

Lacrossemen Win Season's First . . .

Loyola Bows to Lions 6-2

Solving the tight Loyola defense in the second half, Coach Nick Thiel's lacrossemen chalked up their first win of the season as they defeated the Greyhounds 6-2, on New Beaver Field Saturday. The Nittany stick-wielders are now working out in preparation for their fourth game this Saturday with the powerful Navy ten at Annapolis. Ernie Baer, midfielder, hit the Baltimore nets for the first two Nittany scores of the afternoon. The game started slowly, with Loyola getting the first goal as defenseman Bob Wittesberger picked the ball up at midfield and dodged his way past the Nittany defense to drop the ball in at 5.45 minutes of the first quarter. Baer tied the game up at 9.45 minutes of the second period on a fast-breaking play, and the score remained at 1-1 at the half. The third quarter was the turning point in the game as the State stickmen racked up three more points on goals by Baer, George Locotos and Buddy Thomas while holding Loyola scoreless. In the final period Ken Kerwin and Rog Nestor both hit the Baltimore nets for tallies as Ed Hughes, Loyola center, put in the Greyhounds' second score. The Nittany lacrossemen were without the services of defenseman Irv Smith, who was injured in football practice last week.

Family Troubles

Family worries are something new in the life of Nick Thiel, lacrosse coach. One player was unable to make the season's opening trip because his wife was ill. Another was summoned home by the birth of a first child.

W. Va. Defeats Lion Nine Twice

Joe Bedenk's Lion baseball team will be looking for that second victory next Saturday when they meet Georgetown after dropping two games to West Virginia, 6-4 and 4-2, over the weekend. Even a complete revamping of the club by Bedenk failed to produce a win for the Lion fans as the team continued its early season jitters. A total of eight errors knocked the props from under Bob Gehrett and Bill Benyish, who both pitched what should have been winning ball.

West Virginia led throughout Saturday's game and Penn State's only rally occurred in the ninth inning with two outs when pinch-hitter Ken Yount was safe on an error and scored on Benyish's long single to rightfield. The Mountaineers scored three runs in the fourth and one in the ninth. A long home run to left center field in Friday's game broke up a 3-3 tie and put the game on ice for the visitors. It was Gehrett's second defeat. Centerfielder Bill Davis led the Lions at the plate in Saturday's game with two singles. Complete box scores will appear in tomorrow's Daily Collegian.

Netters Lose Opening Tilts

Defeats at the hands of Georgetown and Maryland marred the post-war debut of the Blue and White net team and its new coach, Sherm Fogg, as the Lion courtmen dropped their opening matches, 8-1 and 6-3, respectively. Georgetown's Hoyas swamped the Foggmens 8-1 in Washington, Friday, with the Nittany doubles team of Beckhard and Pessolano responsible for the solitary win, tripping the number two combo, 6-11, 6-4.

Captain Walt Stenger and Dick Clarkson won in the singles against Maryland, while Beckhard and Greenawalt took their doubles contest.

Golfers Tie, Lose

After tying Georgetown 4-4 on Friday, Coach Bob Rutherford's Lion golfers dropped their match Saturday to the same team by a 5-3 tally. (See story tomorrow.)

Here's a perfectly strange man looking you in the eye. You've been introduced...but it's up to you to carry on from there. Maybe your go-between threw in some clues along with your names. Maybe you're exposed to each other without benefit of life-lines. What on earth is there to say to this man? The thought panics some of you into sticky silences. You grin sheepishly at him, wishing with your whole heart he'd hurl an opener at you. But maybe he thinks ladies should make the opening gambit. So it could be a draw...with each of you muffing your chances of making an impression on the other. But it needn't...when it's so easy to start the ball rolling.

What is there to talk about? People are the liveliest topic. "Do you know...?" always gets an answer. People do things, say things, wear things, win honors, go places. Things happen to people...funny things, weird things, odd things. "Had you heard...?" can start you off. Places are easy to talk about too. Places you've been...places you're going...places you'd rather be than where you are right now. When you've exhausted the tangibles, start on ideas. "What do you think about...?" will set him chatting. You'll even find yourself being talked down if you come out flatly with "I think...!" Talk about things you've never done...people you've never met...places you've never seen...things you know nothing about. It's a sure way to pry information out of a stranger.

Conversation's a game of associated ideas. One thing leads to another. And like most games, it requires at least two players. It's not a monologue. Toss words out...then wait for responses. It takes two active ears...as well as a nimble tongue!
