CA Discusses Activities, Plans for Fall Semester

An All-College Christian Association meeting to discuss functions and activities for next semester will be held in 304 Old Main at 7 o'clock tonight.

Stanley Coville, president, said that this would be a very important meeting as it will determine the framework for the work of the Christian Association for next year, and all students and faculty are invited to attend.

Refreshments and dancing will follow the meeting.

Men's Bridge Club Plays Final Tournament Rounds

The final round of the intra-collegiate bridge tournament, sponsored by the Men's Bridge Club, will be played in 405 Old Main at 7:30 tonight.

Winners of the third round, played last week were Philip Orlter and Irving Hirsch, first; Alan McHugh and William Whitby, second; Raymond McKinley and Walter Stenger and Harold Meacham and J. Dixon, tied for third.

Backell furnished the opposition for Penn State's first football game 61 years ago.
