

Tighe, Hawthorne Rate Chance As - - Stars Perform In EIBA Tourney

135 pounds; and Ralph Shoaf, 175 pounds. Shoaf will have the toughest road to travel since he'll encounter Carlo Ortenzi, Western Maryland's 1942 champion, in the light heavyweight class.

Virginia's trio and Ortenzi are the only unbeaten entries in a field which boasts seven former champions, all in different weight classes. Until Vinnie Byrne was forced out, there was a former champion in every division.

Only 1946 champions in the field, Clarence Tannel, of the United States Coast Guard Academy, and Harry Ball, of the United States Military Academy, will compete at 145 and 165 pounds, respectively. Other titlists in the field are Jerry Auclair, of Syracuse, one-beaten went to war in 1943.

Captain Jack Tighe and Hawthorne are the only Lions given a good chance of winning individual titles. Hawthorne, winner of five while losing only two one-point decisions, tied Tighe in scoring with five points.

Tighe accounted for his points by winning four and drawing two while losing only to Wisconsin. Tighe's most impressive victory was over Army's Harry Ball.

Johnny Slusser ranked third in individual scoring for the Houck-coached boxers. The 155-pounder won two bouts while gaining one draw in six meets.

Either Red Cramer or Fred Smith will enter the tournament at 125 pounds. Cramer has won two bouts including a technical knockout while Smith lost a decision to the powerful Wisconsin team.

The teams will arrive in State College today and will draw for position tomorrow morning. Sixteen bouts will be held tomorrow night in the preliminary round. Two boxers in each class will draw byes.

Cage Season Ends At Colgate

Jim Lawther and Bruce Dietterick will be playing their last game for the Nittany Lions, when Penn State cagers close out the season against Colgate on the Hamilton court Saturday.

In two games with the Red Raiders last year, the Lawthermen split even. Colgate won the first at Hamilton, 67-51, while the Lions took the second at Rec Hall 46-44.

An earlier contest this season with the Red Raiders was cancelled in January as final examinations conflicted. At the same time, Saturday's game was switched to Hamilton.

VANDEWEGHE HOT

Led by sophomore sensation Ernie Vandeweghe at guard, the New Yorkers will be another hard team to beat. Boasting a record of 10 victories and five defeats, Colgate has come fast to win four straight games following a mid-season slump.

Latest victory was a notable one over a strong Syracuse team that was considered for an Invitation Tourney bid earlier in the year. The score was 50-44.

Last week against Clarkson, Vandeweghe set a new Colgate scoring mark with 33 points as the raiders came out on top 89-53.

Another Colgate stand-out is Captain Jack Sullivan, a forward whose height has been used to advantage under the backboards all season.

TOUGH TEAMS

The game with Colgate brings to a close a season in which Penn State's quintet has faced the best opposition the East had to offer. And it was the East that turned out the better crop of teams—witness the selections for the post-season tourneys.

Individual ability and initiative, welded together by a zealous team spirit, is the key to success in soccer, according to Bill Jeffrey, veteran Lion coach who has produced unbeaten teams in 12 of 21 years at the Nittany Lion helm. He says every man on the squad is a "quarterback."

Ken Loeffler, coach of the St. Louis Bombers in the professional Basketball Association of America, is a former Penn State luminary.

Puckmen Bow to Hoyas as Ice Season Ends

The Nittany Lion hockey squad closed its season by losing an 11-4 game to the Georgetown Hoyas before a sparse gathering of 400 spectators at Uline Arena in Washington Monday night.

The Lions scored 3 goals in the first period with Bernbaum tallying 2 and Nielson 1. Egan, unassisted, made the only other State goal in the last period. The starters in the Georgetown game were Fast at goalie, Kauffman and Bernbaum on the wings, Egan at center and Black and Goodwin on the defense.

As seen throughout the season, the Blue and White failed to make a better showing due to the constant cold shoulder turned upon them by the weatherman. The O'Hara skaters went through no more than six practice sessions during the year.

Phi Sigs, Tekes Win In Volleyball League; Handball Continues

Phi Sigma Delta "A" and Tau Kappa Epsilon "B" notched decisive victories Tuesday as intramural volleyball competition entered its second round of play. Phi Sig drubbed Alpha Chi Rho, 15-3 and 15-5, and the Tekes edged Alpha Gamma Rho "A," 15-5 and 15-7.

Rifle Teams Win Four

Penn State's varsity rifle team won a three-team, postal meet from Colorado School of Mines and University of Wyoming, and a dual meet from Cornell over the weekend.

At the same time, the ROTC rifle team took first place in a triangular postal meet with the Colorado School of Mines, and South Dakota State, but claimed third place in another triangular contest with Texas A&M and Wyoming.

Captain Ken Yount took first place for the varsity with a 384 score as the Lion marksmen fired an 1877 tally in topping Colorado and Wyoming.

NROTC RIFLE

Winning over Kansas and Rochester, and losing to Marquette, the NROTC rifle team composed of Ambelang, Calhoun, Gibson, Keagy and Rust ran their win-lose total to 12 and 4 last week.

The NROTC pistol squad made up of Calhoun, Gibson, Keagy, Steed and Williges defeated Ohio State and Rochester to run their record to seven and four for the season.
