Branigan Reports 1000 Students Voted By End of First Day

All-College elections will swing into their second and final day today when the polls in the Armory open at 9 a.m. They will remain open during the noon hour, closing at 5 p.m.

John Branigan, chairman of the Elections Committee, said that approximately 1000 students voted yesterday. Although this is little better than 18 per cent of the 5500 eligible to vote, Branigan said it compares with first-day figures in previous semesters. In the fall semester elections, a total of 2700 students, 40 per cent of the student body, voted.

Branigan emphasized the fact that eighth semester students, of which there are 1200, are not eligible to vote, since they would be electing officers to serve after they have graduated.

Referendum Questions

Students, in addition to electing All-College officers, will vote on three referendum questions, (1) whether students prefer a student union or a field house, (2) whether students are willing to be assessed $5 per semester to be applied toward securing a Student Union, and (3) whether they are willing to be assessed fifty cents per semester for two semesters, starting in the fall semester, to purchase new Blue Band uniforms.

AA Nominees

Male students only will elect Athletic Association officers. Candidates for president are Ernest Closser, Dean Hartman, John Patskian, and Jack Tighe, while Jack Biery, Gerry Karver, and John Reeves compete for secretary.

Candidates for All-College President are Alan Hack, Nittany-Independent, and Thomas Lannen, State. Samuel Neely, Nittany-Independent, and Robert Troxell, State, are running for All-College vice-president. All-College secretary-treasurer nominees are Eugene Fulmer, Nittany-Independent, and Leo Fiedorek, State.

MI School Continues Sale of Banquet Tickets

Tickets are still on sale for the Mineral Industries Banquet to be held at 6 o'clock tonight at the Nittany Lion Inn. They are priced at $2 each and may be purchased at the dean's office in the MI Building.

A skit entitled, "Fynies Diggers, 1947," will be presented under the direction of Charles Fieeogor, in addition to this Liner W. Pehrson of the U. S. Bureau of Mines will speak on "The Mineral Position of the United States."

Chem Council Lists Candidate Names

Candidates' names for posts on the 1947-48 Chemistry-Physics Student Council have been released by Raymond Shibley, this year's president. Elections, under the supervision of the All-College Elections Committee, will be conducted next Tuesday and Wednesday.

Senior nominees from the chemistry, chemical engineering and commercial chemistry curricula are John Davis, Edward Holler, Jack Keller, William McTurk, Paul Schaefer, Robert Schock, Garth Seavy, Gladys Stryker, Richard Tarbox and Jay Tenzer. Seven members will be chosen from this group.

Five juniors in the same curricula will be elected from among Douglas Brace, Samuel Firestone, Martha Frederickson, Malcolm Johnston, Marguerite Naumann, Jeane Nye and Robert Stokes.

Annette Lanning, senior, and Martha Kremers, junior, are the only contestants for two seats in the science curriculum.

Physicists David Barron, William Hossle, and Paul Wilkins will vie for two senior seats. James Deets, Ethel Senkovits and Russell Waddell are the junior nominees for two positions.

Three pre-medical posts will be filled from seniors Howard Fugate, William Jaffurs, Jean McKinley and Joseph O'Tousa, Junior nominees for two seats are Abram Bosler, Patrick Galla, Michael Kutsenkow and Ray Plymyer.

PHILADELPHIA—Lagging hopes for an early end to the telephone strike have been given a lift by settlements in New York City and Pennsylvania. The three and four dollar wage agreements were made by unions outside the National Phone Federation, and many of the 43,000 workers covered by the agreements later voted not to cross picket lines today.

Junior and Senior Women Revive Faculty Reception

Phi Mu Alpha Gives Concert

Phi Mu Alpha, men's national music honorary, will present its annual complimentary concert in Schwab auditorium at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, Frank Hess, president, stated yesterday.

Concerts by the Phi Mu Alpha were discontinued during the war, this being their first since that time. It is the third in a series of concerts sponsored by the department of music, and will be an ensemble program.

The concert ensemble, composed of thirty pieces, is under the direction of Leonard Dileanis, Robert Fredrickson and Ernest Rotili. There will be a bassoon solo by Philip Miller and a piano solo by J. Edmund Kelly.

Selected numbers will be given by a clarinet quartet, string quartet, trumpet trio, and the Honey Boys. The clarinet quartet is composed of James Beach, Frank Hess, James Kocher and Robert Skiffer.

Ag Frolic Tickets Are on Sale at SU

Tickets for the Ag Frolic are on sale at Student Union today, according to Henry Funk and Don Benson, co-chairmen. Tickets are $1.20, including tax.

Carnival booths at the annual Frolic will feature such unusual games as betting on which hole a white mouse will run into, or throwing rolling pins for a prize, said W. Peter Horen, Frolic publicity chairman.

Combining a dance and the spirit of a carnival, the Frolic will take place in recreation hall from 8:00 to 12 p.m., Saturday. Twelve clubs represented on the Ag Student Council will sponsor booths. Prizes will be given for the best booths as well as individual prizes awarded to the winners at each booth. Entertainment will be provided by the Honey Boys and several skits, James Work will be master of ceremonies.

The traditional junior and senior women's faculty reception will be revived in the second floor lounge of Old Main from 8 to 10 tonight. The affair, which is semi-formal, is the first since 1942.

Invitations have been sent to all faculty members suggested by junior and senior women through their representatives. Chairman Margaret Martin encourages attendance by all juniors and seniors, since they themselves are to be the hostesses.

The men's string quartet of Phi Mu Alpha, music honorary, will entertain.

Cwens, IWA, Junior Service Board, PSCA and WRA will assist at the reception.

Theta Sigma Phi Elects Officers

Roberta Hutchison was recently elected president of the women's journalism honorary, Theta Sigma Phi.

Jean Thurston was chosen vice-president; Kay Badollet, secretary; Marjorie Mousley, treasurer; and Marie Thompson, archivist.

Recently initiated members include Janet Adler, Roberta Hutchison, Betsy Marshall, Joan Peters, Mary Anne Pletcher, Helen Reed, Marie Thompson and Adele Yablou.

PA Committee To Show Film on Public Health

"Seeds of Destiny" is the main film in today's Public Affairs Films showing in 10 Sparks at 10, 2:20 and 4:20 o'clock. Originally offered to distributors, the film was rejected as too harrowing for general audiences, said Jean Moore, film committee chairman. "The Story of Dr. Jenner" and "Defending the City's Health" are also on the 40-minute program.

Caps and Gowns

Today is the last day for seniors to order caps and gowns, invitations and announcements, according to George Donovan, student union manager.

Arrangements for these materials can be made in the Athletic Association office in Old Main.

Phi Beta Kappa Initiates Nine

Nine seniors and one graduate of the College will be initiated into Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honor society, May 14.

Following the initiation at the Nittany Lion Inn, a dinner will be held at which Dr. George L. Haller, assistant dean of the School of Chemistry and Physics, will speak.

Seniors named and their curricula are: Eleanor M. Aurand, pre-medical; George E. Bender, arts and letters; Robert C. Dinwiddie, arts and letters; Robert T. Foote, arts and letters; Margaret M. Gramley, arts and letters; Fred M. Kecker, arts and letters; Vivian L. Klein, arts and letters; Charles P. Miller, arts and letters, and Ernest L. Nagy, arts and letters. Israel Zelitch, who received a bachelor of science degree in agricultural and biological chemistry last February, also was named.

For election to Phi Beta Kappa at the College, students are required to have had at least two years of residence at the College and must have attained an average grade of 2.5 while at Penn State. The work shall have been liberal in character.

Students also are required to have shown a wide range of interest and must have completed six credits each from six of the following eight subject matter groups: biological sciences, physical sciences, social sciences, philosophy and psychology; mathematics; English language and literature; foreign languages; and arts.
