

Here are the scores in yester day's opening games:

NATIONAL LEAGUE Philadelphia 4, New York 3. Brooklyn 5, Boston 3. Pittsburgh 1, Chicago 0. Cincinnati 3, St. Louis 1. AMERICAN LEAGUE Boston 7, Washington 6. -Philadelphia 6, New York 1. Chicago 2, Cleveland 1. Detroit 7, St. Louis 0.

WASHINGTON - The latest deadline has come and gone in the nationwide telephone strike. Hopes for an early settlement have disappeared. Both sides turned down the government proposal for a settlement. Officials of the striking Federation of Telephone Workers first voted to reject Labor Secretary Schwellenbach's formula for a settlement. The union officials said the proposal was not acceptable in its present form.

NEW YORK—The Reynolds "Bombshell" plane is winging its way to New York now—on the last leg of its round-the-world flight.

The plane took off from Edmon-ton, Alberta, at 5:04 p.m. E.S.T. last night after a 69-minute stopover. Chicago Industrialist Milton Reynolds and his two-man crew said they hoped to complete the rest of the flight in six hours. They were expected to arrive in New York about 11 o'clock E.S.T. last night.

MOSCOW—Secretary of State Marshall finally made his long-awaited call on Stalin tonight apparently in a last effort to sal-vage something from the Moscow Conference. The American Secretary of State talked with the Russian Prime Minister for about one hour and a half. The conversation itself remains a secret, but Marshall probably concentrated on trying to find some way to settle a few of the big differences be-tween the United States and

Glenn Triumphs In Judging Contest

Winners in the annual livestock judging contest for animal hus-bandry students at the College were announced yesterday by Dr. William L. Henning, member of the faculty and coach of the College livestock judging team. The contests were held last Saturday in the Stock Pavilion.

Champion of the advanced group is George Glenn and in the "amateur" class, restricted to students with only one course in livestock subjects, Albert Vigi-lante was declared winner.

In the advianced group Thomas King took second place; Raymond McKinley, third; Charles Camerand James Work, sixth. Leaders in the divisions were Thomas King, first for horses, with George

The King of Siam and his favorite harem girl, a Viking hero and a French pcodle took the prizes for their originators at the Beaux Arts Ball Saturday night.

VOL. 45-No. 35

Pat Sheffer and John Marion received first prize of $10 for the best couple. Jack Belega, the Vi-king hero, won the second prize of $5 and Larue Cassey Lenker as a French poodle took the $5 third prize.

James T. Fickes was awarded first prize of $5 for his water-color which was submitted as part of the Beaux Arts Bell Art Exhibit. First and second hoporable mention prizes of $3 and $2 went to Morton Cohn and Robert Johnston, respectively. Edward Lenker was awarded $3 and Barney Gates received honorable mention for charcoal sketches of their dates.

Eng. Students Nominate

Nomination of candidates for the Engineering Student Council Hirsh and John T. Watkins an-election next Tuesday opened this morning at 8 a.m. and will booths. close tomorrow at 5 p.m., accord-ing to Alexander Petrowski, Public Affairs Group chairman of the Council's election committee.

Candidates must have an allcollege average of 1 or better and may nominate then selves. Any fouth, fifth, sixth or seventh semester student in any of the six

Nominations can be made by calling Alexander Petrowski, Alpha Sigma Phi, at 2252. Infor-mation necessary includes name, semeter substance of the efforts to Alecording to Jean Micore, chair-man of the Public Affairs Film semester, sverage and curriculum of the nominee. A complete list of candidates will appear in the Daily Colleg-ian next Tuesday.

Penn State Club Revives Independent Award

The annual award for the outstanding non-fraternity senior man is being revived by the Penn State Club and on Class Day a cup will be presented for the first time since 1943.

This award is the highest recog nition for independent n.en according to Hugh Odza, publicity chairman. A committee of faculty and student members will seon, fourth; Walter Fairman, fifth; lect the winner from all nonfraternity graduating seniors.

Greek Loan Discussion

Fraternities House Dates College Senate has granted permission for mixed housing during Houseparty weekend to ten frater-nities that met the requirements set by Dean of Men and Dean of Women, according to Fritz Lloyd, IFC president.

The houses that applied and received permission are Beta Theta Pi, Delta Tau Delta, Kappa Delta Rho, Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Kappa Sigma, Pi Kappa Phi, Sigma Pi, Theta Chi, Theta Xi, and Triangle.

Lloyd said that IFC will present to the Association of Fraternity Counselors the request that mixed housing be permitted for future big weekends without separate requests being made for each affair.

The theme for the Inter-Fraternity Ball to be held in Recreation Hall Friday night will be "A Night in Venice," with appropriate decorations consisting of a street scene and stain glass windows similar to those found in Venice, according to Robert Koser, decorations chairman.

Boyd Raeburn and his orchestra will play for the dance and tickets priced at $4 will go on sale at Stu-dent Union, Friday. Co-Publicity chairmen Robert Hirsh and John T. Watkins an-

Shows Conservation Film

"Powenful, moving drama" has been the comment of many who have seen "The River," Public Affairs Films presentation this week. engineering schools may nominate and vote in the general election. U. S. Soil Conservation Service as committee, the picture is in great demand all over the country. The committee is proud to be able to present it to College audiences, she explained.

The movie will be shown in 10 Splarks at 10, 2:20 and 4:20 o'clock tomorrow, said Miss Moore.

Golf, Tennis Rules

Athletic Association books will be necessary to secure golf permits, Dean Schott's office announced westerday.

Reservations for tennis courts may be made by calling extension 87J one day in advance. They will be for an hour and forfeited if the person making it does not arrive within ten minutes.

IRC Meeting

Name Alternates In

Collegian

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 16, 1947-STATE COLLEGE, PENNA.

'Skylark' Cast Four members of the cast of the Penn State Players arena show "Skylark" will be alterwill be alternated for this weekend's produc-tion, according to Kelly Yeaton, director.

Lois Hartswick will take the part of Charlotte Franklin, prev-iously played by Phyllis Wannemacher. Ruthe Cohen will alter-nate for Carol Dieckmann in the role of Myrtle Valentine.

Herbert Rossman's role of Harley Valentine will be taken over by Harold Chidnoff. Gordon Fiske will continue in his part as Ned Franklin on Friday night, but will alternate with James Lotz on Saturday night.

The remaining members of the cast will continue in their same pants. Tickets for both nights are available at Student Union. The price is $1.10 and includes an after supper.

Crew managers for Players next production, "Barretts of Wimpole Street," were announced by Kelly Yeaton, director. They are Ray-mond Maule, construction; Mar-garet Waple, paint; Irving Feld-sott, make-up; and Martha Koons properties Koons, properties.

Eleanor Romanyshyn, costumes; William Bensch, lights; Barbara Keefer, advertising; Richard Mauthe, stage; and Robert Stabley, house.

Pollock Circle Views Fra Life Through Pink Spectacles

Fraternity life as seen by two Pollock Circle men is one of the feature acts of the Thespian pro-duction, "Varsity Sweetheart," to be given Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

per Bichard, Writers of the book, say, "is a manifestation of a dream."

The fraternity even has a bartender and a cigarette girl who help out the three fraternity men, Hart, Schaffner, and Marx.

Tickets are still available for all three performances, according to Ted LeFevre, business manager.

cago Conference Report meeting will greatly influence the College's future policy relative to sending delegates to national assemblies, said All-College Presi-dent Robert Focte in urging stu-dents to attend this Common Sense-sponsored assembly in 121 Sparks at 8 o'clock tonight.

WEATHER

Cloudy. Rain and Cooler.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Focte, who headed the College delegation to the December con-clave, will deliver an account of the assemblage along with representatives Michael Blatz and Mary Lou Waygood, and observers Fred Kecker and Richard Sarge. An open discussion will follow these reports.

According to Kecker, the Chidago Conference laid the groundwork from which will develop a national student organization.

This organization will more fully ccordinate student government, student and veteran housing, finances, activity organizations, and student unions among the member colleges, asserted Kecker.

Stated Richard Sarge, "The December convention stressed the importance of a strong and integrated national organization. Once this objective has been obtained, plans will be drafted for active participation in a world student group in a cultural way."

Singers Give Five Concerts

The College Glee Club, under the direction of Frank Gullo, assistant professor of music, is now giving a series of concerts sponsored by various Penn State Alumni Chapters throughout the state, Arthur C. Jenkins, publicity manager, announced today.

The first of this year's concerts was in the State College High School last Thursday night. Saturday night the group sang in Ford City and last night in Williamsport.

Saturday nights. The backdrop of the fraternity scene is an "cut-of-this-world" fraternity house playroom. The bar as Richard Frontman and Pep-Dichard writers of the book, Dichard writers of the book, A tentative date has been set for Johnstown on April 22, but as yet plans are not complete for this performance. The final out-of-town offering will be in Scranton, Amil 25 April 25.

On April 27, the Glee Club will give its annual concert in Schwab auditorium. Among the highlights of this year's concerts are spe-cialty numbers rendered by the Hi-Lo's, a 16-member group, and the Varsity Quartette.

Glenn, second; Lynn Christian, first in swine, with R. L. Smith, second; George Glenn, first in beef cattle, with Albert Vigilante, second; and in sheep, Charles Cameron was first with Thomas King second.

More than thirty students competed in the event.

Willard Heads Division Af Chemical Meeting

Dr. Mary L. Willard, associate professor of chemistry, heads the division of analytical and microchemistry at the annual national meeting of the American Chemical Society in Atlantic City this week.

Representing the College on the Council which convened prior to the general sessions were Dr. Albert W. Hutchison, associate pro-fessor of chemistry, and Dr. Arthur Rose, associate professor of chemical engineering.

Papers will be presented by Dr. Hutchison to the division of physical and inorganic chemistry, and by Dr. Rose to the division of industrial and engineering chemistry.

Dr. Joseph H. Simons, profes-sor of physical chemistry and director of the fluorine laboratories, will present a paper to the division of physical and inorgan-ic chendstry. Alfred L. Miller's poper will be

นคระบบสร้าง

Dr. Robert Dengler will lead a discussion of the Greek loan which the model UN General Assem-is being presented by the Young bly at Swarthmore will report at Democratic Club in-120 State Col. a meeting of the International Re-lege High School at 8 o'clock to- lations Club in the Hugh Beaver night. The public is invited.

Room at 8 o'clock tonight.

Good Luck Charm Power Assists Glenn Hawthorne

take his good luck chann to the intercollegiate boxing matches at Wisconsin, but the power rode long-distance.

The charm is Jeannie, his wife, and Hawithorne had never lost a match while she sat on the side-lines. Hawthlorne's luck held, however, and he proved his boxing ability by winning the National Collegiate Athletic Association 130-pound title.

"The first thing I thought about after the match," said Hawthorne, "was that Jeannie would be tickled." Mrs. Hawthorne echoed this with "I certainly was tickled." Practicing has 'always been a family affair in the Hawthorne trailer. Using his wife as a spar-ring partner, Glenn attempted to figure out how and why he had been bit in his latest minter One been hit in his latest match. One-year-old Sulsan would laugh and giggle; she thought Daddy was playing a game.

Winner of the Goodman trophy. read at the division of organic an award presented to the out-chemistry. ring, Hawthorne is Penn State's Club.

Glenn Hawthorne was unable to fifth boxer to hold a national title, ake his good luck charm to the Now Hawthorne is saying good-nercollegiate boxing matches at bye to college boxing. An eighth semester student in Agricultural Economics, he will be graduated from the College in June. However, he will not say good-bye to Penn State, as he is staying to work for his master's degree.

Glenn isn't the only student in the family. Mrs. Hawthorne, a for-mer resident of Athenton Hall, is studying home economics. Little Susan, their daughter, stays with a neighbor while Mom and Dad attend classes.

The figure "14" tallies up quite bit of extra poundage but that is how much Hawthorne has gain-ed since he stopped boxing. Glenn still frequents the gymnasium and is trying to fight off more weight.

brother in Alpha Zeta fraternity, Hawtthorne is a member of Druids, Skull and Bones, Alpha Tau Delta, and the Agricultural Education

ASME Contest Winner Four delegates who attended To Attend Conference

Joseph Riegal, winner of first prize in the "technical paper" contest held April 10 by the student branch of the American Society of Mechanical Enginers, will repre-sent the Penn State chapter at a regional student conference competition in Philadelphia Thursday. Robert Hurm won second prize and John Householder won third prize, said Professor J. Doolittle, henerary chairman.

Student engineers attending the conference are P. L. Donoulghe, branch dh'ainman, T. W. Crawford, W. L. Dufiton, D. W. Evans, R. M. W. L. Dutiton, D. W. Evans, R. M. Hussey, Mary Ilgen, W. G. Law, Janet Kohler, I. C. Mabry, W. W. Sunday, and W. H. Wagner. A.S.M.E. activities scheduled are Apnil 23, nominations and the topic, "The Lincoln Plan of Wage Incentive"; May 7, election of offi-cers and the topic, "Coal Burning Gas Turbines"; May 15, final ban-guest and institution of officers quet and installation of officers.

Deans Attend Convention

ant to the dean of women, attended the recent convention of the National Association of Deans of Women held at the Neil House, Columbus, O. This was the first meeting held since before the war.

Bowling Party

All members and friends interested in weekly bowling parties being sponsored by the Athletic committee of the Hillel Foundation are requested to meet at the Dux Club, 128 S. Pugh street at 7:15 o'clock tonight, according to Norman Horowitz, athletic chairman. All participants will be expected to pay their own expenses, ĥe added.

Phi Eta Sigma

Phi Eta Sigma, freshman men's honorary fraternity, will hold an initiation of eligible candidates in the near future. All students who were eligible before the war by reason of a 2.5 average, but who were not initiated, are requested to send their names and local addresses to the faculty adviser, Dr. Franklin B. Krauss, 219 Sparks, at once.

Contest Photos

Photographs of the coeds entered in the Miss Penn State of 1947 contest may be picked up at Student Union, according to J. Arthur Stober, Froth editor.

Circlulo Espanol

Se reunira el Circulo espanol miercoles el 16 de abril a las siete en el salon NE de Atherton.

