

Pitt Plays Host To Lion Trackmen

For Penn State's first dual meet of the season at Pitt Stadium tomorrow, Stone, Karver and Ashenfelter are slated to go in the mile. The same trio and Longnecker are entered in the two-mile.

HALF MILE

In the half mile, Coach Werne has selected Bill Shuman, if his injured foot permits, and Lennox, Horn and Evans. Mitch Williams, Grey and Hissey have been picked for the 440.

Matched against Pitt's ace sprinter Herb Douglas and his running mate Tom Carr in the 100 and 220 will be Robinson, Horgan and McCowan in the 100 and Harris instead of McCowan in the 220.

Steed, Brown and McCowan will wear the Blue and White in the low hurdles and Brown, Love and Yorkitis will carry the colors in the high hurdles.

Six Lion Gymnasts To Vie For National AAU Titles

Six Penn State gymnasts—Captain Ray Sorensen, Billy Bonsall, Steve Greene, Joe Rossi, Billy Meade and Stanley Wirtschaffer—will compete in the National AAU championships to be held in Dallas, Tex., today and tomorrow.

A record number of entries, about 40 competitors for each event, will also serve as director of men's events and as a member of the Olympic committee.

Greene will also compete on the fly rings and in the rope event. The Lion ace is defending rope champ, having taken the title for the past three seasons and establishing the NAAU record of 4.0 seconds last year.

Sorensen will enter the all-around event along with 22 others who will be contending for a berth on the 1948 Olympic squad.

The first eight to place will make up the tentative Olympic team, and "we're banking heavily on Ray to place in the all-around event and his specialties—the horizontal bar and parallel bars events," said Wetsstone.

ROPE TRIO

Joe Rossi, Greene and Stan Wirtschaffer will present a formidable trio on the rope, but Navy's Hoffman and several Los Angeles rope climbers will be on hand to give the Lions a tough battle for the crown.

Bill Bonsall, defending flying ring champion, will again work his specialty. Bill Meade will work on the tumbling mats and will get stiff competition from former NAAU winners.

Lion Nine To Meet Pitt

Joe Bedenk's Nittany Lion baseball team meets the Pitt Panthers in two games at Pittsburgh today and tomorrow with Ken Yount and Bob Gehrett scheduled to do the hurling for the Lion nine.

one setback this season and last week dumped the West Virginia Mountaineers who twice defeated the Lions at New Beaver Field.

The Bedenkmen will be without the services of their leading hitter, Don Stark, who tore a ligament in his leg during last Saturday's double-header.

Stark will probably make the trip, Bedenk stated, with the hope that he can be used as a pinch-hitter.
