Gamma Phi Beta

Virginia McCluskey was recently elected president of Gamma Phi Beta. Other new officers are: Suzanne Romig, vice-president; Lee Ann Wagner, recording secretary; Dorothy Limber, corresponding secretary; Mary Jane Stewart, treasurer; Arlene Mack, rushing chairman; Phyllis James, publicity chairman.

Recent Gamma Phi Beta initiatives include Phyllis James, Shir-Juanne Bush, Martha Ann Koons, and Marian Memory.

Theta Phi, Kappa Deltas

Doing a little hot-dogging on the side, the Alpha Phi Delta's recently entertained the Theta Phi Alpha's at a doggie roast and dance. Turning to the more intellectual side, the Kappa Deltas have invited the Alpha Xi Delta's to a travelogue in the southwest lounge of Atherton, at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening.

Cadets Coons and Gilliam fought it out for the other four places.

Army's ring men had considerable trouble from swaying—due to lack of polish—during their performances. However, Jamison took second place, Sorensen third, and Whitson and Saville claimed the last two spots for the West Pointers.

Robb and Whistler finished behind the Lion trio in the tumbling competition.

PERFORMANCES BREAK

The Cadets' performances, usually above average against Penn State, were marked by numerous breaks which showed considerably in the one-sided score.

Temple, considered to have one of the toughest squads in the East, defeated Army 50-46 several weeks ago. The Lions meet the Owls in Rec Hall March 1 after journeying to Syracuse next Saturday to meet the Orange.

Miss Taras Receives Sophomore Cwen Award

Genevieve Taras, sophomore in Liberal Arts, is the recipient of the Cwens' scholarship for the fall semester.

The $50 scholarship is awarded on the basis of activities and academic standing. Miss Taras has a 2.5 all-college average, is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, College Symphony and the Louise Homer Club.
