

Cougars Invade East for Opener

The Washington State football team will make its first trip East since 1930 when it meets the Nittany Lions in the season's opener at Hershey Stadium September 20.

Cougar coach Phil Sorboe anticipates a strong team helped by the return of most of his 1946 talent, including Bill Lippincott, all-Pacific Coast Conference half-back in 1945.

According to line coach Jim O'Hara, who scouted the Cougars last year, Lippincott will be the man to watch.

VERSATILE STAR

"He is the type of runner, passer and all-around ball handler that a team has to be on its toes to stop," said Coach O'Hara.

Other Cougar men who have been outstanding in their play are center Andy Lazor and end Francis Bacoka, both candidates for all-star honors. Gordy Brunswick, 205-pound fullback, is noted for his passing and kicking.

While the Blue and White stands to lose six of eleven starters, Coach Bob Higgins will have 20 or more squad members back, plus another dozen boys who played during the war years, and who are now out of uniform. In addition, he expects some promising boys from the State Teachers Colleges.

Comparing last year's results, Washington State lost six games, four of which could have gone the other way. In the season's finale, Michigan State came from behind to top the Cougars, 26-20.

Alumni Outscore Varsity Booters

Coach Bill Jeffrey's soccer team, composed of alumni and graduating senior soccermen, defeated a strong "Up and Comers" team, 2-1, in a game played Saturday afternoon.

Fred Kretzer scored the first goal in the early part of the first period to put the Up and Comers out ahead. Coach Jeffrey's penalty-kick goal in the second frame knotted the count at one-all.

The game remained deadlocked until the closing seconds of the final period when Paul Bender booted the ball into the net for a goal and an alumni victory.

Karver Wins Coliseum Mile; Ewell Runs Second in 220

A crowd of 48,179 watched Gerry Karver puff to a stop in the mammoth Los Angeles Coliseum Friday night, the victor of a tough mile which stamped him as Olympic material and proved that his inconsistency, for the most part, was over.

The Penn State IC-4A champion took the four quarters in 4:15.2, a good time considering the night coolness, while Texas University's Jerry Thompson came in second, and Leslie MacMitchell finished third.

Barney Ewell, former Penn State great who is finishing his work toward a degree at the College, fell behind the phenomenal Mel Patton of the University of Southern California in the 100 and 220-yard dashes.

Patton clipped the 100 in :09.5 for the fourth time in his career, and reeled off the 220 in 20.4 for the third time this season. Patton tied the world's record in the 100 in :09.4 in the California Relays Saturday night, and his Trojan coach is predicting that he will be down to :09.2 before he finishes school.

IC-4A

Karver will be gunning for the IC-4A outdoor title in the mile this weekend at Philadelphia. He won the indoor title last winter, and within the past month posted a 4:11.6 for the best college outdoor mile in five years.

Michigan State's powerful 18-year-old Jack Dianetti will be running in the IC-4A's, but it has not been announced whether the Rochester, N. Y., freshman will run in the mile.

There is a possibility that Dianetti will scratch everything to try to beat the Penn State champion over the four-quarter route.

The last time Karver and Dianetti met was May 10, at New Beaver Field, when the Nittany Lion miler outkicked Dianetti for a new Penn State record, the fastest college dual meet mile ever run, and the fastest collegiate mile since Bobby Ginn's 4:11.2 in 1942.

STONE DEFENDS

Curt Stone, Penn State's great two-miler, will be defending his outdoor title at the Philadelphia meet next weekend. Stone holds both the indoor and outdoor two-mile titles in the IC-4A's in addition to the Penn State record of 9:19.

Horace Ashenfelter will compete in the mile for the Lions, and Bill Shuman will run the 880. Other Penn Staters who will probably see action are sprinter Jimmy Robinson, javelinmen Floyd Lang, Dino Taccolozzi and Larry Gerwig, discus thrower Dave Pincus, broad jumpers Denzie Hoggard and Bill Pearson, runner, Fred Lennox, Don Longnecker, Bob Auman, Mitch and Ruf Williams, and pole vaulters Milt Stemmler, Chuck Willing and Bill Reynolds.

Tops in Sprint Field

Track Coach Chick Werner, of Penn State, still rates Barney Ewell the top man in the American sprint field.
