9 o'clock. Coeds and their "valentines" will dance to the music of the Campus Owls.

Tickets for the dance at $1.20 a couple, tax included, went on sale this morning at Student Union and can be bought there till Saturday noon. Tickets will also be on sale at the door, Miss Wagner said.

La Vie Sets Pix Deadline

Final appointments for La Vie pictures have been given to graduating seniors and seventh semester students who will graduate in June.

Any graduating student who has not received an appointment should report immediately to the Penn State Photo Shop. The last day for taking pictures will be February 17, according to Stephen Sinichak, photo editor.

Any senior who has missed his appointment should make another at the Photo Shop immediately. Seniors who do not wish their pictures in La Vie or who have negatives that can be used should also contact the Photo Shop as soon as possible.

Important meeting for all La Vie members, at 405 Old Main, 7 p.m. today.

Proofs should be returned by students after selection of the one to go to La Vie. Delay may cause the photo to be left out of the yearbook.

Groups who have not yet taken their pictures should schedule appointments. In addition, Van Tries dorm, Foster Lodge, Cody Manor, Mattil's dorm, Nittany Co-op, Nittany Annex, Locust Lane Lodge, Frazier Hall, Burnells, Davey House, Wiley dorm, Tomlinsons, Pershing Rifles, and all men's town dorms are urged to make appointments.

Groups whose pictures have been taken are urged to report to the Photo Shop to select the photo to appear in La Vie. Identification of the individuals within the picture should be made before the photo is returned.

Seventh semester students graduating in June who have not filled out an activities card should do so at the La Vie office, 412 Old Main.

Alpha Sigma Phi

Samuel Rydle was elected president of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity for this semester at a recent meeting. Also elected are John Hopkins, vice president; Donald Lohman, treasurer; Manning Taiye, secretary; and Alexander Petrowski, IFC representative.

College Gets Building Material For Classrooms, Laboratory

Materials for use in the construction of a temporary classroom building and a temporary laboratory and shop building were received at the College yesterday, George W. Ebert, superintendent of Grounds and Buildings, said today.

Concrete footings already have been poured for the classroom building, which will be constructed north of White Hall. It is planned to prepare the footings for the other building this week. It will be

Junior Prom Booths

Fraternities and other organizations who want booths for the Junior Prom must pay the $5 fee at Student Union by Wednesday, Jack Shrum, chairman of the Junior Prom Committee, said today.

Players' Show Features Ex-GI's

Six ex-GI's will make a dramatic reappearance on campus in the cast of Player's comedy "Imaginary Invalid." Tickets are now on sale at Student Union for Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

To help meet the demand for tickets the show will be run three nights instead of the usual two.

Harold Chidnoff, a veteran infantryman, counts this his eighth Player's part. He should have no trouble creating a French atmosphere as the imaginary invalid, Monsier Ardin, since he spent part of his army career in France.

The WAC contributes talent in ex-GI Barbara Davis, who plays Beline, Ardin's shrewish wife. She is also a veteran of 1940-1941 Players shows.

Robert Stabley finds more time for Players now that he has no Navy restrictions. He plays Bonnefoi. Also an ex-Navy-man is Frank Palmer in the role of Fleurante.

Former V-12ers, Irving Feldsott and Jack Trumbauer, will make their Player's debut as Purjon and Beralde, respectively. Another newcomer on the Players stage is Martha Koons as Louise, the little sister.

Ardin's daughter, Angelique, about whom the plot is centered, is Claire Cohen in her fourth Players role. She acts again with Thespian and Players star Portman Paget, Defois, who played opposite her in two high school shows. Joseph Vispi returns to play Cleante, her lover, and makes this his last of seven Player's shows. He was graduated last semester.

As Defois son, Angelique's unwanted suitor, Henry Glass falls all over the stage in a portrayal of a recent but stupid University graduate, while Lois Hartswick, last seen in "Macbeth," plays the leading female role of Toinette, the witty maid.

All Part-Time Workers Must File Applications

Students who did part-time work last semester and plan to continue working this semester must file new applications in the Personnel Relations Office at 423 Old Main, Miss Mary Frances Gregory of the College Placement Service said yesterday.

New schedules in curriculum this semester for formerly employed students will necessitate changes in work hours. For this reason, all old applications are thrown out at the beginning of each semester.

Snow shoveling, baby sitting, waiting on tables, dish washing, washing and ironing clothes, typing and stenography are only a few of the jobs open to applicants.

4-H Club Elects

Warren Frey was elected president of the 4-H Club at a recent meeting. Others officers elected are Jeanne Haxton, vice-president; Peggy Hoy, secretary; Peter Norton, treasurer; and Mary Metzger, pianist.

constructed along the Township Road, north of the garages on the NYA site, on College Farm 13.

Workmen also have built a temporary road from Shortlidge Road into the area where the classroom building will be constructed. The site of the road will eventually be the location of a macadam walk that will extend east and west, south of Grange Memorial Dormitory.

The over-all dimensions of the classroom structure will be 320 ft. in length and 120 ft. in width. The building will parallel White Hall and will be 40 ft. north of the present sidewalk in front of White Hall.

Each of the two wings of the new structure will consist of an H-shaped building of one story. Each will contain 14 classrooms. The connecting unit is a two-story structure. The first floor will contain 12 faculty offices while on the second floor there will be two drawing rooms. The building has a capacity of 1100 students per hour, about the equivalent of the classroom capacity of Sparks Building.

The laboratory and shop building is of one story and extends 150 ft. north and south along Township Road, and is 50 ft. in width.

Both buildings are of frame construction and the exteriors will be weatherboarded. The classroom building will be heated by the Central Power Plant. The units are being moved here from Fort Washington, Md., and were obtained by the College under the provisions of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act.

News Briefs

Comparative Religion

Dr. Seth Russell, professor of sociology and Assistant Dean of the School of Liberal Arts, will be the guest speaker in the comparative religion lectures at the Hillel Foundation, 133 West Beaver avenue, at 7:30 o'clock. Maur Levan, Hillel Foundation Chairman, will introduce Dr. Russell, who will speak on the subject "Religion and Social Progress." The meeting is open to all.

Alpha Chi Sigma

Robert Shock was elected president of Alpha Chi Sigma at a recent meeting. Other officers are William Wills, vice president; Jack Harrison, secretary; Donald Harris, treasurer; Jack Kildea, pledge master; Garth Seavy, reporter; Penrose Wolf, alumni secretary; and Robert Engle, IFC representative.

IFC Meeting

Interfraternity Council will meet in 405 Old Main at 7:45 o'clock. Representatives are urged to bring money for IFC keys and remittances for banquet tickets.

Navy Commissions Two Graduates as Ensigns

Ensign bars were presented to Hershel L. Adams and William R. McMaster following their graduation from the College last semester. They will then report for active duty with the regular navy.

Another NROTC graduating senior, Andrew D. DeLorenzo, received an Ensign's commission in the naval reserve, and will remain on inactive duty.

In two personnel transfers the College unit gained a sonarman and lost a signalman. Daniel V. Keeney, SoM 1/c, reported recently, after more than four years of sea duty aboard small craft. Joseph Anthony, CSMA, leaves Saturday for the Atlantic fleet service force.