

Yount Wins 5th With One-Hitter

Pitching the most brilliant game of his career, Ken Yount set Western Maryland down with one hit as the Bedenkmen won their third straight shut-out, 9-0, Friday afternoon at New Beaver Field.

The Lions connected for 11 hits and played errorless ball for the nine innings. Harold Hackman and Johnny Potokan each laced out three hits to lead the Penn Staters at the plate.

Saturday's second game of the series was rained out.

The Lions will try for their eighth victory of the season tomorrow as they meet the Temple Owls on New Beaver Field.

The summaries as well as the complete story of Friday's game will appear in tomorrow's Daily Collegian.

Stickmen Down Colgate; Drop Game With Hobart

The Penn State lacrosse team registered a resounding 12-3 victory over the Red Raiders of Colgate Friday but dropped their Saturday encounter to Hobart by a 6-5 count.

Leading the Lion attack in the Colgate tilt, Ken Kerwin, veteran attackman, scored five goals. Buddy Thomas hit the nets for three counters, Art Tenhula notched two and Wolf and Art Lorenz scored one each.

In the Hobart game, the Thielmen held "Babe" Kraus's performers to a 3-3 count going into the fourth quarter, but were forced to bow before the onslaught of fresh offensive men which the Hobart coach substituted in the final period.

For the Lions, Rog Nestor registered two, Art Lorenz, Ernie Baer, and John Finley each scored one.

Four IM Golf Teams In Semi-final Round

Four teams entered the semi-final slots of the intramural gold tournament.

Phi Kappa Sigma was the winner over Phi Kappa Psi. Sigma Nu took Sigma Chi, Beta Sigma Rho defeated Alpha Chi. Sigma and Phi Gamma Delta emerged over Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Syracuse, Colgate Stop Netters Over Weekend

The Penn State tennis team dropped two encounters over the weekend, running their skein of consecutive defeats to seven.

In a close meet at Syracuse Friday, the Orangemen edged the Blue and White 5-4, and the following day at Hamilton, N. Y., Colgate scored its second win of the season over the Nittany Lions, 7-2.

Outstanding for the Lions in defeat was number four player Herb Beckhard who had a hand in three of the six Penn State points. Beckhard accounted for two singles' wins, and also teamed

Track Team Tops Colgate, 77½-48½

Penn State's track team defeated Colgate 77½ to 48½ at Hamilton, N. Y. Saturday afternoon for its second win in three dual meets.

Horace Ashenfelter and Fred Lennox finished one-two in front of IC-4A champion Bud Meeker in the half time, clocked at 1:56.4, the fastest Ashenfelter has done over that distance.

Ten Penn State trackmen performed their best times and distances in the meet.

with Dick Greenawalt for a doubles' victory.

Golfers Place 3rd In EIGA's

Penn State's golfers, by virtue of an easy 8-1 victory over Brown, took third place in the EIGA championships held in Atlantic City over the weekend. Princeton gained the title; Navy was second.

The Rutherfordmen tasted defeat early in the matches, losing a heartbreaker to the Princeton champs, 5-4. Victories in this contest by Smith, Klein, and Hack, the latter pair winning their best ball, left the golfers in a 4-4 deadlock, going into the game's final match.

Here, Randolph edged Hart, one up on the nineteenth hole for the Nassau win.
