

WEATHERSunny and CoolThe Daily CollegianSupport
the
Cancer Drive

VOL. 45—No. 48

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 8, 1947—STATE COLLEGE, PENNA.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Ag Honorary Holds Initiation Banquet

Gamma Sigma Delta, the national agriculture honorary, will hold its annual initiation banquet in St. Paul's Methodist Church at 6 o'clock tonight. The guest speaker will be Dean of Agriculture, Lyman E. Jackson.

Faculty members to be initiated are Dr. Alex Black and Dr. D. E. H. Frear, and alumni members George Goodling and Mason C. Gilpin.

Arnold M. Mattson, Joseph C. Lo Cicero, Richard E. Pride, George H. Watrous, Jr., C. L. Fergus, W. L. Lewis, R. M. Ross, J. O. Almquist are the students being initiated.

Undergraduates who will join Gamma Sigma Delta are Charles Calvin Adams, Jr., Mary E. Anderson, Kathleen A. Angelillo, Jonathan Ray Bickel, Charles Lloyd Bowman, Jeanne Muriel Carpenter, Hays Bentley Gamble, William Jackson Heinbaugh, and Carroll Hess.

Robert Louis Holtzinger, Ruth Juskowitz, Edward Joseph Kasner, John William Laughner, Charles Webb Major, Jr., Isabel Myers, Barbara Ann Smedley, Kenneth Winfield Staver, Mary Louise Waygood, Herbert Woehling, and Israel Zelitch.

X-GI Club Cancels
Dance At Rec Hall

The X-GI Club dance scheduled to be held at Recreation Hall, Saturday night has been cancelled because of the lack of student interest in the affair, said Eugene Fulmer, club president.

At the meeting on Tuesday night, the club decided to have its annual Spring outing at Legion Park, West College avenue, May 31. Fulmer said that nothing definite was decided for the outing.

Plans are being made to consult the physical education department for a joint sponsorship of a Summer Session softball league.

Chi Epsilon

Chi Epsilon, civil engineering honorary, initiated the following recently: Domenic Bibbo, Stanley Charr, Lewis Ganback, William Gentry, Clifford Hepper, Joseph Hnot, Harold Richards, James Roberts, Lawrence Rothstein, Matthias Schleifer, and George Wadlin.

Late AP News

Courtesy Radio Station WMAJ

Baseball Scores

St. Louis 2, Brooklyn 1.

Republicans Set Back

WASHINGTON—The Senate narrowly defeated a move to toughen its general labor bill by limiting industry-wide bargaining yesterday, delivering a surprise setback to the upper chamber Republican leaders. The amendment was sponsored by Robert Taft (R-Ohio), who had predicted its passage.

Greek-Turkish Aid

WASHINGTON—The House will probably reach a vote on the Greek-Turkish aid program late today. General debate was held yesterday, with the opposition doing most of the talking.

New Whodunit

JERUSALEM—A beautiful blonde lady in black disappeared after her escort was shot by two men in a fashionable cafe here yesterday. Police believe the man was lured to death by the woman.

Criticizes Policy

BUFFALO—Robert Watson, chairman of the board of the NAM, said yesterday that the nation's present foreign policy is the cause of high prices. President Truman doesn't seem to recognize this, Watson added.

Veterans

Veterans are reminded by the Veterans' Administration that on Monday or Tuesday, May 12 and 13, each veteran must report either to the Armory to sign an Interruption Form, or to the Veterans Administration office to sign a statement certifying his intention of attending Summer Session.

Failure to comply may jeopardize future benefits under the G.I. Bill of Rights.

'Elsie' Reigns
At Dairy Show

"Elsie," a Jersey cow fitted to resemble the cartoon character, will reign over the Mother's Day activities when the Dairy Science Club opens its annual exhibit in the Stock Pavilion 1:15 Saturday.

Fitting and showing contests will be held in the pavilion and special tents have been erected for the exhibit.

Educational demonstrations will include tests such as the Babcock test for butterfat content of milk to be conducted every half hour. Visitors will be able to witness the entire operation as employed in the dairy industry.

Lyman E. Jackson, dean of the School of Agriculture, will judge the coed milking contest and there will be dairy products judging and new equipment demonstrations.

Mrs. Ralph D. Hetzel, wife of the president of the College, and Mabel McDowell, of the Home Economics staff, will judge the "fashion show" staged by coeds dressing five calves in clothes.

Engineers Hear Warker

Dr. Eric A. Warker, head of the electrical engineering department, will speak on General Research Facilities in the Engineering School of the College at a meeting of the Emporium Section of the Institute of Radio Engineers in 110 Electrical Engineering at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

Ski Club

There will be an important meeting of the Penns Valley Ski Club in Room 110 E. E. at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

EE Students Plan
Unique Exhibit; Invite Everyone

Do you know the cause of noisy radio reception when you run your vacuum cleaner? Have you ever seen a written pattern of your whistling?

Would you like to see the inside of a B-32 ball turret, or watch radar reception covering an area of 100 miles? Or even see electrical equipment from an electric chair?

If you're interested in these things, the electrical engineering students invite you to attend their exhibit Saturday afternoon during the Engineering School's open house.

All laboratories—telephone, illumination, electronics, servel, dynamo—in the E.E. building will be open from 2 p.m. until 10 p.m. with equipment running and demonstrators explaining novel tricks.

In the lobby, Professor Gilbert Crossley's amateur radio station will be operating. Visitors may ask to have a message sent to any part of the world.

The Engineering Open House is a revival of an annual pre-war custom in which the various departments of the engineering school throw open their doors to the public to show the equipment and curricula available to students.

Public Affairs Committee
Shows Atomic Power Films

The atom has been smashed. Now, can its smashers be controlled? That is the question which the Public Affairs film committee is seeking to help answer in today's Public Affairs movies, said Jean Moore, chairman.

"One World or None" and "Atomic Power" will be shown in 10 Sparks at 10, 2:20, and 4:20 o'clock today.

"One World or None," according to Miss Moore, is the answer of the atomic scientists themselves to the question of international control of the atom.

"Atomic Power" was a recent March of Time release showing the background of the nuclear physics and physicists that led to the atomic bomb.

MI Students Nominate

Mineral Industries students interested in being on the newly reactivated MI School Council may nominate themselves today and tomorrow in 313 MI building. The only requirements are that nominees must have a 1 average and be undergraduates next semester.

Nine students will be chosen from the nominees at an election to be held later, to serve on the board.

Caps and Gowns

Cap and gown orders will still be accepted at Student Union Thursday from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. This is the last chance seniors will have to place their orders.

Phi Kappa Phi Initiates; Hears Atom Talk

Initiation of 43 new members, election of officers and a talk by Dr. Richard C. Raymond, assistant professor of physics, on Atomic Energy were the features of the annual banquet of Phi Kappa Phi, general honorary society. The banquet took place at the State College Presbyterian Church recently.

Graduates and undergraduate both were initiated. The undergraduate initiates are: Murray Altman, Frederick T. Andrews, Jr., Romayne M. Aumiller, Eleanor M. Aurand, Myron Becker, Jonathan R. Bickel, Sylvan Blumenfeld, I. Dan Bolef, John M. Bowers.

George H. Cohen, Yvonne L.

Cook, Dorothy M. Cornell, Thomas W. Crawford, Ethel L. Davis, Mary J. D. Ecker, Nathan R. Ninhorn, Sara L. Freedly, Margaret M. Gramley, Joan B. Harrington, Carl K. Harshbarger, Jr.

Robert L. Holtzinger, Elizabeth Martz, Daniel G. Meckley III, Isabel L. Myers, Ernest L. Nagy, Francisco Javier Ramirez-Silva, Jeanne Rich, Carolyn E. Robinson.

Barrett I. Rubin, Stanley Siegel, Kenneth W. Staver, Robert J. Terrey, Adele R. Thompson, Brigitte R. Uhlrig, Ruth H. Weinman and Lois R. Wolfe.

'I Remember Mama' To Open
Tonight; Granger in Title Role

Claire Cohen

Lannen No Newcomer
To Political Scene,
Former Prexy

Thomas Lannen, recently elected all-college president, is no newcomer on the political scene. Having served as third and fourth semester president in 1945 and 1946, he will accept the gavel with a wealth of experience in cabinet functions.

The new Prexy, who hails from Mill Hall, is a sixth semester architectural engineer. A member of Druids, and Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity, Lannen left the College in 1943, to join the Army Air Corps. In 1942 he was a member of both the College Choir, and Glee Club.

Early next week, according to the president-elect, all newly elected cabinet members will participate in a round table discussion to clarify their aims and facilitate their taking office.

"One of the major goals of my administration is the establishment of a campus cooperative store," Lannen stated. "In order to put it into operation soon after the commencement of the Fall semester, committees will be appointed from those cabinet members attending the Summer session. Their job will be to eliminate the chief stumbling blocks of the project."

"I Remember Mama," a special Penn State Players' production for the Mother's Day weekend, will open at Schwab Auditorium, 8 o'clock tonight.

Three more performances will be presented, tomorrow and Saturday nights and a matinee performance at 1:30 Saturday. Tickets, priced at $1, including tax, are available at Student Union for all performances.

Nancy Granger will play the part of Mama who tries to help her daughter, Katrin, portrayed by Claire Cohen, to become a writer.

The rest of the family about which the action revolves, consists of Papa, played by Frank B. Palmer, Jr., Katrin's two sisters, Christine, played by Anita Rosen, and Dagmar, by Trudi Bowman, and Nels, their brother, by Omar Lerman.

The part of Uncle Cris, one of the leading characters in the story, is taken by Harold Chidnoff. The rest of the cast includes James Ambandos, Fanna Brown, Shirlianne Bush, Sara Jane Cheresore, and Ruthye Cohen.

Barbara Cooper, Irving Feldsott, Louis Glickman, Lois Hartswick, Mary Alice Hodgson, Portman Paget, Jo Peoples, Clair Robinson, John Serff, and Frederic Vogel.

Not to be outdone by a dog in "The Barretts of Wimpole," (Continued on page four)

Music, Magic Entertain At LA Faculty Banquet

Singing, dancing, ensemble music and magic will be part of the night club program of entertainment for the entire Liberal Arts faculty when the traditional year end banquet is revived at the Nittany Lion Inn Monday, May 26.

Reservations are now being accepted for the affair by a committee composed of Dr. S. A. Mahuran, chairman, Prof. G. Woods, Prof. Margaret C. Raab and Dr. Elaine Windrich.

Professors and secretarial staff are invited, as are wives of faculty men, said Dr. Mahuran. An evening of fun and surprises, but speeches, is promised. Decorations, music, and menu will be keeping with the night club atmosphere.

News Briefs*Circulo Espanol

Se reunira el Circulo espanol el jueves, 8 de mayo en el salon NE de Atherton. Impuestos por favor.

Alpha Tau Alpha

Alpha Tau Alpha, agriculture vocational honorary, will hold its annual banquet at the Allencrest, at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. Members wishing to attend, please inform the committee. Those bringing guests may purchase additional tickets for $1.25.

LA Suggestion Box

The Liberal Arts Student Council has placed a box for suggestions concerning the L School on the bulletin board outside the Dean's office. Efforts will be undertaken by the Council to fulfill all suggestions said Fr. M. Kecker, president.

ASCE Meeting

Alfred Hedefine, engineer of Haresty and Hanover, will speak on "Problems in Choosing a Designing Bridges" at an ASCE meeting at 7:30 o'clock in 1 Main Engineering. ASCE schedules an outing at the Civil engineering camp in Stone Valley Saturday, May 17, for members only.

Penn State Grange

First and second degrees will be conferred upon Penn State Grange candidates by Washington Grange tonight at 7:30 o'clock in 100 Horticulture. All candidates whose applications have been presented must be present. Please bring initiation fee.

Reserve Officers

Col. George L. Heller, assistant dean of the School of Chemist and Physics at the College, will address the College's chapter of the Reserve Officers' Association in 3 Carnegie Hall, 8 o'clock.