

WEATHER
Cool and Cloudy

The Daily Collegian

Support
the
Cancer Drive

VOL. 45—No. 46

TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 6, 1947—STATE COLLEGE, PENNA.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Ostar, Ellis New Heads Of Collegian

Allan Ostar has been named editor-in-chief and Donald Ellis business manager of the 1947-48 Daily Collegian.

Lawrence Foster was elected managing editor; Joan Peters, news editor; Richard Sarge and Ted Rubin, co-sports editors; David Adelman, feature-photo editor; Ben I. French, assistant feature-photo editor; Kay Badollet, women's editor; Marjorie Mousley, assistant women's editor; and Roberta Hutchison, wire editor.

Senior Editorial Board

Jean Alderfer, Eleanor Fehnel, Helen Lewis, Arthur Stober, and Howard Back have been named to the senior editorial board.

Moveups to junior editorial board are Janet Adler, Arnold Gerton, William Gessner, Frances Keeney, William Keller, James Neiman, Gloria Parks, Mary Ann Pletcher, Helen Reed, Elliot Shapiro, Lewis Stone, Peter Warker, and Selma Zasofsky.

Sophomore editorial board includes Lois Bloomquist, Terry Hague, John Hall, Richard Hoenig, Adele Holz, Joanne Hobbs, Joan Fox, Ann Kovalenko, Claire Lee, David Malickson, Elaine Nelson, Loretta Neville, Leonard Phillips, Jan Pool, Beverly Russell, Ralph Temples, Malcolm White.

(Continued on page two)

Late AP News

Courtesy Radio Station WMAJ

WASHINGTON—Government conciliators remain cheerful on the prospects for a quick settlement of the nation-wide telephone strike. They hope new wage offers from two key companies of the Bell System may end the walk-out.

Employees of the New York Telephone Company crossed picket lines to go back to work yesterday. The four New York unions settled on the basis of a four-dollar-a-week pay boost.

LAKE SUCCESS—The United Nations Special Assembly on Palestine has concluded four days of wrangling by denying the floor to the Jewish Agency for Palestine. But the UN directed its powerful political committee to hear the Jewish Agency. Committee Chairman Lester Pearson of Canada has called the political group to meet at Lake Success tomorrow at 11 a.m. It will start establishing a Palestine inquiry committee.

LONDON—The British House of Commons has adopted a bill to bring all forms of transportation under government ownership. The measure has been sent to the House of Lords, where the government plans to push it for final approval by mid-summer.

SU Directory Seeks New Officers' Names

Student Union requests that the names of new officers of the following organizations be handed in at Student Union desk before May 10. Unless this is complied with the organization will not be listed in the Student Union Directory.

All fraternities and sororities, Alpha Epsilon Delta, Alpha Rho Omega, Alpha Phi Omega, AAUW, Ag. Ec. Club, American Ceramic Society, AIEE, ASCE, ASAE, ASME, ASM, AAUP, AVC, Bible Fellowship, Block and Bridle Club, Blue Band, Camera Club, Christian Science and Clover Club,

The Cornell Club, Center Club, Co-ed Coordinating Committee, Cheerleaders, Cwens, Dairy Science Club, Deutscher Verein, Delta Sigma Pi, Druids, Ellen H. Richards Club, F. F. of A. Forestry Society, Fraternity Counselors, Graduate Club, Grange

(Continued on page two)

Players Release Technical Crews

Technical crews for "I Remember Mama," the Penn State Players production to be given this weekend, were announced by Robert D. Reifsnider, director.

Advertising: Joan Harrington, manager; Phyllis Reigle, assistant; Katherine Courtney, Betty Lou Horn, Barbara Keefer, Patricia Kinkead, Terry Klosterman, LaRue Lenker, Jean Nichols, Jean Posey, June Snyder, Margaret Stridinger and Eva Mae White.

Properties: Doris Liljenstein, manager; Gerald Eberly, assistant; Frances Berkey, Irma Fox, Phyllis Harkin, Estelle Siekiecka, Gladys Smith, Lillian Weingarten and Jacquelyn Wengert.

Make-up: Lois Hartwick, manager; Carol Dieckmann, and Doris Shapiro, Construction: Robert Wickus, manager; Velma Creitz,

(Continued on page two)

Shibley Names Council Nominees

Twenty-one Chemistry-Physics Student Council members for next year will be elected in the lobby of New Physics from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. tomorrow, under the supervision of All-College Elections Committee, according to Raymond Shibley president of the Council.

Senior chemistry, chemical engineer and commercial chemistry candidates are John Davis, Edward Holler, John Keller, William McTurk, Paul Schaefer, Robert Schock, Gartin Seavy, Gladys Stryker, Richard Tarbox and Jay Tenzer.

Contesting juniors in the same curricula are Douglas Brace, Samuel Firestone, Martha Fredrickson, Malcolm Johnston, Marguerite Naumann, Jeanne Nye and Robert Stokes.

Science curriculum nominees are Annette Lanning, senior, Martha Kremers, junior. Physics majors are David Barron, William Hosler and Paul Wilkins, seniors; and James Deets, Ethel Senkovits and Russell Waddell, juniors.

Howard Fugate, William Jaffurs, Jean McKinley and Joseph O'Tousa are the senior pre-medical candidates. Junior nominees are Abram Bosler, Patrick Galla, Michael Kutzenkow and Ray Plymyer.

Haller Wins Kaiser In AVC Prize Raffle

George Haller, assistant dean of the School of Chemistry and Physics, won a 1947 Kaiser automobile Saturday at 9:40 p.m. in the local AVC chapter car raffle at Co-Op Corner, Earl Kemmler, AVC chairman, said today.

Dean Haller won the car on the first of two tickets purchased Saturday morning.

The ticket was drawn by Jean Kemmler of State College from a large squirrel cage containing an unknown number of tickets for the prize valued at $2105.92.

After the drawing, Hugh Ridall and his Tru-Blu Quartette played jazz at the Corner for one and a half hours. Kemmler said the raffle was conducted as a fund raising measure and had resulted in an increase in AVC membership.

Coeds Select Fall Rooms

All fifth semester women will choose their fall rooms in the Dean of Women's office between 6:30 and 7 o'clock tonight. Fourth semester women living in town will also choose rooms tonight; numbers 251-350, 7 to 7:30; 351-430, 7:30 to 8; 431-490, 8 to 8:30.

The schedule for fourth semester women on campus will appear in tomorrow's Daily Collegian.

Jean Nelson

Seniors Choose Honor Women

Ballots to elect six senior honor women must be turned in to the Student Union desk or the Dean of Women's Office by tomorrow, said Jean Nelson, WSGA president, today.

Lists of graduating senior women may be found at Student Union, the Dean of Women's office as well as on bulletin boards in women's dormitories, she said. Ballots have been sent out to everyone who is eligible to vote.

The six traditional titles will be awarded at Class Day when the men's awards are made. Suitable keys are given to those elected Bow Girl, Slipper Girl, Fan Girl, Mirror Girl, Class Poet and Class Donor.

"It is traditional for the graduating senior women to recognize the six classmates most outstanding for service to the College, personal honor, integrity, sincerity and versatility of activities," said Miss Nelson.

Design Contest Offers $125,000

Edward D. Lenker and Burton G. Tysinger, students at the College, and Joseph M. Spagnuolo, associate professor of architectural engineering, have entered a $125,000 architecture design competition, according to the Jefferson Expansion Memorial Association.

The contest is being held to secure a design for a $30,000,000 memorial to Thomas Jefferson and the pioneers of the West.

Architects, construction engineers, and students in these fields are eligible. Landscape architects, sculptors, and laymen may take part by associating themselves with an architect.

Applications are being received by George Howe, Old Courthouse, 415 Market street, St. Louis, 2. Five finalists will be named in September and the winner among these will receive $40,000 and have his design submitted to the Department of Interior.

Cabinet Adds Ten Cents To Forensic Allotment

All-College Cabinet, at a meeting Wednesday night, accepted Fred Kecker's recommendation for a ten-cent-per-semester increase in student fees allotted to forensic activities. The recommendation will be passed on to the trustees via President Hetzel.

Russell Smiley reported that the outdoor bulletin board has been constructed in parts, and will be assembled in the near future. A report from the Grounds and Buildings office said that department would follow Cabinet's recommendation in securing more adequate outside lighting at the lower entrance to Rec Hall.

Engineers Experiment

The engineering experiment station and the department of engineering mechanics at the College are jointly conducting four research projects to determine the behavior of metals subjected to stresses in more than one direction.

Dr. Joseph Marin, professor of engineering mechanics, who is in charge of the projects, hopes to obtain results which will be practical in the design of machine and structural members. Special testing machines have been designed to test static and dynamic combined stresses.

The projects are being sponsored by the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Welding Research Council and the U. S. Army Air Forces, Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio.

Assisting Dr. Marin are Joseph H. Faupel, Vernon L. Dutton and William Shelton, research assistants, and S. S. Eckley, James M. Aikley and Homer L. Johnson, mechanics.

ASME Members To Elect Officers

Officers for the student chapter of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers will be elected at a meeting in 100 EE at 7 o'clock tomorrow. Nominations may be made by contacting branch chairman Walter Dutton, Joseph Eisenhuth, or John Householder, said Patrick Donoughe, president.

Present nominees are Ray Bland, George Bierman, and Irvine Mabry, president; Donald Parsels, and Ernest Ratz, vice-president.

Harold Fay, Mary Ilgin, and William Young, treasurer; and Ray Cook and Albert Baker, secretary.

These officers will be installed at the annual ASME banquet to be held at the Nittany Lion Inn, 6:30 p.m. May 15.

Tickets for this banquet at $1.75 a piece may be obtained from William Fry, Morris D'Amico, John Householder, Walter Dutton, Joseph Eisenhuth, Henry Brenner, Earnest Beachley, Janet Kochler, William Sunday or Leon Lock.

Vets Sign Forms For Interruption

Veterans not planning to attend summer session, or planning to attend only the post-session, are required to report to the Armory sometime Monday or Tuesday, May 12 and 13, not yesterday and today as incorrectly stated in Friday's Collegian, in order to sign interruption forms.

Veterans who plan to attend inter-session or main summer session classes are requested to report to the Veterans Administration office on the above dates in order to sign a request that subsistence may not be discontinued at the end of the semester.

Veterans attending the main summer session will be kept in continuous training status unless the veteran specifically requests that he be interrupted in order to save time under the G.I. Bill of Rights.

If any veteran changes his plans concerning summer session after May 13, he should report this change immediately to both the Veterans Administration office and the Veterans Affairs office of the College, first floor Old Main.

Eng Student Council

George Krotchko, senior in civil engineering, was recently elected president of the Engineering Student Council. Other officers are George Bearer, junior in industrial engineering, vice president; and Don Perry, senior in industrial engineering, secretary-trea-

Sorensen Makes Tentative Olympic Gymnastic Squad

Ray Sorensen's fifth place in the all-around event at the NAAU's held in Dallas, Tex., over the weekend insured the Lion captain a spot on the tentative Olympic squad which includes the first eight men to place in the all-around competition.

Penn State finished third in team standings behind the Swiss Gymnastic Society of New Jersey and a Chicago squad.

Sorensen also took the only individual title for the Lions when he won the free calisthenics event.

Steve Greene was second on the side horse, third on the flying rings and tied with Joe Rossi for sixth place in the rope climb.

California's Smith set a world's rope climbing record with his 3.4 second hoist—chopping six-tenths of a second from the mark set by Greene last year.

Boose of Mexico finished second with Rubiera of Cuba coming in third.

This marks the first time since 1940 that Penn State has relinquished the rope title and the first meet in five years in which the Lions did not finish as the winning team or in the runner-up spot.

Sorensen's title gives Penn State 13 individual championships since Gene Wettstone took over the coaching duties for the Blue and White.

This was the first season in

(Continued on page three)

News Briefs

Sigma Xi

Dr. Raymond M. Fuoss, Sterling professor of chemistry at Yale University, will speak on "The Physical Chemistry of Polymers" at a public meeting of Sigma Xi, national science honor society, in 119 New Physics at 7:30 tonight, according to Dr. L. S. Rhodes, local secretary.

Scarab

Scarab, architectural honorary, recently tapped Stanley Cohen, John Diehl, Arthur Lillian, and Eugene Schneider.

Skull and Bones

All members of Skull and Bones hat society are invited to attend a luncheon at the Nittany Lion Inn, 12:15 today, to discuss tapping.

X-GI Club Meeting

All members of the X-GI club are urged to attend a meeting in 121 Sparks 8 o'clock tonight to discuss future plans for the club, according to Gene Fulmer, president. The spring outing and a possible summer softball league will also be considered, he added.

Mothers, Guests To Tour Campus Landmarks

Campus tours for visiting mothers and other guests of the College have been arranged for Saturday and Sunday, the President's office announced today.

Especially trained student guides will be provided without charge. Tours will start at Old Main and will cover the central campus in a "walkaround" that takes less than an hour. If visitors prefer to use their cars they may ride over the route.

Tours will run continuously beginning Saturday morning at 10:30 and Sunday afternoon at 1:30. Guides will be supplied as long as there is a demand.

More than 50 points of interest will be visited or pointed out. From the Land-Grant fresco in Old Main, visitors will be escorted to Schwab Auditorium and President Atherton's grave, then west on Pollock Road, up past the tri-dorms to the Lion Shrine, east beyond the Buckhout laboratories, south to Pollock Road, and west to Old Main.