

Biery Scores 21 As Lions Beat Carnegie Tech 52-32

The Nittany Lions had little trouble conquering the Carnegie Tech basketball team in Rec Hall Wednesday night, 52-32.

It was Jack Biery who led the way as the Lions built up a 13-7 advantage in the opening minutes of play. He scored three consecutive field goals for this initial push, then went on to tally five more field goals plus five foul shots for 21 points—a total that fell just short of a modern Rec Hall record of 22 points set by Biery against St. Joseph's in 1942.

Carnegie Tech, despite some smart ball handling by Claugherly, rarely showed a scoring punch and trailed 24-14 at half-time. Only the Lions' own erratic shooting kept the score within bounds.

As the Nittany Lions were whittling Carnegie Tech down to size, Navy scored one of the major upsets of the season by knocking West Virginia from the

With Penn State's next two games scheduled with Navy and West Virginia, Coach Lawther finds himself faced with two teams that have lost only one game apiece against good opposition.

Greene Returns

Gymnasts Play Host To Cadets

Stephen Greene, three-time NAAU rope climbing titlist, returned to the College for the Spring semester and will compete when the Lion gymnasts play host to Army for the first time in Rec Hall, 8 p.m. tomorrow.

SEEK THIRD

The Lion gymnasts have been able to defeat the West Pointers only twice, and in 1942 squeezed through a tie despite the favored and powerful squad they presented against the Cadets.

Captains William Cronin and Ray Sorensen may display the most contested competition when they vie in the horizontal bar event.

Cronin is undefeated in intercollegiate competition on the high bar, while Sorensen has also taken first place in the same event against the Gophers and the Mid-dies.

GREENE ON ROPES

With Greene back in the fold, the Lions will present a formidable trio in the rope event.

Joe Rossi, who climbed an unofficial 3.6 in the Minnesota meet, and Stan Wirtschafter will complete the Lion entries for the rope climbing match. Coach Wettstone considers Rossi one of the best prospects he has ever seen in college rope climbing competition.

Billy Bonsall, 1946 NAAU flying rings champion, is favored although Army is well fortified in this event. Sorensen will team up with Bonsall as the only two lions to compete on the flying rings.

with Meade, Sorensen and Emery or Berliner competing on the parallel bars.

TUMBLERS

Billy Meade, Petroff and Bonsall will enter the tumbling matches.

Each team will be permitted to enter three men in each event. Five places will be selected by the three-man officiating committee, with scores of 6-4-3-2-1 given in order of performance. Possible team score is 96 points for the event meet.

Matmen To Travel To Cornell

There will be a lot of new faces in the starting line-up when the Nittany grapplers take to the mats for their Saturday meet with Cornell at Ithaca, N. Y.

With five of his regular starters either injured or unable to make the trip, Coach Charley Speidel is still not certain who will start for the Lions this week. He has been holding inter-class competitions the last few days in an attempt to mold a strong team.

George Schautz, 121-pounder, will probably start at that weight. In the 128-pound class, Lux and Gray are competing for the berth. Harrington, Noker and Mohney are having a three-way battle for the 136-pound nomination.

Ernie Closser, undefeated this season, will probably start at 145 pounds. Grant Dixon, eastern intercollegiate 155-pound champ, is on the injured list and in his place Wynn and Widdowson are competing.

Don McKeeby, a regular all season, will get the call in the 165-pound weight, while Chambers and Speth are competing for the 175-pound berth. In the unlimited class Coach Speidel is undecided whether Clark or Lang will start.

The College Golf Course can accommodate between 250 and 300 players per day during the open season.

Pucksters Lose, 12-3

The Blue and White hockey team lost its second game of the season, 12-3, when they met a far superior Army six Wednesday.

The O'Horamen did mull considering the handicap of little practice they have undergone all season. The Cadets tried 57 shots at the Lion goal while the Lions made three of their ten tries.

The hockey team will meet Georgetown in the ring behind the East stands Saturday, weather permitting.

Swimmers, Owls Meet at Glennland

Coach Lenny Diehl's varsity swim team will stage its first home meet of the season when it encounters an undefeated Temple University tank squad in the Glennland Pool, 2 p.m. tomorrow.

Winner of its first three engagements against Lehigh, Franklin and Marshall, and West Chester, Temple will face a determined Lion aggregation, still smarting from recent defeats by Cornell and Syracuse.

Chairs to seat 150 spectators will be placed on the main floor of the pool. In addition, starding

Lion Fencers To Meet Temple in Home Match

Coach Meyer's Nittany fencers will tip blades with the Temple bladesmen in Rec Hall, 2 p.m. tomorrow.

In two meets this season the Lion fencers have outpointed their opponents in 13 epee bouts, tied one, and lost four, in defeating Lehigh and dropping a close match to Army.

Coach Meyer and instructor Harder will use only two men, Dave Ozaro and Larry Tessier, to double in bouts.

Nittany fencers in the foil bouts will be Ozarow, Bob Thompson, and Rolf Wald. Ozarow, Tessier, and Captain Bob Swope will compete against the Owls in the epee bouts.

Completing the Lion line up will be Tessier, Jim Framo, and John MacCreary with the heavy saber.

room will be available in the balcony.

Freestyler Bill Christy and Owl ace Bill Ackerman will head the competitors in the 50-yd. and 100-yd. sprints. Another feature of the meet will be the distance freestyle competition with Lion Don Knoll and Schmidt of Temple pre-match favorites.
