

With the Editor

The Faithful 4000

Some 100 issues of the Collegian have been published since the present editorial staff of the Collegian took over last Fall.

On the average, nearly 4000 students have trampled daily through snow, slush, rain and in biting cold weather to the SU desk in Old Main.

Regardless of what is said, good or bad, about our product, actions speak the loudest. The faithfulness of the student body in picking up its copies of the Collegian convinces us that students do care about the campus and campus activities.

We have endeavored to give our readers, as a result, the best picture we can of campus life. But we can only reflect campus life—we can only tell our readers what others are doing. The paper, in a sense, can be no better than the student body.

For this reason, we ask our readers to take but a few minutes, either today or tomorrow, to go over to the Armory and cast their votes for class officers. You have shown your interest in the campus by picking up the paper daily; pick up your feet and help us turn out a better paper by making tracks for the Armory where the Election Committee sits and waits for your ballot.

We Laughed and Laughed

We laughed and laughed when we heard that the "leading publication on campus" had been denounced from the pulpit by one of the downtown ministerium this past Sunday.

We were still able to laugh, though not so heartily, after a personal chat with our denouncer, for he admitted that he had felt it his duty to warn his flock against certain communistic elements on campus.

The Collegian came under that heading for printing an editorial last week supporting a student (though not named, the inference is obvious since our only edit fitting the bill was the one pointing out that Mr. Banyai was a worthwhile candidate who'd at least done something) running for office. The candidate was supposed to be affiliated with a communistic element.

We do not care to get into any arguments with the Church, but we feel that it is our duty to warn the student body of this campus—the Collegian flock, that is—that the editor of this paper is an out-and-out Republican (who is strangely out of place in some ways for he also prides himself on having liberal and progressive ideals that do not always concur with Old Guard policies).

Having delivered our little sermon for the day, we would again like to ask our readers to get out and vote today—and ignore name callings that can't be and aren't backed by fact.

'Off the Grass'

One of the most important jobs on the auction block of Campus politics, today and tomorrow, is that of the All-College president.

Under the present set-up, you, the student body, can expect a small portion—some $200—of your class dues to go to the man you elect. The work involved is worth far more than $200, if the man works, say one-half as industriously as Mr. Foote did this year.

An attempt was made to put committee salaries on a pay-as-they-work basis, by Mr. Fulmer but it was defeated. As a result, you are going to pay someone's salary next year whether he works or not.

Running for the All-College presidency are Mr. Hack and Mr. Lannen. Checking over their records (the kind that can be placed on activities cards and the like) one definitely gets the impression that Mr. Lannen has had more experience since he served two semesters as a class officer.

For this reason we feel quite certain that Mr. Lannen, in the campaigning he does today and tomorrow, will not object to having student voters ask him one question: "Just what did you do during your two semesters on cabinet, Mr. Lannen?"

From the many meetings we attended last year, as a student exercising his right to attend Cabinet meetings and not as a member of that body, we definitely feel that there is not much you can say, unless you mention the Bulletin Board project.

And should you care to expand on this subject, it would only be fair for you to give full credit to a member of the opposing party, Mr. Fulmer, for most of the work that was done on the Bulletin Board project.

To our many readers who will be beating a path to the Armory for the elections today and tomorrow, we have but this to add, "Keep off the Grass!"

Forum Presents—

(Continued from page one)

John P. Peters, M.D.

Tickets for this last forum lecture will be seventy-five cents for those without season tickets. Dr.

F. F. Borzell, M.D.

Bruce Moore has been re-elected as Chairman of the Community Forum.

Politics—

(Continued from page one)

Senior president: Edward Czekaj, Nittany-Independent, Delta Upsilon, varsity football, varsity basketball; Edward Banyai, State, regional director AVC, advanced ROTC.

Senior vice-president: Ted Rubin, Nittany-Independent, Cabinet, LA Student Council vice-president, Elections Committee, Collegian Junior Editorial Board, Phi Eta Sigma, Phi Epsilon Pi, Richard Greenawalt, State, Phi Kappa Tau, tennis team.

Senior secretary-treasurer: Patricia Meily, Nittany-Independent, Judicial, freshman council of PSCA, third semester secretary, Cwens, Red Cross operating committee, Pi Gamma Alpha, Senate, president Kappa Kappa Gamma, Thespians costume committee; JoAnn Roraback, State, Delta Gamma, Cwens, women's debate, secretary Forensic Council, PSCA cabinet, Chapel Choir, Panhellenic Council, Delta Alpha Delta, Student Radio Forum.

Junior president: William Wilson, Nittany-Independent, secretary Pollock Circle Council, Blue Band, Nick Ghezzi's band; Martin Baum, State, Thespian, Players, Phi Sigma Delta.

Junior vice-president: John Hayes, Nittany-Independent, former president Math Club, Penn's Vally Ski Club, Newman Club, ice hockey, lacrosse, X-GI Club, PSCA, Sigma Nu; Alex Mauro, Pollock Circle Council, AVC, IMA, PSCA dancing class instructor, Penn State Club.

Junior secretary-treasurer: Marjorie Gorham, Nittany-Independent, treasurer WSGA, treasurer Cwens, treasurer Elementary Education, president Irvin Hall, Players paint crew, badminton club, Alpha Lambda Delta, Kappa Alpha Theta; Laura Johnston, State, Alpha Omicron Pi secretary, Players, PSCA.

Editorials and features in The Collegian reflect the opinions of the writer. They make no claim to represent student or University opinion. All unsigned editorials are by the editor.

Great Music!
CONTI CASTILE SHAMPOO
presents
THE TREASURE HOUR OF SONG

Leading Stars of the Metropolitan Opera
Isla Albanese • Jan Peerce • Francesca Valentini
Dorothy Kirsten • Rhea Stevens

PLUS Exciting Contest Feature!
Win 3 Days in New York
ALL EXPENSES PAID

Every Thursday Night

9:30

STATION WMAJ
State College, Pa.

CLASSIFIEDS

WILL BUY, TRADE or SELL your present car. State College Motor Service. State College 743.

WANTED — Room for parents Saturday night, May 10. Call Fay, room 164 Atherton Hall.

DELTA UPSILON will remain open during the summer session. To reserve room and board call Ward 3939.

LOST—Phi Ep Pin with initials W.I.G. on back. Call Bill 4953.

BRING your carburetor, generator and electrical troubles to the Weiser Auto Service unit in the Antes Motor Sales building, Rt. 322 1-8 mile north State College. Be swindled by an alumnus Dick Weiser, ME '41.

THE DAILY COLLEGIAN

Successor to the Free Lance, est. 1877.

Published Tuesday through Friday mornings during the College year by the staff of the Daily Collegian of the Pennsylvania State College. Entered as second class matter July 5, 1934, at the State College, Pa., Post Office under the act of March 3, 1879. $2.50 a semester $4.00 the school year.

Represented for national advertising by National Advertising Service, Madison Ave., New York, N.Y., Chicago, Boston, Los Angeles, San Francisco.

Michael A. Blatz Editor
Rosemary Ghantous Bus. Mgr.

Mgr. Ed., Lynette Lundquist; News Ed., Lawrence Foster; Co-Sports Eds., Stephen Sinichak, Arthur Miller; Feature Ed., Frank Davis.

Photo Ed., Suzanne McCauley; Women's Ed., Marilynn Jacobson; Asst. Women's Ed., Betty Marshall; Wire Ed., Seymour Rosenberg; Sr. Board, Lucy Seifing.

STAFF THIS ISSUE
Managing Editor ..... Helen Lewis
Assistant ..... Terry Hague
News Editor ..... Eleanor Fehnel
Assistant ..... Adele Holz
Ad Manager ..... Lou Martin
Assistant ..... Mimi Pomeroy

Letters — From the Editor's Mailbox

'We've Done ...'

TO THE EDITOR: During the past year, we the undersigned have worked on All-College Cabinet. We have done, to the best of our ability, the best job possible.

Naturally, there are still things which remain unfinished, such as the promotion of student-faculty relations, the erection of a Bulletin Board, and the All-College Flag.

These items have been pushed to the best of our ability, but due to the slowness in the administration, the results have not shown up yet.

However, we feel it would be a definite blow to everyone if all this groundwork were cast aside and the Cabinet would go off in an entirely different direction. Therefore, in all sincerity, we would like to urge all you students to renew your faith in us and elect a Nittany-Independent ticket that will continue to work for a "better Penn State."

Sincerely yours,

—Robert Foote, All-College President; Albert Green, All-College Secretary-Treasurer; Fritz Lloyd, President, Interfraternity Council; Vaughan Stapleton, Former All-College President; Russell Smiley, All-College Vice-President; James Sheehan, Senior Class President; Charles Pilegor, Senior Class President; Fred Kecker, President Liberal Arts Council, Chairman, Board of Dramatics and Forensics.

Non-Political Issues

TO THE EDITOR: There are several non-political issues appearing on the ballots at today's elections for the students' vote. They appear here because Cabinet has deemed them worthy of this consideration and because they are assessments and must be approved by the student body.

One of these involves a 50 cent student assessment for two semesters, grand total of one dollar, the proceeds to purchase new uniforms for the Blue Band.

The assessment is small, the need for new uniforms great as the present prewar stock has been ravaged by moth and general decay.

It will involve no special collection but will be included in the payment of fees.

The Blue Band has represented and served the student body well in the past; will continue to do so in the future. We will appreciate your support at the polls today and tomorrow by your approval of this request

—William L. Keefeaver,
President, Blue Band.

Last White Shirt

TO THE EDITOR: The residents of Windcrest are presently enjoying the benefits of a cooperative type of store, which was established when Leo Fiedorek was Burgess.

Of course, there were those in authority who resisted and insisted that these "wealthy" X-GI's could easily afford the more than "fair" prices in town, and might even become tainted politically if they purchased some of the basic foodstuffs in their own coop.

To their mediocre way of thinking, a place to buy things not along the main stem was taboo.

Now, the groundwork has been laid for a similar type of store to serve the needs of the Pollock Circle group. I would bet my last white shirt that not one of its customers will "go bad" politically because he bought a five cent candy bar for five cents.

The State Party will do everything in its power to extend the facilities of a cooperative store to everyone not now served.

The Party will work for the establishment of a store in a convenient location, which will service the needs of the general student body.

The many varied groups and organizations represented in the party feel that the benefits of such a store are entirely in keeping with the aims of a "Better Penn State" for the student body.

—Marvin Breslaw,
Platform Committee, State Party.

Another - - - of the People

TO THE EDITOR: In his review of Doll's House, Mr. Shapiro panned most of the acting, notably Richard Frontman's. Anyone who read the review could see that there was no mention of the acting.

The fact of that matter is that Mr. Shapiro's story was completely rewritten by the editor (who never saw the play) so as to soften the blow to those mentioned.

I firmly agree with the author of yesterday's letter to the editor that some one other than a Player should review Player's shows.

—Another One of the People.

• We appreciate these suggestions from our readers; we have promised Mr. Shapiro that he may take Mr. Frontman's job as soon as he learns how to write readable reviews.

Collegian Gazette

All calendar items must be in the Daily Collegian office by 4:30 p.m. on the day preceding publication.

Wednesday, April 30

NEWMAN Club discussion group, Rectory, 7 o'clock.

AG STUDENT Council meeting, 103 Agriculture, 7 o'clock.

HOME ECONOMICS Club meeting, 110 Home Economics, 7 o'clock. Dr. Hatcher will speak on her experiences in Chile.

College Health Service

Admitted to the infirmary Tuesday: Orion Silverman.

Discharged Tuesday: George Dawney, George Roye and Donald Stark.

College Placement Service

PROCTER AND GAMBLE DISTRIBUTING CO., April 29 and 30, 8th sem. men in C&F and A&L.

SEARS, ROEBUCK & CO., April 29 and 30, 8th sem. men in A&L and C&F.

BIGELOW-SANFORD CARPET CO., April 30, 8th sem. men in ChE, ME and IE.

THE OHIO PUBLIC SERVICE CO., April 30, 8th sem. men in EE, IE and ME.

WAGNER ELECTRIC CORP., April 30, 8th sem. men in EE.

CORNING GLASS WORKS, May 1, 8th sem. men in ME, IE, CE, EE, ChE, Phy and C&F.

PRATT & WHITNEY AIRCRAFT CORP., May 2, 8th sem. men in IE.