

Book Sketches

Students submitting biograph-

News" should include more ical sketches for "Who's Who in detailed information about their

A few of the returns to date do not contain sufficient information and will necessitate a delay in compiling the sketch that will appear in the initial issue of Penn

The book will become an an-by being included in the National of Men of colleges and univer-sities, the idea for a local Who's

Who was advanced as a means of giving more students much needed recognition for their ef-

It was felt that each school should endeavor to put out a local

Who's Who to fulfill the need to

Sigma Delta Chi, National Journalism Fraternity, and Theta Sigma Phi, National Women's Journalism Honorary, are sponsoring publication of the Penn State book

State book. Selections Committee met several weeks ago to choose the 250

students to appear in Who's Who

AVC Party Draws

Crowd to Skytop

ning's entertainment card.

AVC warmed house at Skytop.

last Saturday night, with the help of three bus-loads and over thirty cars full of celebrants.

Henry Glass, Master of Ceremonies, the Bar 3 Boys, and William Walker comprised the eve-

The Bar 3 Boys, winners of irst prize at the Penn State Talent Show, rendered the two song, that brought them the honors, "The State College Blues" and "Down in the Culban Sugar Fields:"

William Walker, the talent show's runner-up, sang "For Sentimental Reasons," "Blues in the Night," and "That's the Beginning of the End."

X-GI Club Cancels Dance;

Executive Group Meets

Cancellation of the X-GI Club's dance at Woodman Hall last Saturday night was due to "unavoid.

able circumstances," said Morton

J. Grossman, co-publicity chairman. Windcrest residents were to

A meeting at 8 p.m. tonight in 121 Sparks will be of "utmost importance," he said.

Grossman also announced a meeting of the Executive Committee at 7 p.m. in the same room

Parents of children enrolled in the Nursery School will meet in the Nursery School at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow night, according to Dr. Winona L. Morgan, associate professor of home economics. "Prob-

1111, 194

the regular business be honored.

before meeting.

Nursery School

recognize student leaders.

in the News.'

At the last meeting of the Deans

Collegiate Who's Who.

State's Who's Who.

TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 25, 1947—STATE COLLEGE, PENNA.

Coeds Chose Romig, Wagner Red Cross Opens In WSGA WRA Elections

Lee Ann Wagner was elected president of WRA and Suzanne Romig became WSGA president as a total of 577 coeds voted in the WSGA and WRA final elections on Friday.

Claire Lee was elected vice-president of WRA, while Janet Lyons will fill the office of vice-president of, WSGA. Nancy Romig is now intramural chairman for WRA.

The Executive Board of WRA will appoint a publicity chairman, will appoint a publicity chairman, and a club activities chairman this Need More Detail

Terry Klosterman defeated Pat -Kinkead by one vote for the office of WSGA treasurer.

Virginia McCluskey was elected activities, according to Stephen snior senator, and Barbara Keef-Sinichak, editor. senior senator, and Barbara Keefer took the office of junior sena-

Sarah Ann Bieber won the office of independent senator, and Helen Dickerson defeated Cynthia Doan by three votes for the office of town senator.

Vicky Gillespie, runner-up for president, will fill the office of secretary.

Marjorie Gorham, runner-up for vice-president, will serve as a jun-icr senator. Eleven girls out of the 577 who voted failed to vote for WSGA (Continued on page four)

'Belle' Contest Deadline Set

Deadline for submitting entries for the Belle Section of La Vie is at 5 o'clock temorrow, according to Seymour Rosenberg, editor.

The contest is open to senior women students and all women's organizations may submit entries, said Rosenberg.

A 5x7 of larger photograph of each entrant must be submitted to Student Union by tomorrow night. Members of the La Vie staff will choose six women from the group of contestants to appear in the Belles Section.

Girls chosen will have special photographs taken in evening gowns by the Penn State Photo

Shop at a later date, Winners will be announced in The Daily Collegian and appointments for pictures will be mailed to the women selected.

Late AP News

Courtesy Radio Station WMAJ

partment has officially published the text of the Big Three agreement at Tehran. It is now known to the blue Key ment at Tehran. It is now known officially that in 1943 Roosevelt, unsuc cessfully, to bring Turkey into the war against Germany.

This disclosure is in conflict with the testimony yesterday of Acting Secretary of State Dean Acheson before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that Turkey and the committee that Turkey is a senate of the s son told the committee that Turkey's war-time neutrality proved a service to the Allied cause.

Bullitt vs. Communist

WASHINGTON — Testifying at the House Un-American Activities Committee, the former Ambassador to Russia, William Bullitt, said he considers the Communist Party to be composed of potential traitors. Those were Bullitt's own words as he charged that the Communits Party here is a Soviet agency.

Bullitt declared that the party is designed to weaken the United States for what he described as "the ultimate assault the Soviet Government intends to make on the United States."

Bullitt also expressed the opinion that if Russia had the atomic bomb it would "already have been dropped on the United States."

Bevin, Stalin Meet

MOSCOW—British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin met with Russian Prime Minister Josef Stalin for one hour and 15 minutes yesterday. Informed sources say that and extension of the Russian-British alliance against German School Children will be disoussed. aggression.

Annual Campaign;

Coeds Aid Drive

Yesterday marked the opening of the annual Red Cross drive for funds from Penn State students. Samuel E. Neely and Carol Dieckmann have been named co-chairmen of the campaign, which will continue through Saturday.

Assisting in the drive, in which it is hoped personal canvassing will reach each student, are Russell T. Teall, Barbara McCleary and 18 coed solicitors.

The town and campus have been divided into eight zones for purposes of the drive. In addition to complete coverage of all campus downs, fraternity and independent houses and Pollock Circle, a booth has been placed in the Corner

The Daily Collegian will publish group contributions.

nual publication which will serve to give recognition to those students who appear in campus Previously, about 15 students received credit for campus work by heing included in the North Nor

As part of the program to honor the 75th year for women at the College, an exhibit has been placed in the display cases in the General Library. The material was obtained from the Penn State Room and will be on display until Monday.

Among the many interesting and rare old items are pictures of the early deans of women and coeds of the gay nineties. Also of interest are pictures of Women's Building as it looked when it was known as the "Ladies' Cottage.

From an article on display in the February 1889, Free Lance, predecessor to Collegian, is this excempt showing the stand taken by the paper on admitting women to the College. "We cannot disregard the continual cries from physicians on the subject. Too many women have already made themselves permanent invalids by overstrain of study at schools and colleges. Talk of the sweet girl graduate, you will find that most of them who go through a college course, graduate with weak constitutions.

Despite this early feeling there are exhibited an ample number of LaVies, open to the pages which show the contribution womne have made to their college over these past 75 years.

Blue Key members are requested to stop in Miss Bottorph's office immediately to pick up their

WEATHER

Cloudy and colder. Scattered showers and snow flurries.

The Baily College Makes Plans VOL 45—No. 26 TUESDAY MORNING. MARCH 25. 1947—STATE COLLEGE, PENNA. College Makes Plans For 2 New Dormitories; Work to Start at Once Construction work will begin immediately on the first of two student dormitories, Samuel K. Hostetter, assistant to the president of the College, in charge of business and finance, said yesterday.

The signing of the contract for the two new buildings was announced yesterday by Dr. Ralph Dorn Hetzel, president of the Col lege. The agreement was made with Henry E. Baton, Inc., Philadelphia builders.

The estimated cost of the structures, including furnishings, was set at approximately $6,000,000 by Mr. Hostetter.

The new unlits, first to be started in the proposed overall construction program on campus, will house 1043 students and will be equipped with feeding facilities.

The new dormitory units will be situated in the area east of Shortlidge road and south of the extension of Pollock Road, on a plot with a frontage of approximately 700 feet.

One of the units will have frontage of about 300 feet and will house a few less than 500 students. The other will have a 380-foot frontage and will accommodate a few in excess of 500 students.

Of Georgian colonial design, the domms will be built of brick. Their style will be consistent with that of other campus living quarters.

Each building will have its own first filoor lobby with an adjacent dormitory office, a recreation room with canteen, and a post office where students will receive mail and parcel post.

the first of more than a dozen new permanent campus buildings, con-struction of which has been ap-proved by the College Board of Trustees under the broad threefold program of the State, the Al-umni, and the College. Among other buildings, plans call for (Continued on page two)

Dr. Hoyde Gives Third LA Lecture

Dr. Bryn J. Hovde, president, New School for Social Research, New York, will deliver the third of the series of Liberal Arts lec-tures at the College in Room 121, Urbales Published at 8 p.m. Thurs-Sparks Building, at 8 p.m. Thursday. He will discuss "Currents in Modern Social Thought."
In 1944 and 1945, Dr. Hovde

the United Nations in 1945 and later served as technical secretary to the American delegation to the London conference of a United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization. Since National 1945 he has held his December, 1945, he has held his present position.

Dr. Howde is author of the book, "The Scandinavian Countries, 1720-1865; The Rise of the Middle Class," published in two volumes in 1944.

Wolff To Address Anti-Franco Rally

War veteran, and warmender of Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade, will speak in Schwab Auditorium at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

Sponsored by the Common Sense Club, and featuring the week demonstra-Anti-Franco tions conducted by this organiza. tion, Wolff will discourse on "Fascist Spain, A Threat to World Peace.'

Slides from the book, "Franco's Black Spain," by Luis Quintauilla, will also be shown.

During the 21 months which Wolff fought in Spain, he rose from private to major with the Lincoln Battalion. Wolff also served in the Indo-Burna theatre and in Italy as a member of the armed forces in World War II.

Tickets for this rally, on sale at Student Union, are priced at 40c.

The dormitory units will be Health Service Asks Precaution

The length of the current list of patients in the College infirmary attests to the effect of the present changing weather on student Examinations having a tendency to come in the same week, stu-dents are apt to attempt getting along with a minimum amount of sleep and with high prices some students skimp along on their meals.

Both of these practices result in rundown systems, leaving the body susceptible to many dis-eases which would otherwise be

With generally crowded facili-ties the spread of disease becomes an important factor in our daily lives here at the College. Students who are ill are urged to report to served as chief, division of cultural who are ill are urged to report to cooperation, U. S. Department of State. He was a technical expert with the American Delegation to the San Francisco Conference of the Inited Matiens in 1945 and to take care of their own health to take care of their own health so that they don't add to the pres-ent burden on College facilities.

A new student chapter of the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences will be organized in 117 New Physics following the student A.S.M.E. meeting Wednesday, according to Daxid Peery, head of the aeronautical engineering department.

News Briefs

Marine Reserve

Movies of the Saipan-Tinian operations will be shown in 200 Engineering E 7 o'clock tonight at a meeting of the Marine Corps Volunteer Reserve Unit for all former men and women Marines.

Color Films

Donald Reist will show color novies at Agriculture Education 7:30 o'clock tonight. These films were taken this past summer by Reist when he served with UNRRA in Poland. The public is invited.

IFC Bridge

Entries in the IFC duplicate bridge tournament should be made at Student Union today or tomorrow, according to James Jones. Any number of two-man teams may enter from each fraternity. Entry fee is one dollar per team. The tournament will be held Saturday and a trophy will be awarded the winning team.

Gerwig Lone Chess Victor; Koltanowski Takes On 27

Larry Gerwig is the current pride of the Penn State chess team. He out of 27 student, faculty and townspeople opponents was able to beat George Koltanowski, one of the world's greatest chess players, on the latter's visit to the College Saturday.

Koltanowski, playing 27 simultaneous games, lost one to Gerwig, tied four, with Dr. Orrin Frink, Ruth Ann Friedman, Walter Pascoe and Durwood Hatch, and won the remaining 22.

To Gerwig and the four players who tied him, Koltanowski pre-sented autographed chess score

Blinfold Technique

Following the simultaneous match, Koltanowski demonstrated his famous blindfold technique employing Durwood Hatoh and Larrk Gerwig as apponents. Ex-Larrk Gerwig as apponents. Exhibiting amazing poyers of concentration and memory, Koltanowski with his back turned to his opponents called out from a near-

Koltanowski later agreed to a draw. Following the match and blindfold exhibition, Koltanowski held a question and discussion period on chess problems.

The next chess match, an-nounced Ruth Ann Friedman, club publicity chairman, will be on April 12 when the team travels to Rockview Penitentiary.

Team Matches

On April 19, the Penn State chessmen will play host to the Red Rose team of Lancaster. The following day, April 20, the Nit-tany team travels to Cornell for a return match with the Big Red.

Anyone interested in playing or