

Faculty News

"Penn State Night" was arranged for the joint meeting of the Pennsylvania Ceramics Association and the Philadelphia Section of the American Ceramic Society in Philadelphia Thursday night.

Dr. E. C. Henry, chief of the division of ceramics, reported on ceramic activities at the College, while Dr. W. A. Weyl, professor of glass technology and director of Glass Science, presented a paper on "Some Practical Aspects of the Surface Properties of Glass."

Krauss Speaks in Mass.

Dr. Franklin B. Krauss, professor of Latin and secretary-treasurer of the Classical Association of the Atlantic States, will speak at the annual convocation of the Classical Association of New England at Andover, Mass., today. His subject is "The Antecedents of Nuclear Physics."

Dr. George E. Simpson, head of the division of sociology, recently addressed a dinner meeting of the Bucknell chapter of Alpha Kappa Delta, honorary sociological fraternity, on "Jamaica in Transition."

Dr. Eugene McDonald, director of the speech and hearing clinic, and Margaret Raabe, assistant professor of speech education, attended a meeting of the American Academy of Cleft Palate Prosthesis at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia Wednesday.

Engineers Pick Officers

Professor Clarence E. Bullinger, head of the department of industrial engineering, was named chairman and John W. Breneman, professor of engineering mechanics, was named secretary of the Allegheny Section of the American Society of Engineering Education at a meeting in Pittsburgh.

Other members of the School of Engineering who were at the meeting are Professor Alphonse A. Brielmaier, Professor A. Harris Forbes, Professor Richard B. Fox, Dean Harry P. Hammond, Professor Donald E. Hardenbergh, Dr. John A. Sauer, Professor Robert K. Vierck, and Dr. Benjamin A. Whisler.

Trabue in Ohio

Dr. Marion R. Trabue, dean of the School of Education, is in Columbus, Ohio, at the annual convention of the Council of Guidance and Personnel Associations.

Dr. Florence Taylor, associate professor of elementary education, addressed the Schoolmen's Club of Clearfield County Wednesday night.

Earl B. Stavely, professor of electrical engineering, lectured at a recent meeting of the Williamsport section of the Institute of Radio Engineers at Williamsport. His subject was "New Problems in Teaching Electronics."

Ruth E. Graham, professor of home economics, and Doris E. Ekstrom, associate professor of home economics education, spoke at a conference in New York sponsored by the American Home Economics Association.

Mr. Roy Larson, of the firm of Harbeson, Hough, Livingston, and Larson, architects for the College, will address the Faculty Luncheon Club at the meeting in the Hotel State College at noon Monday. He will discuss "A Plan for the Development of the College Physical Plant."

Ed Prof Speaks Twice

Dr. Carroll D. Champlin, professor of education, talked to the student body of Edinboro State Teachers College and the Erie Teachers' Association Wednesday. Dr. Champlin's subject at Edinboro was "Our American Interest in the Postwar World." At Erie he described "The Teacher of Tomorrow."

Dr. Grace M. Henderson, director of home economics, is one of the two delegates representing the American Vocational Association at the meetings of the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization in Philadelphia this week.

Debaters Enter National Meet

A Men's Debate team will represent the College for the first time in the National Forensic Tournament at Mary Washington College, Fredericksburg, Va., on April 3, 4, and 5.

From the number of students who have competed under him throughout this school year, Coach Joseph F. O'Brien, Head of the Speech Department, has delegated Samuel E. Neely and Richard K. Hill as an affirmative squad, and Peter M. Giesey and Fred M. Kecker to compose the negative group.

More than 40 colleges, as far distant as 2,000 miles from Fredericksburg, have annually been contenders in this tourney. Last year's champion, the University of South Carolina, will again enter a squad.

Contests in oratory, reading, poetry and other forensic subjects are also included in the competition. O'Brien asserted it is likely that the College will also enter contestants in several individual matches.

The national debate question, "Resolved: That labor shall have a direct share in the management of industry," will be the tourney debate question.

News Briefs

(Continued from page one)

night, according to Florence Feinberg, publicity chairman. A social will be held in the Grange Playroom after the bowling, she added.

Dram Lab

"My Author Husband," by Marjorie Jordan, will be presented by the Drama Laboratory over WMAJ at 2:30 p. m. Sunday. Irving Feldsott is director of this week's production.

Medical Forum

Lester Perry, executive secretary of the Pennsylvania State Medical Society, will conduct an open forum in 110 Home Economics 8 p. m. Tuesday. He will speak on "Trends in Hospitalization Plans." Phi Epsilon Kappa, pre-medical society, and the Pennsylvania State Health Society, under the leadership of Dr. A. F. Davis, are sponsoring the program. The public is invited.

Graduate Social

The Graduate Club has invited all graduate students to a social meeting in the cafeteria of Home Economics at 8 o'clock tonight. Interested faculty members as well as the wives or husbands of graduate students are also invited.

Ad Students Plan Philadelphia Tour

Twenty men, advanced students in advertising, will make a field trip to Philadelphia April 8, 9, and 10. The trip is made possible by the joint sponsorship of Alpha Delta Sigma, professional advertising fraternity, and the department of journalism.

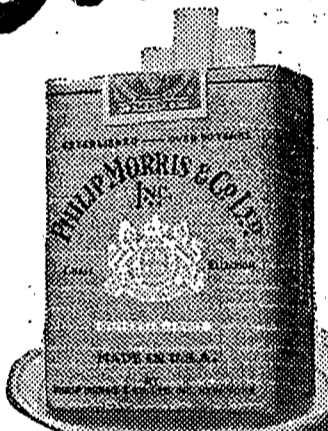

Donald Davis, professor of journalism and faculty adviser of the group, lists the places to be visited as The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, WPEN radio station, N. W. Ayer & Son advertising agency, Curtis Publishing Company, and Beck Engraving Company.

In addition to tours of offices and plants, several talks are scheduled by executives of these companies.

Students who have already enrolled for the trip are Elisha Cloud, Robert Cochrane, John Conbett, Bruce Dietterick, Fred Fuhrman, Albert Green, Ernest Haboe, Leonard Litvin, Charles McClelland, Frank Neish, Donald Shaner, Baylen Smith, Gordon Smith, Curtis Stone, Charles Strain, Lee Strickland, Adrian Swain, Robert Wills, Harry Winand.

The Flavor's All Yours...

when you smoke
PHILIP MORRIS!

CLEAN, FRESH, PURE America's FINEST Cigarette!

First smoke in the morning or last one at night—the flavor's ALL yours, when you smoke PHILIP MORRIS! And here's why...

There's an important difference in PHILIP MORRIS manufacture that makes PHILIP MORRIS taste better—smoke better—because it lets the FULL FLAVOR of the world's finest tobaccos come through for your complete enjoyment—clean, fresh, pure!

Try PHILIP MORRIS—you, too, will agree that PHILIP MORRIS is America's FINEST Cigarette!

NO OTHER CIGARETTE CAN MAKE THIS STATEMENT!
Of all the leading cigarettes, PHILIP MORRIS is the only cigarette with an exclusive difference in manufacture—recognized by eminent medical authorities as being to the advantage of those who smoke!

CALL FOR PHILIP MORRIS

ALWAYS BETTER... BETTER ALL WAYS

NOW AT YOUR WARNER THEATER

Cathay
NOW PLAYING
'The Jolson Story'
in TECHNICOLOR
LARRY PARKS
EVELYN KEYES

State
MICKEY ROONEY
LEWIS STONE
in
'Love Laughs at Andy Hardy'

Hillman
HONDO HATTON
JANE ADAMS
'THE BRUTE MAN'
Saturday—All Day
'RIDING THE CALIFORNIA TRAIL'