

Scabbard-Blade

First group of the reactivated society the following officers were elected: Irwin Sagenkahn, Capt. (commanding officer); Phillip R. Jones, 1st Lt., executive officer; Harry F. Mumauj, 2nd Lt., treasurer; William T. Dible, 1st Sgt. (secretary); Harry J. Ashbaugh (senior member). Other members are Paul G. Andrews, Richard A. Pennell, George W. Cleveland, Owen J. Giblin, David M. Hoke, Earl R. Jones, and Mark N. Ketter.

The major items for selection were an outstanding all-college average, a high grade in the Army General Classification Test, prominent standing in their ROTC classes, and upon recommendation of military instructors.

On 18th, at chapel services, men were seated on one side, women on the other. After the service, the 200 men students would rush to the ladies' exit, there to make deals with coeds for coming literary society meetings.
