

Riflers Place First in Nationals

Penn State's Rifle squad won first place in the 1947 Women's Intercollegiate Rifle Postal Matches according to an official notification received by the team's coach, Miss Marie Haidt.

A trophy will be awarded to the team and silver medals will be received by the five women whose scores were counted toward the team record. The total team score was 2439. Individual scores used for this total are Jean Posey, 490; Joanne Houtz, 489; Wanda Rickard, 489; Laurie Zekauskas, 486, and Barbara Knoll, 485.

The second place winner was Carnegie Institute of Technology with a team score of 2426. Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College placed third with a total of 2413.

In the Women's Individual Match Penn State placed three among the top ten in the country. Nancy Killam won fourth place with a score of 486. Joan Heath placed seventh with 485 and Laurie Zekauskas took ninth place with 483. Bronze medals have already been received as awards for these three women.

Tekes Celebrate; Keagy Has a Son!

The state of California is mighty sunny, but for Donald Keagy, State College is brighter. Even when it's raining.

At 11:15 a.m. Tuesday, the phone rang at the Tau Kappa Epsilon house. It was Western Union with a wire for Keagy. After hearing the news, he ran upstairs, grabbed the box of cigars that had been kept there and let loose with a series of war whoops. After weeks of "sweating it out," telephone strike and all, the good news had come.

At 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, Keagy learned he had become the father of Michael, a bouncing boy of seven pounds and nine ounces.

In the middle of the semester, wife Marion went out to her mother's home in San Jose to wait for the birth of her baby. Right now Don can hardly wait to see his first son and plans to see him after finals.

At the present time, the Keagys are on the waiting list for a Windcrest trailer, where they hope to live when they come back to school in the fall.

ChiO, Atherton Hall Top Women's Softball League

Chi Omega and Atherton took their fourth straight games in the WRA softball tournament Tuesday night, ChiO batting a 6-0 win over AOPi, Atherton topping AChiO, 13-3.

Atherton, which recently took All-College badminton and volleyball crowns, will face ChiO, last year's softball titlist, for the first time this season on Holmes Field Tuesday night. Southpaw Claire Parks, ChiO, will face Atherton's Susan Geiger on the mound.

Tuesday's losses were the third out of four games for AChiO and AOPi, AChiO defeating AOPi, AOPi topping Gamma Phi Beta earlier in the season.

Panhellenic Sing Honors Coeds' 75th Anniversary

The annual Panhellenic Sing, May 18, will commemorate the 75th anniversary of coeds on the campus, according to co-chairmen Mona Smulyan and Phyllis Schmelzle.

A chorus, under the direction of Romayne Aumiller and composed of four members from each of the nineteen sororities, will provide the background music. Campus fashions from 1872 to the present time will be modeled by several sorority members.

The audience will participate in the singing of old folk songs. Also a dance group, directed by Miss Dorothy Briant, will present the various stages of American dances.

Queen Prepares For May Day, Beset by Bluebooks, Rain

"I simply couldn't move when they announced my name in Schwab Auditorium," said Jeanne Knox, when asked how it felt to be chosen May Queen.

"I think I was carried up the aisle," Miss Knox recalled. "I'm quite sure I didn't walk up myself."

Jeanne is a vivacious brunette, with sparkling brown eyes that reveal her quick sense of wit and good humor. A graduating senior, Jeanne will receive a B.A. degree in English Literature. She would like to do personnel work after graduation, but has no definite plans.

Professors react in strange ways to a May Queen, Jeanne observed. She has a bluebook Saturday morning at 8 o'clock to begin the May Day festivities. Also her speech prof announced to the class that "even the lovely Miss Knox must give her speech today."

A member of Belle Lettres Club, Jeanne loves to read and write poetry.

"I haven't written any masterpieces as yet," she confessed. "Some of my poems are like Browning's, only God remembers what they meant."

Jeanne plans to wear a white ruffled marquisette gown, which will set off her dark hair, and harmonize with the blue and pink gowns of her court.

"I feel thrilled and honored to be chosen May Queen," Jeanne said. "My family is naturally very happy, and although my Dad said he couldn't come for the celebration, Mother expects to find him in the trunk of the car when they arrive."

Jeanne has been praying desperately for sunshine Saturday afternoon, but weather reports are against it. After all, that's too much to hope for at Penn State, she added.

Ford Sedan Winner Delp Hits Another Jackpot

Seemingly blessed with the capacity for buying winning tickets, Frank Delp, winner of the Ford sedan given by the American Legion, has done it again. Only this time it's a pressure cooker.

Then last week end, he drove the new car to his home in Pittsburgh. On his way he stopped in Altoona and bought a ticket on a pressure cooker which was being raffled off by a fire company. Several days later he received a letter telling him he had won.

'Mama'—

(Continued from page one) Street," a cat, the pet of Trudi Bowman, will take part in the current show. The assistants to the director are Ruthye Cohen and Rita Patterson.
