Only three days remain in the week-long annual fund drive the Red Cross is conducting on campus. Co-chairman Samuel E. Neely said today that, in spite of the inclement weather, early progress of the campaign was "satisfactory."

Neely stressed that the volunteer coed solicitors are authorized to pick up house checks as well as individual contributions.

Checks, payable to the American Red Cross, must be at the Dean of Men's office by 8 p.m. to make the Daily Collegian the following day.

Diplomatic hot-spots in today's news have been chosen as the subjects of this week's Public Affairs Films, to be shown in 10 Sparks at 10, 2:20, and 4:20 o'clock today.

The two films scheduled for this week, entitled "Greece" and "Palestine," were both produced by the "March of Time." According to members of the screening committee, the films measure up to the "March of Time's" reputation for dramatic, forceful and factual motion pictures.

CA Club Shows 3 Films At 'Evening of Sports'

An "Evening of Sports" will be presented by the CA Club in 304 Old Main at 7:30 p.m. tonight when the group will show three movies on the various sports.

Featured film will be that which presents in technicolor the highlights of last year's professional golf tournament showing the leading golfers of the country in action. Following this, Bob Rutherford, Lion golf coach, will discuss golf as a sport and answer questions about it.

The second film will show leading big league players and games, while the third presents aces in the world of swimming and diving. Refreshments and dancing will follow.

Chapel Choir Presents Dubois Easter Cantata

"The Seven Last Words of Christ," a cantata by Dubois, will be presented in Chapel Sunday by the College Choir and 40 members of the College Symphony orchestra.

The program, an annual Easter event, will be directed by Mrs. Willa Taylor. No announcements of individual selections will be made to interrupt the cantata.

Doors of Schwab auditorium will be opened at 10:30 a.m. and closed when the auditorium is filled, in order to prevent an overflow, Mrs. Taylor said.

SU Distributes New ISC Monthly

"Positive", new monthly publication sponsored by the Independent Student Council, will be distributed at Student Union today, according to Betty Gibbons, editor.

The new newspaper will contain news of all independent functions, Miss Gibbons stated. The publication will support what ISC believes beneficial to independent students, she added.

Any independent student interested in writing for "Positive" should contact the editor through Student Union, Miss Gibbons emphasized.

Guest Orchestra Plays 2 Concerts

Two concerts will be presented by the Rochester Civic Orchestra at Schwab Auditorium on Thursday, April 10, Dr. C. E. Marquardt, chairman of the Artists' Course Committee, said today.

The first is scheduled for 4 p.m. while the regular program for Artists' Course patrons will begin at 8 p.m.

Tickets for general admission to the matinee will go on sale at the Athletic Association ticket window in Old Main and at the State College High School, on April 8. Admission for faculty, college students, and townspeople will be $1, which includes tax, while 75 cents will be charged for tickets sold to high school students.

Guy Fraser Harrison, who has been conductor of the orchestra since 1929, will conduct for both concerts.

USCG Academy Seeks Applicants

The United States Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn., is accepting applications for the 1947 entrance examination, Admiral Joseph F. Farley, Coast Guard Commandant, announced today.

Applicants must be between the ages of 17 and 22. Physical requirements include 20/20 vision and a minimum height of 5 feet six inches. High school scholastic requirements include two years of algebra, one year of plane geometry, three years of English and one year of physics. For the first time, trigonometry will not be required.

Applicants for the examinations will be accepted until March 31. The tests will be held May 7 and 8 in key cities throughout the country, to be announced later.

Those who qualify will not need Congressional appointments for acceptance to the Academy, the Commandant said.

After four years of intensive training, cadets are graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in engineering and commissioned as United States Coast Guard ensigns.

WSGA Prexy-Elect Asks Suggestions

"I'd like every girl to feel it is her duty to take an active part in student government," said Suzanne Romig, newly elected president of WSGA.

Continued the future president, "If the women would bring out more suggestions in their house meetings, we could get a better idea of how they want their government run. All suggestions are considered by the House of Representatives."

Miss Romig's election as next WSGA president is the fulfillment of a three-year-old prophecy. When Miss Romig was elected president of her freshman dorm, Claire Parks; WRA intramural chairman, who was also living in the same dorm, commented, "Susy' will be WSGA president when we're seniors."

As a freshman, the president was a member of Freshman Council, Freshman Customs Board, and Swimming Club. Her sophomore year, she was semester secretary, and WSGA sophomore senator.

Miss Romig is vice-president of WSGA, secretary for Treble Singers, and publicity chairman for A.C.E., elementary education organization. She is vice-president of Gamma Phi Beta, and a new initiate of Pi Lambda Theta, national education honorary.

AZ Opossum Breaks College Birth Record

Fraternities at the College have bragged about their dogs having five and six pups, but an opossum at Alpha Zeta gave birth to 15 possumettes Tuesday night.

This looks like the establishment of an all-time record at Penn State, said Samuel Anthony, Mama Opossum's press agent.

Jacqueline, as she is known, started to present the surprise bundles at 11 p.m. in the boudoir of her owner, Bill Tucker. Completely unaware of what was taking place, one of the boys in the house entered the room and found it flooded with young.

Tucker, the proud owner, then took control of the situation. "I had no idea," was his sole comment.

Very small, about the size of bumble bees, the young opossums are concealed in their mother's pouch. In true paternal spirit, Bill says that no visitors can be received until the little ones are able to navigate by themselves.

On a recent trip home Tucker found his pet while she was walking along the roadside. Since that time Jacqueline has been on a dog collar, and leash.

Publicity Group Plans Fall Work

Members of the All-College Cabinet publicity committee will meet with representatives of the College cheerleading squad and the marching Blue Band in 410 Old Main at 7 o'clock tonight, according to Richard Sarge, chairman.

Preliminary plans and arrangements for next fall's football season will be discussed with a view to staging pep rallies and street parades before home grid games.

Discussion will also be held and plans made on such projects of the committee as broadcasting music from Old Main tower Sunday afternoons, cooperation on publicity with the Pennsylvania Department of Commerce, and means of obtaining favorable publicity for the College in national magazines and newspapers.

News Briefs

Jazz Movie

Marian Anderson, George Gershwin, Benny Goodman, and others, will be featured in the film, "Music in America" which shows how jazz developed from Negro folk music. Commission VI of PSOA is showing this film in 304 Old Main at 6:30 o'clock tonight, co-chairmen Sam Harvey and Jean Moore said.

CA Dance Class

New students who signed up for the PSOA dance class are asked by director Bduce Wennerstrom to report to 401 Old Main at 7 o'clock tonight. Regular classes on the foxtrot and the lindy will be held.

Newman Club

Managers of the Newman Club softball league are requested to attend the Newman Club executive meeting in the Rectory at 8 o'clock tonight.

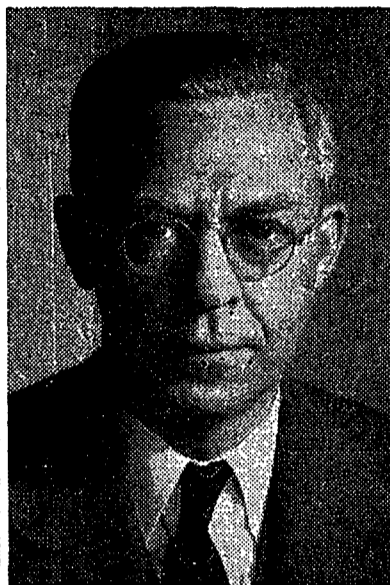

Civil Engineers

The American Society of Civil Engineers will meet in 107 Main Engineering at 7:30 tonight, said Walter Goldstein, president. Two films, "Concrete Facts" and the "Story of Slab 37" will be shown. Membership cards and keys are ready for those who have paid their dues.

Chem Phys Council

Raymond Shibley, president of the Chemistry Physics Student Council, will report to the group on the results of a conference with Dean Frank C. Whitmore at a meeting for the Council and all interested students in 409 Old Main at 7 o'clock tonight. April election of new Council members will also be discussed.

LA Speaker

Dr. Bryn J. Hovde, president of the New York School for Social Research, New York, will deliver the third of the series of Liberal Arts lectures at 121 Sparks, 8 p.m. tonight. He will discuss "Currents in Modern Social Thought."

Chinese Newsmen Lectures Tonight

Dr. Chou-chang Pu, correspondent for the Chinese newspaper Wen Hui Pao, will speak in 110 Home Economics tomorrow at 8:15 p.m., according to Mrs. Donald W. Davis, president of the American Association of University Women.

Dr. Pu whose subject will be "China's Struggle for Democracy," studied economics at the University of Shanghai from 1938 to 1941. He then came to the United States and received his A. B. degree from the University of Michigan in 1942 and later did graduate work at Harvard. His special field of interest is labor economics.

He taught at the Samuel Adams School for social studies and at the same time was editor of Chinese Student Opinion, a quarterly published by the Chinese Christian Association in Cambridge. Dr. Pu is now reporting economic conditions in the United States for his Chinese readers.

Artist's Exhibition

All art entries for the Beaux Art Ball Art Show, sponsored by Pi Gamma Alpha, art honorary, must be turned in to Student Union or the Architectural Library on the third floor of Main Engineering before Monday, said Gerda M. Irwin, president of Pi Gamma Alpha.

This contest is open to all students. Entries may be paintings, water colors, oils or any other media, and must be matted for display.

The entries will be displayed on the third floor of Main Engineering from April 1 to 12. They will be judged and then featured at the Beaux Art Ball to be held in Recreation Hall, April 12.

Forestry Films

The Penn State Forestry Society will meet in 105 Forestry Building at 7:30 o'clock tonight to see movies on pulpwood harvesting and utilization shown by Mr. D. E. Hess.

WASHINGTON—During his news conference yesterday, President Truman said he hopes Congress will approve his foreign relief plan before March 31. On that date Britain is to end her aid to Greece. Mr. Truman added that American Delegate Warren Austin will discuss the whole Greek-Turkish situation when he reports to the United Nations Security Council Friday.

WASHINGTON — Former Mayor Fiorella La Guardia of New York told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee yesterday that he is opposed to the President's plan for aid to Greece and Turkey. La Guardia said relief is a matter for the United Nations rather than for the United States alone. And the former mayor added: "Conditions in the Balkans can't be corrected overnight—it will take a generation."

MOSCOW — The Four-Power Foreign Ministers argued for nearly five hours yesterday without reaching any major decisions. At the end of the meeting, Secretary of State Marshall warned that the Council was taking up too much time with trivial matters. The only agreement was to allow Yugoslavia a voice in connection with the Austrian Peace Treaty.

NANKING—Chiang Kai-Shek's troops may run into difficulties when they take over the Manchurian Port of Dairen, even though Russia has announced her willingness to evacuate the city soon. Reliable Chinese sources are afraid the Soviets will leave Dairen suddenly, enabling the Chinese Communists to take over. Unofficial quarters predict that government troops may have to fight their way in.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—Although Soviet Russia did not send a delegate to the opening session of the United Nations Trusteeship Council today, the council went ahead anyway with the task of drafting rules of procedure. Russia's absence raised no legal difficulties, but it caused concern among United Nations officials.

WASHINGTON — Today you will be able to buy the new five-cent airmail stamp at most post-offices throughout the country. This stamp is of the standard postage stamp size and is red in color.

Group Sponsors Easter Egg Hunt

Veterans' children will be the guests of the X-GI Club and Junior Service Board at an Easter egg hunt to be held at Holmes Hockey Field 1:30 p. m. Sunday.

Baskets will be provided for the children and prizes will be awarded to the youngsters finding the most eggs, according to Jack Hayes, chairman of the committee.

The feature attraction of the children's party will be a diaper derby and a golden egg hunt. In the event of inclement weather, the hunt will be held at Holmes Field 1:30 p. m., April 1.

Collegian Deadline

Collegian will publish its last issue before the holidays next Wednesday. Announcements and stories must be submitted to the office by Tuesday at 4 p.m. to insure publication in the Wednesday paper. Publication will be resumed Thursday morning, April 10, following the Easter vacation.

Wagner Invites Coeds to White Hall

"I hope to have all women students feeling more at home in White Hall," Lee-Ann Wagner, newly elected WRA president, said in an interview yesterday.

"There is no reason for the opinion that the building is 'out-of-bounds' for everyone except physical education majors," she added.

Miss Wagner, sixth semester physical education major, intends to do her best to increase coed participation in WRA. An active member in White Hall activities herself, she played "Army-Navy" field hockey and basketball this year, and lists tennis, bowling and volleyball among other intramural activities.

"Lee," a member of the swimming varsity, swam with the two relay teams which took first place in this year's national intercollegiate. She also took third place in the 40-yard crawl, and fourth in 100-yard crawl.

President of the Modern Dance Club, Lee is a member of the concert group presenting the dance recital at White Hall tonight, tomorrow and Saturday. She is a member of Lakonides, physical education honorary, and Gamma Phi Beta sorority.
