

Gymnasts Win Second, Down Navy 58-38; Temple Owls Stop Nittany Cagers, 38-37

Neiger Lost After Fall From Rings

Penn State's gymnasts won their second straight meet when they downed Navy 58-38 in a competition that saw Warren Neiger, who placed in three events, injure his elbow to force him out of action for the rest of the season.

Lion fans will have a chance to see the Wettstonemen perform for the first time this season when the Nittany gymnasts compete against the Cadets from West Point in Rec Hall, 6 p.m. Saturday. This will be the only home sports event for the coming weekend.

High scorer for the Navy-Penn State event was diminutive Billy Bonsall, who won the flying ring event and placed second in the side horse and horizontal bar competition. Bonsall also won the ring event against Minnesota.

Captain Ray Sorenson, who took first place in the horizontal bar, parallel bars and side horse events against Minnesota, again won the horizontal bar competition and placed third in the flying rings and side horse matches.

Navy's Hoffman tied the world's record of 3.8 in the rope climb to win the event, while Lion Joe Rossi claimed second place with a four second hoist. Neiger, before his fall from the rings, won the parallel bar event and took third place on the horizontal bar. Chunky Billy Mead, tumbled to a first place win, with teammate Timmy Petroff claiming runner-up spot.

The summaries:
RINGS: Bonsall (PS), Bacon (N), Sorenson (PS), Metcalf (N),

Syracuse Pins Grapplers 13-9

Penn State's matmen dropped their second meet in four starts to Syracuse, Saturday, 11-9.

Beat American 46-38 For Weekend Split

It was the final minutes of play that spelled defeat again for the Penn State basketball team as Temple edged out the Nittany Lions 38-37 Saturday in Convention Hall to snap a six-game win streak.

The defeat at the hands of the Owls marked the fourth time in five losses that the home forces have fallen short in the final heart-breaking seconds of play.

For Temple, it was sweet revenge for the 62-46 defeat at the hands of the Lions at State College last month. As the Lawthermen led 37-34 for the first time in the contest with three minutes remaining, Ralph Martello, Owl forward, counted on a lay-up for two points. Then Johnny Ballots sank a set shot to give Temple its one-point margin with a minute left. A shot by Rusinko failed and Temple stalled off further Lion advances in the frantic seconds of play.

For the Lions, the Temple game marked not only the end of the longest winning streak of the season but also the end of a two-game road trip that saw them out-score American University at Washington Friday night 46-38. Johnny Rusinko was high scorer in both games with 13 points against American and 11 against Temple.

In a game played at Rec Hall Saturday, Feb. 1, and not previously reported, Penn State gained revenge for a set-back in Pittsburgh by winning from Coach Doc Carlson's Pitt Panthers 46-39. Season's record for the Lawthermen now shows eight victories as against five defeats, with the next game scheduled against Carnegie Tech on the Rec Hall court for tomorrow night.

Michigan State Relays —

Shuman Sets Record

Hampered by running their first race of the season on a clay track after practicing on the boards, Chick Werner's trackmen managed to set a new meet and field house record and capture two seconds, as well as fourth, fifth, and seventh places, at the Michigan State Relays in East Lansing last weekend.

The record, made by Bill Shuman in the 1000-yard event, was 2:19.1. Team-mate Mitch Williams captured the second place berth in

Syracuse Beats Swimmers, 50-25

Nittany Lion swimmers lost their second meet in a row when Syracuse took six first places to win 50 to 25 at Buffalo, Saturday.

Losing to Cornell the previous week because of a depleted squad due to final examinations, Lenny Diehl's team went to meet the Orange minus the services of ace back stroker Leigh Woehling who graduated last week.

Although the Nittany natators had only one day's practice because of the mid-semester vacation, they took three first places.

Penn State dominated the diving competition with Rocky Young and Mike Kutsenkow taking first and second places. Captain Clyde Bell won the 200-yard breast stroke in 2:48, and Bill Christy won the 50-yard freestyle in 25.9.

was the fastest ever turned in for the distance on Michigan State's clay oval in the 25 years the meet has been held.

In the two-mile race, Lion Curt Stone was topped by National Collegiate Champion Thompson of Texas in 9:21. Stone had beat out Thompson in National Collegiate Cross-Country competition last fall. Third place went to Twoney of Illinois, Big Ten champ.

A new meet record was set in the one-mile race by Mack of Drake in 4:20, with Brelsford, National Collegiate Cross-Country champion, placing second. Thompson of Texas, two-mile winner, was third. Penn State's Gerry Karver capped fourth-place honors, turning in a time just two seconds behind the winner, with sophomore Horace Ashenfelter, running the best mile of his short collegiate career, taking fifth, just one second behind the fourth-place winner. Curt Stone, running his second race for the weekend, was seventh in 4:26.
