

Carnival Nets $124 Profit

Proceeds from the annual Mortar Board Carnival given Saturday afternoon total $124.45, according to Joan Harrington, Mortar Board president. This sum will be donated to the Charlotte E. Ray scholarship fund.

Beta Sigma Omicron, selling ice cream, managed the most popular booth.

Those organizations having the highest return were Zeta Tau Alpha, $19.10; Sigma Delta Tau, $11.20; Alpha Epsilon Phi, $9.30; Delta Gamma, $7.60; Phi Sigma Sigma, $7.40; Chi Omega, $7.20; Cwens, $6.60.

Selling the most tickets was Sigma Delta Tau with Delta Gamma and Delta Zeta selling the second largest amount.

WRA Intramurals

Softball

Because of poor playing conditions the WRA golf, tennis and softball tournaments will not be completed this semester, according to Claire Parks, WRA Intramural chairman.

"After being repeatedly rained out it is not believed that there is time during exams to play off the tournaments," announced Miss Parks yesterday.

Although the softball tournament will remain uncompleted, Atherton is the unofficial softball champion since they are the winners in League I and have been undefeated this season.

Roundup

During the past year, WRA has managed twenty-one tournaments, handled nine special functions, and sponsored nine different clubs.

Claire Parks, WRA Intramural chairman, and Miss Mildred Lucey, faculty advisor of WRA, were directly responsible for planning and managing all of this year's activities. Under the intramural program, five tournaments were played.

As winner of three out of five of the completed tournaments, Atherton will have its name inscribed on the intramural cup held in White Hall.

Eighteen teams played in the badminton intramurals. Barton, Dinius, Geiger, McCormick, and Nelson played on the championship Atherton team. Runners-up were Phi Mu, second, and Delta Zeta, third.

The volleyball intramurals saw eighteen teams competing in the thirty-seven games played. Atherton again took the championship, winning six games out of six. Team members were, Brown, Carson, Dinius, Failor, Gamby, Garofano, Geiger, Grossman, Hostetter, Newell, and Zekauskas. Kappa Delta came in second and Coop took third place in the tourney.

AChiO's Champions

Intramural table tennis champions were the AChiO's. Jenkins, Kell, Moran, and Powell made up the team. Sigma Delta Tau held second place in the competition and Kappa Kappa Gamma third.

Atherton claimed the intramural bowling title by defeating the Gamma Phi's in the finals. Third place winners were the Delta Zeta's. Players for the Atherton team were Dinius, Ebner, Geiger, Hostetter, Memory, Null, Sloane, and Wolfinger.

Basketball Teams

In the intramural basketball tourney, the Alpha Xi Delta's won eight games out of eight to take first place. Kappa Alpha Theta came in second and Coop third. Ann Baker, Lynn Drake, Ria Hanslik, Marian Holmes, Dorothy Johnston, Nancy Killam, Rene Mowles, Grace O'Donnell, Susie Van Arsdale, and Helen Zoll played on the Alpha Xi Delta team.
