

Coliseum Relays Riders Place in First Show

Barney Ewell for Karver, Ewell

The competition will be tough at Los Angeles Saturday night when Gerry Karver and Barney Ewell don the spikes with other track greats at the Coliseum Relays.

Gerry, Penn State's outstanding distance runner who established himself as the nation's top-flight collegiate miler May 10 by beating Jack Dianetti of Michigan State in 4:11.6, will be running against Ronald Sink of Southern California, and Jerry Thompson of Texas, in addition to three other college mile stand-outs.

Barney's stiffest competition will come from Mel Patton of Southern California, who has already posted a 9.5 in the hundred and beaten Illinois' vaunted Herb McKenley.

BARNEY CAN STILL STREAK

Ewell showed that he still had plenty of stuff Saturday at a Lancaster high school district meet by pounding an exhibition hundred in 9.6, the best time he's ever done in competition, and the Penn State record he set in 1941.

Ten Nittany Lion trackmen, including "Fearless Fosdick" Horace Ashenfelter, did their best performances against Colgate in the Lions' dual meet at Hamilton, N. Y. last Saturday.

Don Longnecker ran the mile in 4:32.6, and Jimmy Robertson did a 10-flat hundred. Robinson ran a dead heat in :9.9 in his first race, which was run over. Johnny Bates pulled his best time in the two mile in 10:11.3, and both Ashenfelter and Fred Sennox topped previous performances in the 880-yard run. Ashenfelter's time was 1:56.9, while Sennox took second in that event with 1:58.8.

THROWERS IMPROVE

Larry Gerwig and Dino Taccozzi made their best javelin throws in competition this season against the Red Raiders. Gerwig took second with 176 feet, 1 1/2 inches, followed by Taccozzi with 176 feet, 6 1/2 inches. Bill Reynolds cracked six feet in the high jump for the first time this season, with 6 feet, 1/2 inch at Hamilton. Discus thrower Dave Pincus topped his best performance in competition with 144 feet, 3 1/2 inches, and Brown did 16 flat in 20-yard high hurdles for his best of the season.

Riders Place in First Show

Left to right: Art Whittier, Mary Goodwin and Bob Post represent Penn State in first intercollegiate competition.

Penn State's riding team, in its first year of existence and first intercollegiate competition, rode in six classes and won four ribbons at the Penn Hall Junior College riding show Saturday afternoon.

Penn State, Penn Hall, Wilson College, Westtown School, Wapatomoc Hunt and a number of individual riders were entered in the show.

Mary Goodwin, Robert Post and Arthur Whittier, Penn State equestrians coached by Captain Gregory A. Gagarin, took fourth place in the Intercollegiate Team special course, and captured another fourth place in the Hunt Team class, a team-of-three performance over a course of 12 brush and timber jumps.

Take Fifth in Working Hunters
The Penn State riding trio also won a fifth place in the Working Hunters class, individual performances over the 12 brush and timber jumps.

A feature of the Penn Hall riding show was the military lance drill performed by Penn Hall riders in which a troop of 22 mounts was put through intricate and colorful maneuvers.

The riding team participated in the show through the courtesy of Fritz Kleeman, Penn Hall tutor, who furnished mounts for the College's entries. The Penn State stable of 12 horses has not yet been sufficiently schooled for competition.

Nolan—Thiel's Reason For Bright Outlook

Despite the fact that he is faced with the loss of five veteran performers through graduation, Nick Thiel, Nittany lacrosse coach has an optimistic outlook for next season's prospects.

Defensemnen Tom Smith, Bronco Kosanovich, and Pete Johnson along with middlemen Art Tenuhula and John Finley will not return to the Lion fold next spring.

Chief cause for Coach Thiel's optimism for next year, however, is the return of John Nolan to school. The big gun on the Lion's 1946 squad, and football co-captain, Nolan was forced to leave college last June, but is planning to re-enter in the fall.

Another reason for the Lion mentor's confidence is the improvement shown by the lacrosse men throughout the season.

"The squad has progressed a great deal since the first of the season," said Thiel, "and, although the present team doesn't measure up to last year's, I'm sure that we'll have a good record next season, especially with Nolan coming back."

Golf Putting

Intramural golf putting quarter-finalists were announced today by the Intramural Office.

Arthur Evans defeated William Renton, Harry Beale took George Schautz and Robert Haenel defeated Royce Nix. Michael Horen also advanced to the quarter-final position.

IM Tennis

Phi Kappa Alpha advanced to a second round place in the intramural tennis doubles by taking two matches, both 7-6, from Pi Kappa Phi. The losers won one match, 6-2.

Sigma Chi took two out of three from Zeta Beta Tau. Scores of both were 6-4.

MEATS & PROVISIONS

COOK

"The Butcher"

230 E. College Ave.

SWEET THO'TS

—for that Graduation Remembrance, a box of delicious rich CHOCOLATES

... from ...

REA and DERICK'S

Save with HORMEL HAM HERE IS THE HAM

IN YOUR "Ham a la Corner"

ONE OF THE MANY QUALITY PRODUCTS SERVED AT THE

CORNER

"unusual"

Jack Harper

REVIVES A GOOD OLD PRE-WAR EVENT

DOLLAR DAY

THURSDAY, MAY 22nd ONLY

DOORS OPEN AT 8:00 A.M.

Jack Harper

HATTER · HABERDASHER · TAILOR

NOT ONLY A PENN STATE TRADITION BUT AN INSTITUTION

ON COLLEGE AVE.

STATE COLLEGE