

Karver, Stone Cop National AAU Titles

Penn State's inimitable distance duo—Gerry Karver and Curt Stone—came through with National AAU titles at Lincoln, Neb., Friday and Saturday.

Karver copped the 1500 meter run to become the first college miller since 1941 to score a triple win in the IC-4A's, the NCAA and the NAAU's.

Fees Payable

Fees for the summer semester are to be paid in Recreation Hall from 9 to 4 o'clock Thursday. There will not be any installment payments of fees during the summer session.

Dr. Plant Speaks On Delinquency

"Juvenile Delinquency—Whose Fault?" the first of this week's series of talks in the Pennsylvania Workshop forum, will be discussed by Dr. J. S. Plant, director of the Essex County Juvenile Clinic, Newark, N. J., today at 11 a.m. in 3rd Carnegie Hall. Students and visitors are invited to attend.

Tomorrow's program, a panel of three speakers, will discuss "Religious Education in the Modern School." Panel members include Dr. Malcolm Mussina, pastor of Llyswyn Church, Bellefonte, former student pastor at the College; J. V. Thompson, head of religious education at Drew University; and Clara Cocke, director of elementary education at Altoona.

State director of health for Florida, Dr. Walter Wilkins, will speak on "Nutrition—A Problem in General Education" at the 11 a.m. session on Thursday.

The effect of atomic energy on society will be the subject of Dr. Roy K. Marshall, director of the Fels Planetarium in Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, on Friday. "Labor Looks at Education" will be discussed by a member of the Women's Institute of C.I.O. at the College Monday.

These lectures and panel discussions are a part of the Workshop program headed by Prof. Mary Jane Wyland which is conducted during the main summer session for graduate and special students in education from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Other group meetings which analyze problems in teaching are held on page four.

Mixed Swimming Slated Weekly

Mixed swimming will be conducted for students and faculty members at Glennland pool, Beaver avenue and Pugh street, free of charge every Wednesday at 8 p.m. Albert Michaels is in charge of the pool.

Music, diving exhibitions, and other features will be presented during the swim by Earle Edwards, who supervises the College summer recreation program.

Student and faculty men may swim with no suits without cost Monday and Wednesday 4-6 p.m., Tuesday and Thursday, 7:30-9 p.m., and Saturday, 1-4 p.m.

Student and faculty women may swim Monday and Wednesday, 7:30-9 p.m.

(Continued on page four)

Unchaperoned Women

Unchaperoned women guests may not be entertained in men's fraternity houses at any time during the summer session, according to Arthur R. Warnock, dean of men. Notices of chaperoned social parties should be filed in advance with the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women.

Stone added another laurel to his impressive list of championships in the NAAU 5000 meter run.

Barney Ewell, former Penn Stater running for the Shanahan Catholic Club of Philadelphia, retained his NAAU 200-meter crown and placed second to Bill Mathis of Illinois in the 100-meter dash.

Karver replaced Leslie Mac-Mitchell of NYU as the latest three-crown winner, coming from sixth-place in the final lap to win the 1500 in 3:53.9, the equivalent of a 4:10 mile, and the fastest time for that distance since Gil Dodde won in 1943. Karver's time was considerably faster than Lenart Strand's of Sweden, who won the event last year.

In the 5000, Stone defeated Jerry Thompson of Texas, who had beaten the Nittany Lion distance ace in the NCAA's at Salt Lake City, Utah, two weeks ago in the two-mile. Stone's time was 15:02.7. He trailed Thompson in second place most of the race and did not pull ahead until the final lap.

Floyd Lang finished third in the junior competition in the javelin throw with a heave of 197'.

(Continued on page three)

Drama Students Stage 'Our Town'

An abridged version of Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" will be staged by summer session dramatics students for dramatics students in Little Theatre, basement of Old Main, 7:30 p.m. today.

Prof. A. C. Clostineh, head of the dramatics department, will enact the role of stage manager, soda fountain proprietor, and town minister. Robert Reifsnider and Robert Kendall, instructors in dramatics, co-directed this abbreviated rendition.

Major roles will be portrayed by Anne Curry as Emily; Sherwood Webber as George; Jo-Marie Jackson as Mrs. Gibbs; Joseph Sitkin as Mr. Webb; and Margaret Hurley as Mrs. Webb. These performers are taking courses in direction, acting, production, and playwriting, and every Tuesday evening will constitute an experiment in theatrics.

Plays to be produced on subsequent Tuesdays include Saroyan's "My Heart's in the Highlands," Anderson's "Joan of Lorraine," O'Neill's "Anna Christie," and Barry's "Holiday."

Graduates' Wives Attend Dames Tea

A tea for all wives of men attending graduate school at the College will be held by the Penn State Dames at the home of Mrs. M. R. Trabue, 505 W. Hillcrest avenue, at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

All women who plan to attend shall sign up at McAllister Hall or call Mrs. R. E. Patterson, 4782. Officers elected recently are Mrs. Chris Groneman, president; Mrs. Andrew Kozak, vice-president; and Mrs. Edwin Schneider, secretary.

Committees are program, Mrs. Ellsworth Russell, chairman, Mrs. Jessie H. Winnimore, Mrs. Tillie Kostenbader; publicity, Mrs. M. B. Caldwell, chairman, Mrs. Andrew Kozak, Mrs. Edwin Schneider; picnic, Mrs. Robert Knoebel, chairman, Mrs. Joy Derrickson, Mrs. Ray Laudenslager.

The Yaysnoff Sisters

Duo Pianists Open Artist Concerts

The first concert of the Summer Artist Course will be presented by the Yaysnoff Sisters, duo pianists, in Schwab Auditorium at 8 o'clock Thursday night.

Season tickets for the series can still be purchased for two dollars at the Summer Sessions office, first floor Burrows. Individual tickets will be on sale at the door the night of each performance.

The Yaysnoff sisters, June Tanya and Iris Alexandrovna, are composers as well as performers and will feature some of their original work with a program of Bach, Brahms, Mozart, and modern Russian, American, and Latin-American composers. The sisters use largely their own arrangements of which there are almost 400.

Up to the present time, the Yaysnoffs have composed five major works and many smaller ones. "Islam," a symphonic suite for two pianos and orchestra, is published. They are now completing another symphony and have finished the "sketching" of an opera based on a story by Balzac.

The Yaysnoff sisters, who were born in London of French-Polish-Russian parents and speak French as well as they do English, have been guest artists on many radio shows and had their own program which ran for 13 weeks over the NBC network.

New Assistant Dean 'Right at Home' On Campus

The new assistant to the dean of women, Miss Edith Zinn, feels right at home on the College campus. Receiving her bachelor's degree here in 1932, she returned in 1943 to do graduate work and obtained her master's degree at the College last year.

Miss Zinn has noticed many changes in coeds since her undergraduate days. "Not only are there many more women attending the College, but women students now are so much more alert to political and economic conditions," she said.

One of the changes Miss Zinn hopes to see on campus in a short time is a return of the "Penn State spirit." She feels that much of the college loyalty and unity has lessened during the war years of accelerating classes.

Half-length cotton dresses coeds are sporting on campus now reminded Miss Zinn of her undergraduate days, when women's skirts were also having their ups and downs.

An art major when she was a student, Miss Zinn intends to spend some of her leisure time now "just dabbling," especially in oils and linoleum block prints. That is, if an assistant dean of women will have any spare time.

State Steelmen Open Second Labor Institute

Pennsylvania steelworkers, converted to campus attire, are assembling at the College this week for the opening sessions of a union-sponsored labor institute.

Eighty-five representatives including men and women of some 500 local and district leaders in the potent United Steelworkers of America (CIO) arrived Sunday, the first of four groups who will attend week-long sessions designed to further labor's knowledge of the aims and responsibilities of the labor movement.

Clad in sport shirts and slacks, with reams of mimeographed notes under their arms, the "students" attend classes from 8 a.m. to 2:50 p.m. Recreation from 3 to 5 p.m. and dinner at 6 p.m. is followed by visual aids and other classroom demonstrations in the evening.

Enrollees Prais, College Some of the enrollees are back for the second time. This institute, which is serving as the pattern this summer for similar instruction at Antioch College and the Universities of Alabama, California, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, and New Hampshire, was held at the College for the first time last year, and more than 400 local and district leaders returned to their homes high in praise of "college."

Anthony Luchek, labor expert who came to the College in February from an administrative position with war relief operations of American labor and was connected previously with the War (Continued on page four)

Reception, Dance Highlight Week "Fun Night" at Recreation Hall Friday night and a student-faculty reception and informal dance at White Hall Saturday night highlight this week-end's social calendar.

Dancing at Fun Night from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m. Friday will be to recorded music. Games, cards and badminton will be available. Admission is free.

The reception in White Hall Saturday night will begin at 8:30 with dancing scheduled from 9 to 12 p.m. to music by the Swingerettes, an all-girl orchestra led by Florence Slifer of Allentown.

Dean and Mrs. M. R. Trabue, Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Weaver, and members of the Board of Trustees of the College will be in the receiving line. The game room will be open for ping pong, checkers, cards, and other games, said Miss Pearl O. Weston, dean of women, who is chairman of the program committee.

Other members of the program committee are Mr. Earle E. Edwards, director of Summer Sessions recreation program; Dr. Agnes McElwee, Prof. Viktor Lowenfeld, John E. Miller, administrative assistant to the director of Summer Sessions, and Prof. Mildred L. Wallace.

War Department Selects Film

"Pennsylvania Government in Action," a film produced by the Motion Picture and Recording Studio of the College, has been selected as one of the America films to be translated into German and Japanese, the Civil Affairs Section of the War Department has announced.

When translated, the film will be distributed in the occupied countries of Austria, Germany, Japan, and Korea as part of the program in those countries to show democracy works.

The film was written and directed by Frank Neusbaum. The photographer was Delmer Duval Paul Seitzinger was in charge of sound, and Prof. Harold F. Alder was technical advisor. The narrator was William S. Livegood Jr., State Secretary of Internal Affairs.

Summer Students May Total 5000

Enrollment for the Summer Sessions at the College may reach 5000 and a new record, College officials said today.

On June 30, 2690 students registered for the main session. At the registration April 28 for regular semester students, 2400 had enrolled for main and post sessions of which 2000 are estimated by college officials to be attending the current session.

A Conservation Laboratory and several workshops scheduled for summer courses will swell the enrollment over the record mark. At inter-session which closed June 27, 1120 students were registered, of which 608 were veterans.

Band Issues Call For New Member The Centre County Symphony Band has issued an invitation to all College and town residents to join their summer group. Robert Field, a graduate student at the College, is director.

Sponsored by the State College Recreation Board, the band practices in the high school auditorium, Fairmount avenue, at 7: every Wednesday evening. A program of broadcasts and concerts is being planned.

Collegian on Sale Collegian subscriptions will not be included in fees during the Summer Session. Subscriptions including today's issue can be purchased for 35 cent at the Student Union desk 1, Old Main and at the Corner Room until Friday afternoon. Single copies are on sale at Student Union for 7 cents.