

Karver's Backstretch Kick Nips Dianetti In 4:11.6 Mile

Spartans Defeat Wernermen 71 3/5 to 59 2/5 Stone Breaks Meet Record in Two-Mile Win

Gerry Karver ran the fastest college mile in five years Saturday afternoon at New Beaver Field, nosing out Michigan State's freshman sensation, Jack Dianetti, in 4:11.6.

In running the second best mile in the United States this season, the Penn State IC-4A champion established himself as the top collegiate miler in the nation, and second only to Gil Dodds in the country's unlimited mile field.

TOP MILER

GERRY KARVER

Penn State dropped the dual meet to Michigan State, 71 3/5 to 59 2/5, but seven meet records dropped during the course of the afternoon, and the Nittany Lions took seven first places against the midwestern powerhouse which had defeated Notre Dame two weeks ago.

FEARLESS ASHENFELTER
Karver posted the best time of his career, as did "Fearless Fostick" Ashenfelter, who clipped nearly two seconds off his previous best time in finishing third in 4:19. Dianetti, whose best time until Saturday was his Drake Relay 4:15, ran the four quarters in 4:12.

Dodds holds the fastest mile of year with 4:09.6, at the Chicago Relays. Karver followed Dodds across the finish line that night in 4:12.8, the Lion star's previous best time.

Curt Stone, Nittany Lion distance champion, set a new meet record in the two-mile by running a 9:27.7, and Dave Pincus created a new meet mark with a discus heave of 143 feet, 3 inches. Michigan State set new records in the 440, 880, mile relay and broad jump.

TOPS OFFENHAUSER

Karver's time Saturday smashed the meet record for the mile and gave the Lion miler a new Penn State record, previously held by George Offenhauser in 4:16.2 in 1929.

Karver led the mile at the end of the first quarter in 61 seconds, but Dianetti overtook him to set the pace for a 2:05 half and a 3:10 three-quarters. Dianetti fought Karver off in the backstretch of the final lap, but the Penn State miler passed his opponent on the final turn and won by five yards.

The Lion miler's time was the best collegiate outdoor mile run since Bobby Ginn of Nebraska ran 4:11.1 in the 1942 NCAA to beat Les MacMitchell.

Colgate Nets 8-0 Tennis Victory

Colgate University's tennis team rumped the Blue and White courtmen 8-0 on the Varsity Courts Saturday, as the netters dropped their fifth consecutive meet of the season.

Captain Walt Stenger lost a marathon three set contest by 7-5, 3-6, 15-13 in a match lasting for two hours. The winner, Red Raide Number one man Frank Warren, used his strong cross-court play to edge Stenger, as many of his placements just eluded the reach of the smaller Walt.

NEW YORK TRIP

On Thursday, the Nittany netters will depart on their second trip of the season, when they journey to upper New York State to engage Syracuse and Colgate over the weekend.

When the Lions re-encounter Colgate, Stenger will be out for revenge. Although he offers no excuses for his Saturday defeat, it might be noted that Walt entered the match with but five minutes rest after a 150 mile trip from his native Waynesboro. Saturday he should be at his best for the Warren renewal.

In a close doubles tilt, Lions Dick Greenawalt and Herb Beckhard fought a hard duel with Ware and Mackenzie before losing in three sets, 6-1, 3-6, 6-1.

Summaries for the tennis meet will appear in tomorrow's Collegian.

Lion Stickmen Maul Drexel, 8-1

In a game punctuated by frequent displays of brilliant teamwork and keen passing, Coach Nick Thiel's Lion lacrossmen swept to an 8-1 victory over Drexel at Beaver Field Saturday.

Bolstering Nittany attackmen Ernie Baer and Ken Kerwin who led the Penn State onslaught with a brace of tallies each were Buddy Thomas, Art Lorenz, John Finley and Jim Wolf. The latter four added one tally apiece to the total.

Capitalizing on some weak defense play by the Drexel backfield men, the Lions roared to a 4-0 lead in the opening quarter.

DREXEL SCORE

After a rough-and-tumble melee at the opening of the second period which resulted in two Drexel penalty box assignments, the Drexel offense shifted into high gear and provided Lion substitute goalie, Jack Nehoda with plenty of net work. Despite several masterful saves, the Drexelmen managed to register their only tally of the afternoon.

Using all 38 players on the Nittany squad at some time in the game, Coach Thiel opened the third period with a flurry of substitutions which devastated the Drexel defensemen while the Lion attack racked up three quick goals.

Footballers John Finley and Tom Smith, sidelined with injuries since the Loyola game, rejoined the Lion squad to assist in the win. Score by quarters:
Drexel 0 1 0 0-1
Penn State 4 1 3 0-8
Scoring: Drexel — Goebel.
Penn State—Baer 2, Kerwin 2, Thomas, Lorenz, Finley, Wolf.

NROTC Pistolmen Win District Cup

Penn State's NROTC pistol team retained the District Cup Saturday by defeating the University of Pennsylvania and Villanova in shoulder to shoulder competition. State scored 1,044, Penn 720, and Villanova 706.

The final recapitulation on the 1946-1947 season, as released by coach H. H. Marshall, shows 17 wins against 8 losses for a percentage of .680. G. W. Gibson's 177 was the high score of the season.

The rifle team, by winning 26 and losing 16, for a .620 percentage, placed second in the District for the Commandant's Cup and 13th in a field of 39 for the National Cup. G. W. Gibson, with 361, made the high score for the season in this branch.

The season averages:

Baseballers Win Sixth . . .

Bedenkmen Blank Mules As Yount Stars On Hill, At Bat

Joe Bedenk's Lion baseballers will travel to Bucknell tomorrow for a game with the Bisons and a chance to bring their season's record above the .500 mark, after blanking Muhlenberg 4-0 Saturday on New Beaver Field.

Bedenk will probably send Bob Gehrett gunning for the Lions' sixth victory. Gehrett holds one win for the season—that over the Pitt Panthers.

Ken Yount took the batting and pitching honors in the Muhlenberg contest. As well as pitching shutout ball, he batted in two of the four Penn State runs and scored one of the others.

The game was Penn State's first shutout of the season and Yount's fourth win.

Don Stark, leading Lion batter, was missing from the lineup but will probably play against Bucknell.

SIX MULE ERRORS

Both teams accounted for six hits, but the Mules committed six miscues while the Lions had only one. Chuck MacFarland dropped a fly ball in rightfield after making a hard try for it.

Hal Hackman opened the Lion half of the first inning by singling to left and scored the first run of the game when centerfielder Herb dropped Whitey Kurowski's fly ball. Kurowski took second on the throw in and scored on Yount's single to left.

The Lions added another run in the fifth when Eddie Sebastianelli opened with a double to left-center, moved to third on Kurowski's infield single and scored on Yount's fly.

YOUNT COMPLETES SCORING
Yount led off the eighth inning by reaching first safely on short-stop Swartley's error. Chuck MacFarland walked and Yount took third on Johnny Potoskian's infield grounder. Yount scored the final run on Tom Hogan's fly to right-center.

The Mules threatened twice. Bob Rutkowski, an all-Pennsylvania choice twice as a Penn State football guard, is weighing several professional offers.

when they bunched two hits in each of the final two innings, but Yount tightened up and retired the side without a run.

Linksmen Sweep Sectional Match

Penn State's tournament-bound golf squad last weekend added Cornell, Army, and Pitt to its defeated list and turned its sights toward Atlantic City for the EIGA matches being held there Saturday.

Last weekend's matches, played in Ithaca on three different courses, found the Rutherfordmen taking the upper hand against all opposition. Cornell went down first, 5-4, with matches taken by partners Harper and Smith, Bob Klein, and Don Hart.

Number two squad to be clawed by the Lion, Army, went down, 5-4. Penn State's final victory was gained at the expense of the University of Pittsburgh squad, who were downed 6-3.

The Panthers had lost to the Blue and White golfers, 11 1/2-4 on the College course a week earlier.

Intramurals

IM Tennis

Intramural tennis got under way last week with Tau Kappa Epsilon advancing to second round position by trimming Phi Sigma Kappa and Pi Lambda Phi.

Match scores were Tau Kappa Epsilon 7-5 and 6-3. Phi Sigma Kappa took one 7-5. Pi Lambda Phi lost two out of three, both 6-1. Delta Upsilon took two matches 6-3 and 7-5 to win over Alpha Chi Rho.

Chi Phi advanced to the second round position with a forfeit over Alpha Chi Sigma.

IM Soccer

Thursday's intramural soccer schedule saw Phi Sigma Kappa take a 2-0 game from Pi-Kappa Phi.

Alpha Gamma Rho won their game with two corner kicks over Tau Delta although they played to a scoreless tie.

Kappa Sigma played to a 1-1 tie with Sigma Phi Sigma. Kappa Sigma won, however, having more corner kicks.

George Earnshaw scored two goals to bring Delta Upsilon out on top of Alpha Tau Omega in a 2-0 game.
